LITHUANIA TODAY

By FRANK J. LUBIN ¿ (Ed. Note: Our Lithuanian correspondent, Albinas Azukas, who's interesting articles "Lithuania Today" you have been reading here for the past nine months is now vacationing on a farm in Suvalkija. He will return to this column in September. Pinchhitting for Mr. Azukas today we have Frank J. Lubin of Hollywood, Calif. who last June 3rd sailed for Kaunas to become the instructor of physical culture at the Vytautas University. Besides these duties Mr. Lubin is also the head basketball coach of the L.F.L.S. Sports organization)

KAUNAS, JULY 5 (Special) -We reached Kaunas in time to see the jubilee congress of the Pavasarininkai held here June 28-29. At least 40,000 young Lithuanians participated, most of them coming to Kaunas from the provinces and, many seeing this beautiful city for the first time.

Klumpës

They came in their national dresses and costumes, wearing home made "Kulmpēs" made out of wood with fancy leather tops. It was a most interesting and novel sight. They also held a "Paroda" (exhibition) at the University exhibiting Lithuanian handwork, linens, table clothes, towels etc. Then there were the wood-carvings, beautiful, of numerous designs of human beings, animals and scenery. All in all it was a remarkable show and mere words cannot describe the beauty of it.

On June 29th we saw our good friend Mr. Rapolas Skipitis off for South America. He first will go to France where he will stay a week or two. Then to London for ten days and after that he will sail for S. America and will visit Brazil, Argentina, Uraguay and Chile to stimulate the Lithuanians there into a greater national feeling. Mr. Skipitis will be gone about six months.

No Sunshine

It has been raining here in Lithuania for the past three weeks intermittently. Hardly been a good day of sunshine, so it looks like fine weather later for the Olympics.

Have met Krause, Budrunas, Jurgēla and Savickas here. We always get together to work-out and are getting along swell just now! Budrunas has taken this week to run down to Czechoslovakia with a group from JSO club on an excursion.

As I understand it, teams here will play in the Olympics as they are, that is, we won't combine and make one strong quintet. So that the strongest team looks like the JSO with Phil Krause, Budrunas, šačkus and Baltrunas. GRANDIS will have Jur-(Continued on page 7)

NEW YORK. - Lithuania will be represented at the New York World Fair of 1939. She has already secured an admirable site for her pavilion on the lake front, directly opposite the pavilions of Great Britain. Lithuania's building will stand between those of Rumania and Belgium.

Each of the participating nations has been assigned a special day and September 9th, the Lithuanian National Holiday, has been alloted to Lithuania at the fair.

SLA. Convention Ignores Youth Problem

SCRANTON, PA. - The shortest convention in the history of the Lithuanian Alliance of America was brought to a close at the Hotel Jermyn here on July 1st after holding only nine sessions. During the final session Chicago was designated as the scene of the next convention and K. Jurgelionis defeated S. E. Vitaitis by a vote of 149 to 115 for the position of editor of the Alliance official organ TEVYNE.

Although little or nothing of a concrete nature was discussed or determined during the convention regarding a broader, more appealing program of activities with which to attract younger Lithua-nian Americans into becoming members of the Alliance, younger members found some solace in the appointment of Miss Zorskytē, Keistutis Michelson and Vitalis Bukšnaitis to the jaunuoliu (Youth) Committee.

GoodRepresentation Even in Ocean Hops

When Douglas Corrigan landed in Ireland after crossing the Atlantic in his $900 'crate' last Monday, he became the eight person to have flown the ocean solo. The other seven: Lindbergh, Amelia Earhart, James Mollison, James Mattern, Wiley Post, FELIX WAITKUS and Beryl Markham.

Waitkus crossed the Atlantic in the fall of 1935 while attempting to make a non-stop flight from New York to Kaunas. Motor trouble forced him to make a landing in a pasture in Ireland. His plane, Lituanica II was badly damaged and he had to finish the trip in a dif ferent ship.

