IŠ ŠALIES ŽIURINT

J. P.

Ilgai laukti Lietuvos svečiai pagaliau atvažiavo ir mes sveikiname juos, linkėdami, kad jų vizitas Amerikoje būtų sėkmingas ir atneštų pagėdaujamų vaisių.

Žinome, kad Lietuvos sportininkai pas mus atvažiavo ne tiek visokių sporto rekordų laužyti, kiek anot jų pačių žodžių "užmegsti artimesnius santykius su lietuviškuoju jaunimu Amerikoje."

Atrodo, kad tai trylikai jaunų geros valios ambasadorių tikrai pasiseks padaryti tai — užmegsti artimesnius santykius su broliais šiaurės Atlanto.

Mes dar nebuvo matę Amerikos lietuvių jaunimo ant tiek išjudinto, kiek jis yra šio sportininkų vizito proga. Daugeliui jaunųjų, Lietuva įgavo naują šviesą.

Žmonės atvažiuojanti iš Lietuvos pirmiau, paprastai būdavo koki seniai, atsiųsti čia ankų rinkti.

Dabar trylika jaunų vyrų, trylika puikių džentelmenų atvažiavo mus su Lietuva supažindinti. Lietuvos sporto gyvenime padarytos pažangos parodyti. Ir jie randa užtektinai susidomėjusių klausytojų.

Mes tikime, kad šis Lietuvos sportininkų apsilankymas yra pradžia naujos eros, abiejų kontinentų jaunųjų lietuvių bendradarbiavime.

Vizitavimą vieni kitų būtinai turime palaikyti.

Šiomet Lietuva pas mus, tai sekantį mėną mes būsimė Lietuvoje.

Iš svečių sužinojome kad jaunimas Lietuvoje šiandien yra puikiai suorganizuotas, kuo kaip tik negalime mes, Amerikoje, apie savo jaunimą dar pasigirti.

LIETUVA PRALAIMĖJO KREPŠINĮ 24 - 20

AMERIKIEČIAI TURĖJO SUNKIĄ KOVĄ. PRANAS TALŽUNAS SUŽEISTAS

Visų sporto kontestų, Lietuvos sportininkų lankymosi Chicagoje proga, pats svarbiausias — krepšinio rungtynės įvyko penktadienio (Liepos 16 d.) vakare. Jų pasiūlymą susirinko arti 3,000. Cicero stadijonas kame rungtynės įvyko buvo pilnas.

Kontestas buvo įtemptas ir gyvas. Nuo pradžios Lietuva ėmė viršų ir sekančioms žaidimams atrodė, kad turbūt Amerikiečių "All Star" komanda nepajėgs pasivyti. Dalykai įgavo kitokią spalvą tik kada Lietuva neteko dviejų savo geriausių žaidėjų: Pranas Talžūnas įbėgo į oponentų lošėją ir netyčiomis prakirto akį. Žaizda buvo gana skaudi, daktaras turėjo užsiūti ir suprantama Talžūnas, vienas geriausių metikų turėjo iš žaidimo pasitraukti. Kitas smūgis Lietuvai — tai netekimas Leono Baltrūno, kuris buvo eliminuotas dėl keturių foulų.

Kitas dalykas beabėjo žymiai prisidėjęs prie Lietuvos pralaimėjimo, tai, kad Amerikiečių komandos žaidėjai buvo mainomi, gali sakyti kas minutė.

Amerikiečiai turėjo 15 žaidėjų, o Lietuva tik šešis. Lietuvos komandai vadovavo Feliksas Kraučūnas, o Amerikiečiams Jonas Juozaitis, "Jaunimo" sporto redaktorius. Galutinis rezultatas - 24—20 amerikiečių naudai.

Antrajam žaidime, 1935 metų lietuvių olimpinė komanda vedama Ed Krause nugalėjo "All-Stars" (Lietuvos nugalėtojus) rezultatu 31—26.

LIETUVOS SPORTININKAI CHICAGOJE

Chicagos lietuviai jei galėtų daryti, ką jie norėtų ir ką jų širdys jaučia, tai Lietuvos sportininkų iš savo tarpo neišleisti.

Nuo to momento kada jie išlipo iš atvežusio juos autobuso pereito penktadienio vėl vakarą, ta trylika kuklių, bet begalo simpatingų vyrų patapo Chicagos lietuvių mylimiausiais svečiais. Ir jiems priėmimas toks surengtas, kad ir karaliui nedarytų gėdos.

Viskas prasidėjo pereito penktadienio vakare (Liepos devintą). Nors sportininkų specialus autobusas, vežantis juos iš Pittsburg'o turėjo Chicago pasiekti apie 9:30 vakaro, jau taip anksti kaip aštuoniose, prie puošnaus Shoreland viešbučio, kuriam Lietuvos svečiams buvo rezervuoti kambariai, pradėjo rinktis patriotiškai nusiteikę lietuviai. Kaip devintą, ten jau buvo susirinkę apie keturi šimtai, didelė dalis jaunimo, ir laukiančių prieky buvo visa Chicagos lietuvių smetonėlė. Mažas nusivylimas buvo, kada autobusas nepasirodė numatytu laiku; jis atvažiavo dviem valandom vėliau, vadinas trumpai prieš pusianaktį.

Autobusui dar nesustojus, apgulė jį entuziastiška minia, kiekvienas bandė prisigrūsti arčiau, gauti geresnį vaizdą ir būti arčiau svečių.

Nors sportininkai buvo gerokai išvargę (autobusu keliavo visą dieną be perstojos), minios svei-kinimus gražiai priėmė, kiekvieną išlietą ranką paspaudė, kiekvieną žodį jų adresu, atsakė, kiekvienam turėjo nuoširdžią, lietuvišką šypseną.

