LITHUANIANS LOOK TO U. S., SAYS CONSUL

CHICAGO, Ill.—“The Lithuanian nation looks to the United States as the defender and eventual liberator of Lithuania.”

That was told to an estimated 50,000 Southowners gathered in Marquette Park Sunday, July 18 for the 21st annual observance of the death of Lithuanian heroes Stephen Darius and Stanley Girenas.

Appearing at the Lithuanian memorial observance were Mayor Kennelly, Anthony Otis, president of the sanitary district, County Commissioner Dan Ryan, County Clerk Dan Daley, and Judge Alfonso Wells.

Lithuanians memorialized in the ceremony, Capt. Stephen Darius and Lt. Stanley Girenas, were killed 21 years ago in an ill-fated flight across the Atlantic in an attempt to establish better relations between their country and America.

Thanks!

Sailor—Could I have special liberty to go shopping with my wife?

What's The Difference?

Mother—Shame on you, Doris, for spanking your little kitten.

Doris—Well, mamma, you're not ashamed of yourself when you spank me.

Beware when the great God lets lose a thinker on this planet.