Lith. Language At Philadelphia U.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. -During the past few years, Philadelphia University has maintained a course in Lithuanian, in charge of Prof. J. Kent. Beginning the fall semester, this class will be tak en over by Prof. A. Senn who untill recently headed similar class at the Wisconsin University. Prof. Senn, although of Swiss nationality himself, has been specializing in the Lithuanian language for the last fifteen years. In 1929, then teaching at the famous Germany's Heidelberg University, Prof. Senn published a Lithuanian grammar. At the present time, he is preparing a Lithuanian Anthology for American Schools.

LAND OF BEAUTIFUL CHURCHES

Kaunas, Lithuania, 26, 1938. - This old world atmosphere is certainly different from ours. The villages and cities are more backward than I thought, although an attempt at modernization and culture is seen most everywhere.

Last week, we saw Kipras Petrauskas and Barbara Darlys in "Aida".

Lithuania is the land of beautiful churches. I doubt whether they can be compared to any in the U.S. "Karo Muziejus" is next in line for mention.

We were greeted in Klaipēda with a band and a welcome dinner at the Victoria Hotel. The ocean trip was one grand holiday. Regards to the entire staff.

LITHUANIAN-POLISH RELATIONS

Despite the events of last March 19th, the life of the Lithuanians residing in the Vilnius territory has not changed. According to the Lietuvos Aidas, the Polish press promised the Lithuanians there quite a number of things. It promised to return all that they lost during the past two years. And not only to return what they lost but to give more. But as yet, there has been no change in the life there. Only one newspaper has appeared. The Polish press has quieted down also and is satisfying itself. with official reports, giving information about the Lithuanian-Polish negotiations. The Lietuvos Aidas quotes a Lithuanian paper in Vilnius, saying that the Poles are even calling the Lithuanians their brothers, but the cultural life and the life in the country does not show any progress; it is no easier that before.

The Judges for the contest were Doctors Joseph Raymond and F. J. Hill, and Mr. Chase (Čekanauskas) former ly of Hartford. Prizes were awarded to:

PAUL PINCUS POSIN, — Ist Prize — $15.00, (Crosby High). Jewish.

VITY F. KAZLAUSKAS,— 2nd prize — $10.00. (Crosby High). Lithuanian.

JUNE R. LAURIN — 3rd prize — $5.00 (Sacred Heart) Lithuanian.

The Lithuanian Literary League sponsored the above contest with the purpose of encouraging the reading of books written about Lithuania. Some Lithuanians will no doubt critize the foct that the contest was open to all nationalities. Dr. T. J. Condon. Superintendent Schools, in his talk publicly commended the Literary League for being so broad minded. He also suggested that if possible such contests should be annonunced in the beginning of the school term, thereby giving much more time for suitable preparation for contestants.

Arthur, T. S. "Dešimt Mety Smuklēje" — drama — translated into Lithuanian by Kun. Dr. Jonas K. Navickas, M. I. C. 3rd Edition. Marijampolē, 1938.

The production by T. S. Arthur "Ten Nights in a Bar room" has been ably translated and adapted for dramatization in Lithuanian by Rev. Navickas. No doubt the average American is familiar with the story of the play, which was quite popular years ago.

For the benefit of American Lithuanians and especially Lithuanians everywhere—the play is a very clever way of propagandizing the evils of the old saloon, and the virtues of abstinence from alcohol.

A NEW HEALTH BOOK

Butrimavičius, Dr. Ed., "Kad Augtum Sveikas" (So that you may grow healthy). 183 p. Lt. 2,50. Sakalas. Kaunas.

"Kad Augtum Sveikas" is written primarily for Lithuanian youth, but in my estimation it will be widely read by youth and adults alike, as it is the first book to appear to ventative medicine written in popular style. The material is dealing with Hygiene, prepresented in story fashion, dry facts being eliminated. Various contagious diseases, their causes and methods of prevention are taken up. Illustrations of germs, intestinal worms etc. help to make the book interesting.