Sportininkų delegaciją sudarė sekanči asmenys: Stasys Šačkus, Arturas Cenfeldas, Anupras Tamulynas, Aleksas Jakutis, Leonas Baltrūnas, Zenonas Puzinauskas, Arturas Andriulis, Leonas Puskunigis, Feliksas Giedrys, Feliksas Kraučūnas, Pranas Talžūnas ir Juozas Žukas.

Sportininkus atlydėjo Kūno Kultūros Rūmų Kaune direktorius, Vytautas Augustauskas su žmona.

Kiti atvykusieji su atletais iš Lietuvos yra Galvydis ir Kviklys, seimo atstovai. Atvažiavo kartu ir du žurnalistai — Vincas Petronis, "Lietuvos žinių" korespondentas, ir Vytautas Alantas-Jakševičius, "Lietuvos Aido" redaktorius.

Gražioji ponja Augustauskienė buvo apdovanota keliais bukietais rožių, vienas jų buvo nuo "Jaunimo", įteiktas per mūsų merginų skyriaus vedėją p-lę Ievą Lukošitę.

Po to svečiai užsiregistravo viešbutyje ir gavę savo kambarius skubinos apsiprausti ir persirengti, nes dar vakaro priimtuvės nebuvo pasibaigę. Chicagiečiai susirinko į viešbučio "grill room", kame sportininkams pasirodžius sekė sveikinimo kalbas. Jas sakė adv. Jonas B. Bordenas, kun. A. Linkus, Konsulas P. Daužvardis, adv. A. Lapinskas ir Dr. S. Biežis. Jiems visiems, sportininkų vardu, atsakė p. Vytautas Augustauskas. Po to atletai sudainavo keletą lietuviškų sutartinių. O paskui tai kalbų, kalbų. Svečiai lovas pasiekė tik apie trečią valandą ryto.

Sutikimo šokis

Šeštadienio rytą svečiai buvo nuvežti pas konsulą Petrą Daužvardį, kuris iškėlė svečiams pusryčius. Tos dienos vakarą, Olym-

MŪSŲ SVEČIAI

Lietuvą sportininkai apleido Birželio 25 dieną. Juos palydėti Kauno stoty susirinko didelė minia žmonių.

Pirmą negu sėsiant į laivą Ile De France, atletai su savo palydovais praleido keturias ir pusę dienos Paryžiuje apžiūrėdami ten vykstančią pasaulinę parodą.

New Yorkan atplaukė Liepos šeštą. Ošte juos sutiko būrelis newyorkiečių. Tam didžiajam metropolio jie praleido tik keletą valandų, prieš iškeldami Washingtonan.

Tą dieną kaip sportininkai lankė šalies sostinėje ten buvo lošiamas beisbolo "All Star" žaidimas.

Washingtono jie buvo svečiai Lietuvos ministerio pulk. Povilo Žadeikio.

Baltimorėje atletams iškelta viena didžiausių priėmimų, kurin buvo įtraukta visas miestas. Sportininkai pasakoja, kad jie jautėsi nelabai smagiai tam išplėtam jų sutikime. Sako, priėmė lyg kad koki herojai būtume. Gatvė, kuria atletai turėjo pravažiuoti, visoks judėjimas buvo sustabdytas.

Chicagon jie turėjo atvažiuoti kaip 9:30 vakaro, penktadienį liepos 9. Chicagiečiai pradėjo rinktis prie Shoreland viešbučio dar aštuoniose. Svečių autobusus pasiekė viešbutį tik pusė po vienuolikai.

Svečiai buvo išvargę. Nevalge buvo jau 11 val. ryto. Priėmimo komitetas tuoj susodino juos prie stalų ir pavalgydino... Kiekvienam davė po vieną sandvičių (butterbrodą) ir po stiklą alaus. Bet pirma negu galėjo valgyti, jie turėjo dar sudainuoti dvi dainas susirinkusiems.

INTERMARRIAGE

To the Editor of JAUNIMAS:

A young man who is ready to say "I do" should look into marriage as a great thing in the future. He should choose a girl of his own nationality. It will mean more happiness for his parents as well as hers. The children will be able to say, "I am a Lithuanian" not my father is Lithuanian and my mother is so-and-so. Religion will be looked upon the same by both parties, the in-laws will get together oftener and if necessary will help the children as much as possible when difficulty occurs. Lithuanian youths are marrying their own nationality girls because they can see that the wife is willing to help her husband to accomplish what he desires. She does not say to him, "I married you to stay home."

A young man that marries a girl of his own nationality will be far more content in the years to come and separation will be a "dead-duck" to them. So you young people who are about to be linked think things over twice before choosing a mate of a different nationality.

Adam Antanavičius,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Editor:

In issue No. 9 of JAUNIMAS, Mrs. M. J. Colney writes more "honest opinion and remarks" regarding the question of "Inter-marriage".

After eleven and one-half years of married life to a non-Lithuanian, my answer is "Inter-marriage? Yes!" I have yet to see any of the predicted complications in our life because of a difference in nationality.

Are we to infer that Lithuanians contemplating marriage with one of their own nationality do not need to take into consideration type, character, and background?