Part II. discusses personal hygiene in its various phases. Some space is also devoted to rendering of first aid in cases of various accidents, as drowning, cutting of blood vessels of the extremities, electrical shock, snake bites etc. Illustrations are given demonstrating methods of artificial respiration. The care of invalids, of children and aged are also taken up by the author.

The author has written the book in an appealing style, but also in a scientific manner, his information being up

Our Inheritance

(Continued from page 4) of immigrant adjusment is to give the second generation, who number over twenty-six million, a knowledge of and pride in their inheritance and to help them understand the problems and achievements of their parents, so as to bridge the gap between two generations and give them a feeling of belonging. The problem touches the future of America in a vital way."

We have underlined the words of professor Davie that should be remembered by all American born Lithuanians daily. Trough JAU-NIMAS and its ideals, which are so basically akin to what the eminent professor says, we shall help solve part of the problem of America's future, by pointing out to our youth that we are not a people come from the moon, dropped out of nowhere, into a New World. The Lith. uanians have a heritage and a cultural base as strong as the rocks of Gibraltar, if not as ancient. By knowing this cultural base and grounding ourselves upon it we shall grow up to be worthy and strong citizens of these United States. And it is the duty of all of us, who are already better adjusted, to help those who are groping toward an adjustment. With a knowledge and a pride in their cultural inheritance of a nation which is as old as any of them in Europe the younger generation of the American-Lithuanians will become stronger and better men and women.

Angliškai Ar Lietuviškai

Lietuvos vedamasis dienraštis "Lietuvos Aidas", savo 1938 m. Birželio 30 d. Nr., editorialu imasi gvildenti "Išeivijos bei lietuvių kalbos" reikalą. Rašiny nusidejuojama, kad išeivijos jaunimas, nustumdamas šalin savo tēvu kalbą, godžiai stveriasi svetimos. O autoriaus žodžiais - "Atsisakius nuo kalbos, atskylama nuo tautos kuno.' Visas straipsnis skamba šiaip:

"Reikia pasidžiaugti, kad svetur gyveną lietuviai neužmiršta savo senosios tevynes, ją visokiariopai paremia ir kiekvieną vasarą nemažas jų skaičius ją aplanko, tuo atnaujindami santykius su savo giminēmis ir, sugrižę papasakodami savo tautiečiam, kaip čia mes gyvename, kas mums - rupi, kokius darbus mes esame nuveike ir t. t. Ypač šiemet daug užsienio lietuvių lanko savo senąją tēvyne, daug ju jau atvažiavo ir, tur but, dar daugiau atvažiuos, nes daugumas taiko patekti i Tautinę Sporto Olimpiadą. Tai vis yra sveikintini dalykai, kuriuos reikia remti | ir kiek tik galima plēsti.

"Tačiau šį kartą mums rupi žvilgterēti į kitą pinigo pusę. Reikia konstatuoti, kad, nors musų išeivija, ypač vyresnioji karta, rodo didelio prisirišimo prie Lietuvos, vis delto ja smarkiai veikia svetimos įtakos to krašto, kur lietuviai yra įsikurę. Daugumas jų savo širdyje pasilieka geri lietuviai, budami, tiesa, lojalus tam kraštui, kur gyvena, bet iš kitos pusēs jie nuo Lietuvos ir nutola. Ypač tai tenka turēti galvoje, kalbant apie jaunimą, kuris savo tēvų žemēs nēra matęs, o tik apie ją girdējęs iš savo tēvų lupų. Amerikos lietuviai, ypač jaunimas, sakysime, savo tarpe daugiausia jau kalba angliškai.