Our Mother Tongue

The Lithuanian language is particularly rich in diphthongs, that is, combinations of two vowels pronounced as one (dvibalsės). Out of 20 possible combinations, Lithuanian uses 9. However, only six are recognized as true dvibalsės: ai, au, ie, ui, uo. The other three (ai, io, iu) are regarded as vowels softened by i. In Lithuanian diphthongs both vowels are more or less pronounced and recognized. They do not tend to disappear when spoken as they do in English (compare: ea in real, oa in roar). And we do not meet in Lithuanian such English combinations as ea, oa, oi, ue.

ai (as in "laikas", time) is similar in sound to the "ie" in "lie" (compare: laida, an edition, an issue; laidas, a guarantee, security; laidoti, to bury; laiduoti to guarantee, to assure). It is never the "ai" in English bait, wait, faith or said. It is the same as the Latin "ae" and performs one of its functions: to denote the plural of nouns whose singular ends in "as". For example: laukas, field; laukai, fields. This is one of the many resemblances between Latin and Lithuanian. Another function of "ai" is to denote adverb endings: storiai, thickly; gerai, well; gražiai, nicely, beautifully; labai, very. It is found also, in the following verb forms:

2nd person singular, past tense: tu buvai, you were; ėjai, went; gavai, received; dainavai, sang; žiūrėjai, looked.

2nd person, present: tu matai, you see; žinai, know; darai, do; varai, chase; rašai, write; skaitai, read. (Note that the past tense of this class of verbs ends in the diphthong "ei": tu matei, darei, varei, rašei, skaitai. For the past of "žinai" we use "žinojai").

Another function of "ai" is to denote the ending of the superlative degree of adverbs: lengvai, easily; lengviau, more easily; lengviausiai, most easily. One of the commonest mistakes is to confuse this ending with the "ia" ending of feminine adjectives of the superlative degree. For instance, "jis darbą puikiausiai atliko" (he done his job best). Here, the tendency is often to forget the i at the end of puikiausiai and write puikiausia. But this is a feminine adjective ending: puikiausia mergina (the best girl).

Here are some constructions of sentences which we should avoid in Lithuanian:

Su juo atsitiko nelaimė (an accident happened to him) a more correct construction would be: ji ištiko nelaimę.

Neužilgo (soon, in a while); it is better to use "netrukus". Say, "netrukus aš grįšiu; netrukus ir aš savo profesijos viršunę pasieksiu; netrukus ateis rugpjūtis," (I'll return soon; soon I'll also reach the top of my profession; soon August will come).

Pilnai tinka (it fits perfectly); use here "visiškai tinka".

Vyt. Sirvydas.

nus. Apie 95 nuošimčiai Chicagos neturiu iki šiol nėra nei matę panašaus ištaisymo, nors priėmimo komitetas matyt norėjo sportininkus impresuoti, kad štai kaip lietuviai Amerikoje gyvena.

Kad svečiai gautų prieš išvažiavimą pamatyti, kaip skurdžiai daugelis lietuvių gyvena — kitokią opiniją išsiveštų. Teisingesnę.

Ir sportininkai nebuvo patenkinti viešbučiu. Per daug elegantiškas. Jiems nebuvo valia miegti viešbučio patalpose pasirodyti be kaklaraiščio bei švarko. O tokios karštos dienos.

Šios savaitės vidury svečius perkraustė į Hyde Park YMCA viešbutį. Čia truputį pigesni kambariai, bet už tad sportininkai turi gimnastikos salę, plaukimo baseną ir gali karštam ore be švarko vaikščioti.

Prie Amerikoniškų valgių sportininkai negalėjo lengvai prisprasti. Jie prisipažino, kad pirmasias kelias dienas pusiau alkani paliko stalus.

Tai išgirdus draugai sukruto, juos lietuviškais valgiais vaišinti. Taip pavyzdžiui pas Poškus (Jaunimo red.) atsilankę atletai gavo šaltibarščių, o Jucus sėserių restoranas iškėlė bulvinių blynų su rūkščia grietine vakarienę.

Pirmadienį po pietų svečiai nuvažiavo į Chicago teatrą kur matė "Easy Living" su Jean Arthur ir Edw. Arnold. Kino bilietus išrūpino teisėjas Zūris.

Zenonas Puzinauskas yra jauniausias narys visoj delegacij — tik septyniolikos metų. Kartu yra ir tykiausias iš visų. Šį pavasarį baigė Jėzuitų gimnaziją Kaune... Rudenį stovs Vytauto Didžiojo universitetui ir studijuos kalbas... Nori gilintis į senoviskąsias, ypač lietuviams artimą Sanskrito kalbą. Puzinauskas ir dabar žino daug kalbų kaip tai vokiečių, lenkų, rusų, čekoslovakų, prancūzų ir kit.

Vladas Bakūnas jau dešimtį metų kaip Lietuvos sporte dalyvauja. Per paskutinius kelis metus dirba Kūno Kultūros Rūmuos, ir yra visos Lietuvos vandens ir žiemos sporto reikalų vedėjas.

Stasys Šačkus, pereitą savaitę pasirodęs gerai įvairiose sporto šakose, yra Kūno Kultūros Rūmų instruktorium.

Leonas Baltrūnas, krepšininkas, Lietuvoje gyvena tik ketvirtį metų. Prieš tai jis gyveno gimtoje Rygoje kur jo tėvai ir dabar gyvena.

Pasirodo kad didžiūma sportininkų — "Suvalskiniai."

Pereito sekmadienio lengvosios atletikos rungtynėse, publika buvo labai partizaniška — didžiūma ėjo už svečius.

Feliksas Giedrys, teniso čempionas baigia technikos mokslus.

Ponia Augustauskienė palikęs daug gėrbėjų Chicagoje. Vyrui pri pažįsta, kad ji yra gražiausia moteris apsilankius iš Lietuvos. Moterys be jos gražumo dar daug kalba ir apie jos puikias suknius

GETTING PERSONAL

Mr. ED KRAUSE and MISS ELIS LINDEN have matrimonial intentions. Miss LINDEN attended the Lith. Track & Field meet at Stagg Field last Sunday, where ED was an official... Both obligingly posed for JAUNIMAS' cameraman but refused to announce the date of their wedding. FRANK TALZIUNAS, of Cicero, who went to Lithuania last April, to help the Lithuanians win the European basketball title and at the same time won recognition as the best forward on the other side of the Atlantic, didn't stay for the official reception Friday eve... As soon as he got his baggage, he sped to Cicero... to see his girl friend. They will be married Saturday, July 17. The Lithuanian athletic delegation will attend the wedding in body... FRANK will not return to Kaunas... Neither will JOE ZUKAS, PHIL KRAUSE, most likely will go back and fill the rank of basketball coach at the Kūno Kultūros Rūmai... PHIL, by the way, is very popular with the Lithuanian athletes and they say they will declare a "sidtown" strike should PHIL change his mind about going back with them... FRANK LUBIN, of Hollywood, Cal., former captain of the World's basketball champions, who spent a few months in Kaunas last summer, is also well remembered by the boys from across... They wish he could come back to Lithuania... FRANK, you know, is living in Hollywood where he is working for the Universal Pictures.. He studies law at nights.

LEONARD SHIMUTIS, editor of the Daily Draugas, was recently honored by the Lithuanian Government, when President SMETONA bestowed upon him the "Vytauto Didžiojo Ordenas"... He is the first Lithuanian journalist in U. S. A. to be awarded... And, if anybody gets medals, the men who did so much for the Lithuanian cause with their pens... And their jobs are unenviable... A laborer in any factory is paid more than a Lithuanian editor Which goes to prove that we still have men with ideals... not $.

Waterbury's Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce recently voted to donate ten subscriptions of JAUNIMAS to poor Lithuanian students of that city. A very nice gesture indeed.. Dr. J. M. COLNEY is the president of this C. C.

ANTHONY STELMOK, who is a student of journalism at the Northwestern University, is leaving soon for Michigan University, where he will attend the summer classes.. What no vacation, ANTHONY?... The fellow who presented the winning ticket for that automobile raffled off at the K. of L. Day last July 5, didn't get the car as yet... The committee claims there are a few questions to be cleared before they can present the keys and title to the winner, who by now is getting impatient and threatens to sue the committee...

ANTHONY ADAMS-ADOMAITIS, who spent a great deal of his time battling out scoops for the English Dailies, glanced over an issue of JAUNIMAS and started reading it. After reading the publication thoroughly, he dashed down to the office of JAUNIMAS and asked for a job. He said: "I like your paper. Can you find ample room for me on your staff. It's the paper that is building our youth into good citizens and helping them to develop a better character... Can I help you?" P. S. Now he's with JAUNIMAS. JUOZAS GRAJAUSKAS, who came to Chicago from Brooklyn a few weeks ago, got a position on the Tabor Farm.. EVA A. LUKAS, editor of "Feminine Fancies" left for a two week vacation... She'll visit many Eastern Cities.

BENNY BUDRICK and his fiancée, JOSEPHINE USELIS, have the date for the wedding set, only wouldn't make it public... Attorney GRISH is still on the sick list... KONNIE SAVICKUS, the bewhiskered attorney and sportsman, spent his vacation in New York... The OLIS Family spent their vacation at Tabor Farm. MIKE JUOZAVITIS, the pianist, is a business manager at this popular Mr. BACHUNAS' resort... ANDY PUPLIS, Notre Dame's star quarterback can be seen nightly on the corner of Cermak and Western Ave. where he catches a street car, taking him to his lady friend... LOŃ LABANAUSKAS left "Draugas" where he was a bookkeeper, and now is an assistant secretary at the Lithuanian consulate... Mrs. JOVAIŠA-BERNOTAS, the secretary for the consul will retire in the fall and will make their home in Rockford, Ill. Her husband, Mr. WALTER JOVAIŠA, is practicing medicine..

The Western Electric Co. is publishing a magazine for its workers and on the cover of the June issue appears a picture of a "pretty girl." who is SOPHIE JURKUS.

VINCAS PETRONIS, a Lithuanian journalist, who is accompanying the Lithuanian athletes, brought along a $300 camera with him.. Second day in America, someone stole it from him in Baltimore... DOMINICK KURAITIS, owner of the Milda Auto Sales is soon leaving for a 6-weeks vacation.. He intends to go as far north as New Foundland and Nova Scotia.. In his absence, the store will be managed by JOHN BANKY-BANKEVICIUS... It seems that Lithuanians just can't keep away from anything, anywhere... The latest is, of course, the MAE WEST marriage back in 1911 to FRANK WALLACE, who is PRANAS ŠATKUS, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The night of the arrival of the Lithuanian athletes, JAUNIMAS came out with a two-page extra... and we are glad to say, it was really the talk of the town... The guests of honor also liked it very much.

ir nori žinoti ar jos yra Kauno sinučių kreacijos, ar Paryžiaus.

Ponas V. Augustauskas, taip pat labai simpatiškas žmogus ir sportininkų mylimas.

A Few Ideas on Americanism and Lithuanianism.

For some years we have been coming across the expressions "suamerikonėjęs jaunimas", "užsikrėtęs amerikonizmo liga," etc. in various Lithuanian papers published in this country. The impression created by this attitude toward Americanism is that it is something incompatible with Lithuanianism, that it is something to be feared and condemned and eradicated from the hearts and minds of our children and young people.

What a misrepresentation and abuse of an almost sacred word! This false interpretation of the spirit of Americanism has very naturally turned many of our people against it, and has led to an attitude that can almost be described as anti-American.

Just what is Americanism? It is the full appreciation of the opportunities this country offers to its people for the pursuit of happiness, irrespective of their ancestry or station in life. It is love of flag and country and loyalty to the principles that are its foundation. It is, as Attorney Joseph J. Grish, writing in the February 15th issue of Jaunimas, put it: "the appreciation of our general welfare under the stars and stripes and all that it symbolizes in the freedom of speech, press and religion."