"Yra ir kitų faktų. Neseniai teko skaityti Amerikos lietuvių spaudoje, kad prieš kuri laiką New Yorke buvo pradetas leisti naujas lietuvių žurnalas "The Voice of Lithuanian Americans" tik anglų kalba. Jei paimsime Chicagoje leidžiamą jaunimo žurnalą "Jaunimas", tai jame rasime tik patį pavadînima lietuviška ir lietuviškai rašomas pavardes, o šiaip visas žurnalas prirašomas angliškai. Pirma "Jaunimas" turējo tik anglišką skyrių, dabar jau spausdinamas visas. Ir daugelis kitų Amerikos lietuvių periodinių leidinių turi įsivedę angliškus skyrius, kurie, reikia pasakyti, plečiasi. Iš Anglijos taip pat gaunama žinių, kad yra kilusi mintis į vietinių lietuvių organa "Išeivių Drauga" įsivesti jaunimui skyrių anglų kalba. Gal šis reikalas kitaip atrodo kitose musų išeivijos kolonijose, sakysime, Pietų Amerikoje, tačiau anglu - saksu kraštuose anglu kalba vis labiau įsigali ne tik kasdieniname vartojime, bet ir spaudoje.

"Kai kas galvoja, kad tai jau nesą taip bloga, nes ir nebemokant savo tēvų kalbos esą galima buti geru patriotu. Žinoma, su ta nuomone galima sutikti, galima ir nesutikti, - patriotinis nusistatymas priklauso nuo daugelio įvairių veiksnių - tačiau viena yra visiškai aišku: pasisavinus svetimą kalbą, susipratimas su senąja tevyne labai pasunkēja, o iš kitos pusēs galutinis susiliejimas su svetima tauta pasidaro labai lengvas. Juk kalba yra pats svarbiausias ryšis, siejąs tautos narius į vieną individualinę bendruomenę. Atsisakius nuo kalbos, atskylame nuo tautos kuno.

"Bet manykime, kad musu išeivijoje

Tuomet vis delto taip tragiškai neįvyks. reikia konstatuoti, kad musų išeivija įžengs (jei dar neįžengē?) į naują stadiją, kurią butu galima pavadinti angliškai lietuviška (turint galvoje JAV. išeiviją). Jei taip, tai tada ir musų išeivijos klausimas atsistoja kitokioje plotmēje ta prasme, kad santykiams su ja palaikyti reikia ieškoti naujų formų. Ar šiaip ar taip, mes negalime nebuti suinteresuoti, kad ryšiai tarp metropolijos ir išeivijos butų ir pasiliktų kaip galint stipresni. Tad čia reikalingas ne tik esamos padēties realus įvertinimas, bet ir tam tikras lankstumas. Jei Amerikos išeivija kuria diena tikrai pasidarys angliškai kalbą lietuviai, tai santykius su jais galēsime palaikyti tik anglų kalba. Tad, rodos, savaime peršasi reikalas musų jaunimui daugiau demesio kreipti į anglų kalbos pažinimą.

"Šį painų klausimą trumpame straipsnyje sunku visapusiškai aptarti: čia reikia platesnių ir gilesnių studijų. Bet, atrodo, reikalas yra visiškai pribrendęs ir reikētų jį imti svarstyti."

Išeivijos lietuvių jaunimo kalbos klausimas jau ne nuo šiandien vargina musų tēvynainius. Didžiuma jų šventai tebesilaiko įsitikinimo - "Jei vartoji lietuvių kalbą esi geras lietuvis. Jei ne - esi atskilęs nuo tautos kuno"

Tie, visai neabejojame nuoširdus patriotai tokį savo įsitikinimą gali ginti kiek tik nori, gali kalbēti, rašyti ir ginčytis. Mes čia savo ruoštu vistiek esame priversti su savo jaunimu kalbēti angliškai. Žinoma kad butų gražu matyti jis savo savo tevų kalba vartojant, bet ką padarysi, kad jos nevartoja. O nevartoja ne už tai, kad jos gēdinasi ar kad yra stipriai ištautēję, bet už tai, kad ios NEMOKA.