It takes a rather elastic state of the imagination to find anything in our Constitution or our system of government that apposes in spirit or in fact our Lithuanian movement, as we know it in this country. The spirit of Americanism is not inimical to our movement. It is our own stodginess and twenty-year old viewpoint of our problem that have kept us from solving it. America has given us every reasonable opportunity to make our young people Lithuanian - conscious. If so many of them have fallen away from us it is we ourselves who have failed in not using these opportunities to the best advantage. It is our own lack of initiative and progress and common sense in adjusting ourselves to new problems that has alienated so many of our young men and women from the Lithuanian movement, or has never attracted them to it in the first place.

It may be true that English, as the official language, is given first place in this country, but at the same time absolute freedom has been given to every foreign groups in teaching and speaking and reading its own language.

Though it has been our privilege to teach Lithuanianism as much as we wished, it seems sometimes that we have abused this privilege. Our patriotic feelings are not always directed first to the country of which we are, will be, or should be citizens. The simple fact remains that we have often stressed Lithuanianism to the detriment of Americanism. It is not so much that we are anti-American, as that we are far too indifferent or careless about appreciating and teaching our children to appreciate the American way of doing things.

So many Americans and that includes many of our nationality, go to either of two extremes. There are the ultra-patriotic

AMERIKOS PADANGĖJ

Rašo VINCAS PETRONIS

(RED. ŽODIS: Vincas Petronis, Kauno Aušros berniukų gimnazijos mokytojas, pasinaudodamas turimomis trijų mėnesių atostogomis, atvyko Amerikon su Lietuvos sportininkais. Jis kartu yra Kaune einančio dienraščio, "Lietuvos Žinios" specialiu korespondentu šioj kelionėj. Amerikoje, p. Petronis lankosi pirmą kartą. Šiame straipsnyje, jis pasidalina su "JAUNIMO" skaitytojais savo pirmaisiais išspūdžiais).

Vos įkėlus koją į Chicago, Jūsų Redaktorius kreipiasi į mane, kad parašyčiau ką nors iš savo kelionės. Turiu pirmiausiai pabrėžti ir atsiprašyti "Jaunimo" skaitytojų, kad tos kelios dienos pirmą kartą praleistos Amerikos kontinente, amerikiečių lietuvių tarpe, praėjo kinematografišku greitumu ir gausybė patirtų išspūdžių nespėjo dar kaip reikiant manyje susiformuoti. Taigi reikšdamas čia savo keletą minčių gal būt būsiu kai kur klaidingas ir ne taip supratęs. Tat atleiskite už atvirumą.

Pirmiausiai, kas krito man į akis, tai Amerikos miestų techniška pažanga ir nepaprastas gyvenimo spartis. Miestų statyba ir automobilizmas kuris yra pasiekęs bene aukščiausią laipsnį, stebina, bet ne džiugina mane. Mašina čia visakeriopai berods yra pavergusi žmogaus smegenis ir širdį. Žmogus valdydamas mašiną patampa jos vergu. Aš patenkintas esu į šį kraštą patekęs ir stropiai seku jo gyvenimą, bet nenorėčiau laisvai jame apsigyventi. Jis žmogaus dvasinio gyvenimo tiesa nevaržo, kaip kad kuriuose Europos kraštuose, bet užtat vargina. O dvasios nuovargis veda žmogų prie apatijos. Dvasios varžtis samoningesnį žmogų skatina nuolat kovoti, kilti ir siekti užsiibrėžtų idealų, gi dvasinis nuovargis veda prie apsnūdimo. Aš bijausi, kad Amerikos žmogus nuolatiniam mašinos užėsy ir monotoniškojo jo muzikoj ilgainiui neapsnūstų.

Tai tiek bendrų pastabų. Dabar pora žodžių dėl Amerikos lietuvių.

Lietuviai

Kalbėdamas apie Amerikos lietuvių aš būtinai turiu suskirstyti juos į dvi grupes:

Senimą ir jaunimą.

Senimas, kuris yra kilęs Liėtuvoj, kuris čia yra atvykęs laimės ieškoti prieš keliolika ar keliadesimt metų, mano manymu yra neatskiriama Lietuvos dalis. Senimo mintis ir širdis, kiek teko per trumpą laiką patirti, paliko tokia pat, kaip ir tėvynėj gyvenančio lietuvi. Todel, jis mums atvykusiems iš Lietuvos lietuviams yra artimas, malonus ir suprantamas. Jo godos, rūpesčiai ir džiaugsmai yra mūsų godos ir džiaugsmai.

Del senimo aš tiek tik norėčiau pageidavimų pateikti, kad jis mažiau painiotų asmeniškų įsitikinimų nuo bendrųjų visiems lietuviams reikalų. Šito kol kas atrodo Amerikos lietuvių senimui kaip tik ir trūksta. Žinoma aš čia neturiu galvoj atskirų asmenų. Šį pageidavimą reikšdamas, aš anaipol nesu tos nuomonės, kad visi Amerikos lietuviai turėtų būt vienodų pažiūrų. Turėti vienokį ar kitokį politinį ar religinį nusistatymą yra kiekvieno žmogaus individualinė brangi vertybė, nes ją gali turėti tik subrendęs ir gyvenimą pažįstas žmogus. Kitas visai reikalingas, kai savo individualybėje žmogus bando grįžti ir tvarkyti visų gyvenimą, nesiskaitydamas su kitų pažiūromis, nematydamas ir kitų įsitikinimuose tiesos.

Kiekvienas samoningas žmogus turėtų surasti bendrą aikštę, kurioje visi galėtų bendradarbiauti. O šitokia aikštė atrodo yra ir surasti nesunku. Reikia tik bandyti pažvelgti į pasaulį, į gyvenimą, ne vien per savo individualinius ar atskiros grupės akinius. Šito kaip tik aš ir linkėčiau Amerikos lietuvių senimo grupei.

Su Jaunimu kitaip.

Kitoks kiek reikalingas su Amerikos lietuvių jaunimu. Tiesa turiu prisipažinti, aš jį mažai pažįstu ir kalbėsiu apie jį tik iš pirmųjų savo išspūdžių. Bet intuicija teikia man ne visai malonų nujautimą. Aš keletą dienų pabendraus su juo, jaučiuosi lyg kažką brangaus praradęs.

Gal aš klystu, gal būt bereikalingai jaudinuosi; būčiau laimingas, kad taip būtų, bet sakau atvirai ką jaučiu.

Taigi, man atrodo, kad Amerikos lietuvių jaunimas (neturiu galvoj čia atskirų asmenų) yra pagautas amerikoniškos dvasios, ir ji atrodo tiek stipri, kad vargu ar besugebės, bent daugumos, atsisipirti lietuviškoji dvasia.

Brangiausia tautiškos dvasios vertybė yra kalba. Kalba yra tas svarbiausias, nepertraukiamas ryšys, kuris palaiko artimus santykius tarp atskirų tautos narių. Šis saitas atrodo kaip tik yra smarkiai nusilpnėjęs. Dar viena karta ir šis saitas atrodo nutruks. O kai nebeliks kalbos, kas gi beriš Amerikos lietuvių su jo tėvų žeme?

Lietuviškoji gamta, papročiai, tautosaka, literatūra, menas, Amerikoje gimusiame lietuviui nepažįstami dalykai. Jei Amerikos lietuvis praras ir kalbą, jis nustos visų tų įpatybių, kuo ir reiškiasi kiekvienos tautos dvasia, kitaipariant tautiškumas. Gal būt Amerikos lietuvių plaks lietuviškoji širdis ir gyslomis tekės lietuviškas kraujas, bet kas iš to lietuviui, kad jis maitins amerikoniškas smegenis. Mes žinome iš istorijos, kad lietuviškas kraujas maitindamas svetimas smegenis davė didelių žmonių (Jogailla, Kantas, Mikėvičius, Pilsudskis ir k.), bet jie darbaivos ir kūrė kitiems. Ima mane baimė, kad taip neatsitiktų ir su Amerikos lietuvių jaunimu.

Baigdamas aš norėčiau širdingiausiai palinkėti visiems Amerikos lietuviams, kad mano abejojimai neišsipildytų. O tai neatsitiks, jei Amerikos lietuvių jaunimas užmegs daug tampsnių, daug gaudesnių, ne vien sporte, bet visais frontais ryšius su savo tėvų žeme ir ją geriau pažins.

Be to turiu pareikšti širdingiausių dėkui už nepaprastą, taip širdingą ir jaukų mūsų sutikimą. Šis nuoširdumas pareikštas kaip iš senimo, taip ir iš jaunimo, man duoda gražių vilčių, kad tas glaudus bendradarbiavimas tarp vieno ir kito, amerikiečių lietuvių ir Didžiosios Lietuvos užsimegs, vieni kitus pažins, vieni kitiems draugiškai ranką paduos.

Feminine Fancies

By EVA A. LUKAS

FRECKLES AND TAN

There are two kinds of freckles — the little light-colored ones that form close to the surface of the skin that come with the summer-time exposure and usually disappear soon after cooler days arrive and the large, dark-colored ones that collect far below the surface of the skin. The epidermis, or outer layer of the skin, is constantly wearing away, and light freckles and tan, will disappear in time unless exposure to the sun stimulates the forming of more. The oils and lotions that prevent burning are helpful, however, it always is necessary to guard against prolonged exposure.

A bleach cream loosens the outer scales of the skin and hastens the natural "sloughing-off" process. If you use a bleach, be sure to follow directions carefully, and cover the skin with your regular nourishing cream.

The large, dark-colored freckles that are in the basal layers of the epidermis usually cannot be removed. It is best to give this type of skin all possible protection. A liquid powder in a tan shade is splendid for covering freckles on the hands, arms, and back of the neck. Apply it with a piece of absorbent cotton that has been dipped in cold water and pressed as dry and flat as possible between the palms of the hands. Use downward strokes in applying it so that the fine hair on the skin will not be brushed in the wrong direction.

PRETTY LITHUANIAN GIRLS GREETED GUESTS ATHLETES

The most anticipated and greatest of all Lithuanian social events was held last Saturday evening (July 10th) at the Olympic Ballroom. A grand Olympic Reception and Dance was sponsored by the American-Lithuanian Committee in honor of the sportsmen of Lithuania.

Finally, for the big event, itself. There were 12 Chicago's prettiest Lithuanian girls who were honorary escorts to the guest athletes. They were: Irene Yonaitis, Aldona Cukrus, Estelle Janchus, Stephanie Kazanauskas, Eleanore Matuliokas, Hypatia Punishka, Ann Jakaitis, Sally Peppers, Betty Plekavicius, Irene Aitutis, Eve A. Lukas and Anna C. Skrickus.

The girls were dressed in so many beautiful colors that they flittered like broken rainbows across the stage: athletes, in their uniform, so immaculate that they were like reflections from a Paris boulevard; both of these groups filled the stage in a dignified manner.

After the program and luncheon, the George Victor's orchestra swung into a rhythmic tune. The couples slowly sailed out into a sea of grace, rhythm, and beauty.

DR. KUDIRKA'S CONVERSION TO LITHUANIANISM

"At the time I was completing my studies at the College of Mariampolis. I was convinced that an intellectual person could not be a Lithuanian. I felt this way all the more as everyone despised the Lithuanians. I preferred to tell anyone who asked me my nationality that I was a Lithuanian Pole because as a matter of fact, Lithuania and Poland had been historically united. I considered myself then as Polish by adoption. This seemed a partial compensation for the mistake of being a Lithuanian. What a hypocritical interpretation of facts. Nevertheless, it was sufficient for me as it was for others like me, all the more as nothing had occurred to compel me to really think about the matter."