Kas už tai kaltas — nežinome. Turint omeny sąlygas kuriose, sakysime Amerikos jaunoji lietuvija augo ir auga, norisi manyti jog kaltēs nēra ant ko suversti. Kaltas yra likimas.

Paimkime pavyzdžiui ir pasižiurēkime į jauno Amerikos lietuvio gyvenimą. Pažiurēkime kur jis suklupo su lietuvių kalba.

Budamas mažu kudikiu, dienas praleidžia gatvēje prie žaislo su savo amžiaus draugais, kurie daugumoj yra taip pat ateivių vaikai. Tik nēra jie lietuviai. Vienas yra vokietukas, kitas — italas, graikas, čekoslovakas, švedas ar dar kitoks. Jie visi suēję draugēn jaučiasi AMERIKONAIS. Kalba, žinoma angliškai.

Toliau mokyklos suolas — tie patys draugai, mokslas angliškai, namų darbas angliškai. Mokytojas kasdien kalba apie Ameriką ir mokina juos buti ištikimais "Stars and Stripes" vēliavos gynējais.

Dar toliau — aukštesnēji mokykla. Joj lietuviškai taip pat nei žodžio. Baigęs high school'ę, jei nesieki kolegijos, pradedi dirbti (jei esi laimingas darbą gauti). Darbe lietuvių kalbai vietos nēra. Draugai amerikonai, laikraščiai, žurnalai, knygos, pasilinksminimai, kino, teatras — viskas angliškai.

Jei jo tēvai dar yra susipratę tautiniu atžvilgiu ir MOKA savo sunų-dukterį pamokinti, tai jis ar ji nors ir mažam laipsny vistik jaučia save šiokiu tokiu lietuviu esant. Bet jei tēvai patys apie lietuvybę turi miglota supratima (o tenka konstatuoti - tokių turime labai daug), tai aišku jų vaikai ir visai silpnai stovi tautiniam susipratime ką jau ir bekalbēti apie pačią lietuvių kalbą.

Daug nuostolių turime ir del to, kad per visus šiuos dešimtmečius niekas nepasirupino sukurti jauniesiems tinkamu organizaciju. nei kitokių centrų, kurie per sportą ir kitokį socialį veikimą jungtų juos į stiprų lietuviška kuna.

Visa laimē, kad dabar jaunosios kartos eilēse atsiranda pasišventusių, gražiais idealais apsišarvavusių veikėjų, kurie nesulaukdami iš niekur apčiuopamų vaisių patys pradējo judēti, virti ir ieškoti vagu savaip suprantamo lietuviško veikimo ivedimui. Jie atranda, kad jų darbo programoje pirmuoju punktu stovi ne lietuvių kalbos mokinimas, bet MOKINIMAS LIETUVIŠKO SUSIPRA-TIMO. Kada tas jaunimas išsijudins ir pradēs platesniu maštabu veikti, tas veikimas jau bus skirtingoje plotmoje. Tai bus angliškai lietuviška plotmē.

This department is reader's forum. Letters are welcome

BOOKS ON LITHUANIA,

Dear Editor:

In your October 12th, 1937 issue you listed a few books dealing with Lithuanian subjects. As this list was very small, I would like to know if you can supply me with a larger list of books published in English on Lithuania, the people, language, and custom. If possible, please include the publishers name and address.

A group has just been organized which will have as its purpose to acquire a greater understanding of the environment and history of our forebears. We shall need books from which to obtain our discussion matter, and we are going to attempt to have our public library purchase a few of these books; the organization will also purchase books and subscribe to different periodicals. Your help in selecting these books would be appreciated.

Although I have only read "JAUNIMAS" a few times, I have found it very interesting, and can easily see that it would be very helpful in providing material for out meetings. In all probabilities we shall include it in our sending list.

Our Inheritance

The eminent professor of sociology in Yale university, Maurice R. Davie, has written a valuable book on 'World Immigration' in which he has this to say about American born children of immigrants.