"It was with such a conception of my nationality that I entered the University (of Warsaw where there were very few Lithuanians; and even those who where there were not known among themselves. My feelings for Lithuanians in short, grew less and less."

"During my vacation I returned to Lithuania. A Priest related to me one day that a Lithuanian Journal was soon to appear. He showed me verses he had written in Lithuanian and a letter of Basanavičius concerning the publication of the Journal. I read the letter. Something touched my heart, but the sentiment passed. Child's play. I thought to myself, in Polish. From that moments thoughts in regard to Lithuania visited my mind more frequently, but my heart remained cold and indifferent to every thing which touched Lithuania and the Lithuanians."

"Six months elapsed: I received the first number of 'Aušra'; I looked at the first page, and there I saw Basanavičius. 'Apostle', I thought at once, but this time in Lithuanian. Suddenly I began to turn the pages of the journal and then I do not remember anything more distinctly. I remember only that I arose and bowed my head, not daring to raise my eyes... It seemed that I had heard the voice of Lithuania accusing me and pardoning me at the same time: 'Misguided man, where are you at this present moment?' 'Immediately I felt my heart tighten; I sank into my chair and began weeping like a child. I regretted the time that I had lost when I had done nothing for Lithuania, time that I could never recover. I blushed from shame that I had persevered so long in my misguided course; then my heart filled with new pride and energy. It seemed as if I had suddenly expanded and the world had grown smaller. I felt as powerful as a giant; I felt that I had recovered my Lithuanian nationality."

It is thus that Kudirka relates his conversion to Lithuanianism which he characterizes as a second birth and considers the most important moment in his life.

Taken from: Jean Pelissier, Les Principaux Artisans de la Renaissance Nationale Lithuanienne — pages 48-50.

We are familiar with the expression "History repeats itself"; its my personal belief that the introduction of "Jaunimas" to our American-Lithuanian Youth will have the effect on our Youth that the Journal "Aušra" had on Dr. Kudirka, and that we may anticipate that in the future there will appear many "Converts to Lithuanianism" from our large number of intelligent Lithuanian-American youth who up until recently have been kept in darkness as to activities of fellow Lithuanians and their distinguished accomplishments in all fields, of endeavor.

VOICE OF THE READER

That just the fact of their being both Lithuanians insures them they'll lead story-book lives of being "happy ever after"? Are we also to infer that intermarriage breeds neurotics? Medical statistics prove that intermarriage makes a stronger race.

The only argument against intermarriage is the fact that the children will probably not speak Lithuanian. But how many children of a purely Lithuanian union speak their mother tongue today? Even those of us whose parents were born in Lithuania.

This excerpt from "My Mixed Marriage" by George Sokolsky, Atlantic Monthly VCLII page 137 expresses more thoroughly the ideas that could convey.

1. Marriage is essentially a matter of readjustment, the more sensitive the individual, the more delicate the readjustment. Marriage involves not races nor nationalities, but individuals — two individuals, no more than two. Even if they are of the same stock, the same heredity, the same education, success or failure, depends upon adaptability. The inflexible man and the shrewd woman are never a happy pair.

A mixed marriage is then first of all only a marriage. The elements which make for success or failure are primarily those which determine the fate of other unions. Poverty, irascibility, injustice, brutality, and deceit. These make failures in any marriage. The "mixed" plays no part here.

2. Failure comes more often from deceit and ignorance than from any inability of races to blend.

3. Cultural influences help make success or failure in marriage more than any other factors.

STEAMING OFF?

Dear Editor:

Just received my issue of the JAUNIMAS. I am very pleased with the whole issue except the letter, "The Customer Is Always Right" — by Juozas Rubauskas of Waterbury, Conn.

The idea! Saying that the "This and That column is caustic and boorish in some of their remarks. He must be a great one for "cementing friendship and creating better comradry and cooperation" if he is like his letter.

It's to bad Mrs. Colney didn't write the article "Boast" sooner. The knocker she speaks of may be anyone in general, but I think it fits this J. D. to a "T".

I'm proud I'm a Lithuanian and I don't mind having the word abbreviated in the least. And, what's more, I don't believe it casts any reflection on the paper.

If he's as particular about what plane the paper is on — why don't he edit his own? Knocking the JAUNIMAS must satisfy his own ego very much because he must be pretty small.

The JAUNIMAS might not be on a very high plane, but it is certainly the outstanding Lithuanian Youth Paper and is most certainly on a higher plane than "our friend" has placed it on.

There, that lets some of my steam off.

The letter from Frank J. Lubin from Hollywood, Cal. asks for some books on Lithuanian grammar. Would you send me a list also-please?

M. C.

COMMENTARIES

Americans who spout patriotism at every turn, who hate and mistrust all aliens, foreigners and all fellow-Americans who speak any other language besides English, and who smugly excuse their own lack of pride and interest in the language and stock of their fathers with the backneyed "I am an American". And at the other extreme there are those who are not really anti-American (naturally, there is not, nor should there be, any room among true American-Lithuanians for those who are working for the overthrow of our government), but who nevertheless subordinate Americanism to their own-isms, and who attempt to set up another European country in America, severely apart from the others and with as little contact with others as possible.

We have always avoided an open discussion of the part Americanism should play in our private and public Lithuanian life, because we have labored under the delusion that true Lithuanianism and true Americanism are irreconcilable. So we have skirted around the question, as a too delicate and uncomfortable problem to discuss in Lithuanian circles.

The happy medium between the two extremes we mentioned above — a love of and pride in one's ancestral stock and tongue well-balanced with a solid, deep rooted American patriotism — is what every foreign — speaking group should strive for. It is what we Lithuanians must try to bring into our own lives. If we do, it will help to make us better Americans and better Lithuanians.

Lengvosios Atletikos Rungtynės

Sekmadienį, Liepos 11, Chicago's Universiteto milžiniškam stadione įvyko lengvosios atletikos rungtynės: Rungtyniavimas buvo įdomus (rezultatus rasite sporto puslapy). Dalyvavo penki Lietuvos atletai ir dvylika amerikiečių. Didelis nusivylimas visiems, kaip sportininkams, taip ir rengimo komiteitui, tai mažas publikos susirinkimas, atsilankė tik apie 500 žmonių.

LITHUANIANS VICTORIOUS IN TRACK AND FIELD MEET

The champion Track and Field team from Lithuania defeated the American athletes of Lithuanian descent by a score of 64 to 56 points, at a meet held in Stag Field last Sunday, July 11th.

The invaders from Lithuania overwhelmed the local boys by winning nine first places, four second, two third, and three fourth places to pile up a grand total of 64 to win the meet.

The American team won two first places, seven second places, nine third places, and seven fourth places.

The final decision of the committee gave the American team an extra point for fourth place. This decision was irregular, but a splendid move on the part of the American committee, almost disqualified five track men of Lithuania, in all events.

The five track Lithuanians athletes held out against the thirty five American entrees and walked away with the meet by virtue of taking the first places and piling up the score later in the field events, there in the Discus, Javelin and Shotput they placed three men in each. The meet was climaxed by a brilliant victory in the relay when the Lithuanian team finished 30 yards ahead of the local team.

BOXING SHOWS DRAWS 8,000 FANS

The Lithuanian general public surprised the Arrangement Committee and the Lithuanian Sportsmen by flocking to the Vytautas Park picnic grove in such numbers that it was almost impossible to handle the crowd and many turned back after waiting for an opportunity to get inside the grove.

A new record was established for Vytautas Grove, when approximately 900 cars were parked inside while others were forced to use the road side.

Charles Shedvilas, our Lithuanian fight promoter, put on a very unusual show. The fighters were so anxious to battle, that in one case, the fighting went on for two minutes after the bell rang and required all trainers, seconds, judges, and promoters, to pull the fighters apart.

The first bout between Johnny Luggo and John Satunas, was pretty even until the final round which Satunas took to win the fight.

The second bout turned out a real surprise when our Chicago Lithuanian lightweight champion. Frank Allis, won the bout from a professional fighter which was reputed to be so good, that many gave up all hope for Frank.

The final bout saw two of our former great fighters battling one another in what looked like a real grudge battle. Frank Ketter, former Central A. A. U. champion, who met Pete Wistort on the preliminary card two weeks ago, made another attempt to dethrone big Pete from his present position as the best Chicago Lithuanian heavyweight of today.

Pete Wistort's experience as former sparring partner for Dempsey, Sharkey, and Tunney stood him in good stead again and he won by a more noticeable margin than before.

The crowd was disappointed in one respect and that was the fact that the European Lithuanians did not participate in the fights. The two fighters who were scheduled, did not arrive from Europe with the others.

August 4th — Leave for Lithuania.

PUSKUNIGIS - HOLDER OF NEW DISCUS THROWING RECORD

The day before the Lithuanian athletes left Kaunas for America, Leonas Puskunigis, who starred in last Sunday's Field Day at Stagg Field, established a new Lithuanian record by throwing the discus with both hands — 70, 79 meters, (about 230 feet).

DARIAUS-GIRĖNO TRAGEDIJOS METINIŲ PAMINĖJIMAS

Dariaus-Girėno žuvimo metinės buvo iškilmingai paminėtos per reitą šeštadienį (Liepos 17 d.) prie lakūnų paminklo, Marquette Parke, dalyvaujant tūkstantinėms minios.

Iškilmės dalyvavo Lietuvos svečiai. Jie ir vainikus uždėjo. Kviklys ir Galvydis uždėjo varžų Lietuvos seimo, o lakūnai Pyragius ir Oškinis, nuo Lietuvos aviatorių. Sportininkai sugiedojo keletą giesmių, kurių viena, "Sveika Marija" minią sujungė į ki ašarų.

Neapsieita be kalbų ir jas pasakė red. L. Šimutis, Adv. Bordenas, A. Kumskis ir Adv. Kal. Pastarojo kalba sugadino šiek tiek nuotaiką, kada turbūt užmiršęs momento reikšmę jis įsigilino į nuobodžią lekciją apie politiką.

Sutemus minia palinksniata žervertkais.

A record crowd of twenty-eight riders attended the last ride, which was a larger crowd than could be handled at the stables, therefore, it was necessary to split the group.

TO OUR LITHUANIAN GRADUATES OF 1937

To all 1937 Lithuanian graduate boys and girls — My congratulations and true wishes. Your present and future depends mainly upon yourselves. Do not assume that the influence of others in your behalf would enable you to do better or accomplish more. Realize that you have within yourself all the power, ability, energy, and are ready to build a highly successful life. Its not whether you have many talents, but the practical use you are making of your one great talent.

Ones personal powers are made up chiefly of principles, ideas, desires and resolutions. Degree of success depend slargely on daily usage of these powers. One must give them earnest attention.

I do hope our Lithuanian boys and girls understand conceit. Conceited boys or girls are not attractive. They sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of industry, selfdenial, energy, and self help. They are skeptics in everything, doing no work themselves, and denying the work of others. They believe in nothing except themselves. They are their own tin gods.

Let my inspiring thought and good wish give strength to your Will, Purpose, your daily work, and lead you to your rightful place in this world. May Faith, Health, and Success be yours — our Lithuanian graduates.

Mrs. M. Colney,
Waterbury, Conn.