"The children of immigrants are in a trying situation. The cultural heritage of their parents is largely lost for them, and at the same time they have not fully acquired American culture nor been accepted on equal terms by native Americans. Many are oppressed by feelings of inferiority, which are to some degree extensions of their parents' own feelings as immigrants in a country so drastically different from their native land. The feelings of inferiority manifest themselves variously. Some second generation immigrants break away entirely from the homes of their parents and eventually repudiate their origin. Some become chauvinistically patriotic; only their chauvinism has no vital basis. Other new Americans become antisocial. The majority form a mass of neutral citizenry without a vital sense of background, perennially oppressed by the feeling that they will live outside the main stream of America's national life. The better adjusted, usually the better educated, know something of the cultural background of their people and have a sense of continuity. They are aware of the common elements of all cultures and the influence of the Old World on the New. One of the greatest problems

Ed. Note: We will publish a list of books in English on Lithuaniana in the next issue of JAUNIMAS.

BOOK-A-MONTH-CLUB

Dear Editor:-

Being a "book - worm," I am deeply interested in Dr. F. Hill's column. I have a great admiration for him and always look forward to receiving JAUNIMAS so that I can read his comments and book reviews of various Lithuanian books. I, at present, belong to the Book of the Month club and I'm certain that a Lithuanian Book of the Month sponsored by JAU-NIMAS would surely make a hit with your many subscribers. As a favor, I wish you would work on this suggestion. You can count me as being an entusiastic subscriber for that Lithuanian Book of the Month Club. I assure you of subscriptions from other members interested in Lith uanian literature.

> Sylvia Yurkus, (Chicago, Ill.).

(Ed. Note: We have been working on this idea for the past three months. Lithuanian book publishers were approached and we are glad to say, the deal is almost closed. An official announcement about the JAUNIMAS' Lithuanian Book of the Month will appear in our next issue. Those interested in joining the club can send for their application now).

WASN'T IT SWELL?

To The Editor of Jaunimas: I wish to extend congratulations to JAUNIMAS for its presentation of one of the most enjoyable picnics I have ever attended. All my friends and myself enjoyed your fine program and hope that you have many more picnics in the future.

To show my enthusiasm is worth more than mere words, enclosed please find $4.00 to cover my and my friend's subscriptions to JAUNIMAS.

BATHS ON TUESDAY.

People are creatures of habit. Some always put on their coats by inserting the right hand first - others always the left ... they must have bacon and eggs for breakfast even though a vegetable salad would be better - both gastronomically and mentally. The new is avoided. They fear that which is not familiar and old covered with fugus of time and universal acceptance. They must always take a bath on Saturday. But maybe you're dirtier on Tuesday. Why not take a bath on Tues day? Why be afraid to try the new. Don't let custom stale and habit hinder. Join new organization - meet new people. Your own life will be fuller! You'll help make the lives of others richer! Don't be afraid to take a bath on Tuesday!

Angliškai Ar Lietuviškai

(Tasa iš ketvirto pusl.) "Lietuvos Aido" editorialas labai teisin-

gai nusako, kad — "...tada ir musų išeivijos klausimas atsistoja kitokioje plotmēje... kad santykiams su JAV lietuvių januomene palaikyti reikia ieškoti naujų formų. Amerikos išeivija kurią nors dieną tikrai pasidarys angliškai kalbą lietuviai, tai santykius su jais galēsime palaikyti tik anglų kalba." Labai teisingi žodžiai. TA DIENA SU MUSŲ NORU NESISKAITYDAMA SMAR-KIAI ARTINASI IR JUO JAI SUTIKTI PRA DESIME ANŠČIAU RUOŠTIS — TUO DAU GIAU LAIMESIME.

SLA. Tautiški Centai

Susivienijimas Lietuvių Amerikoje kiekvienam savo seime išdalina įvairiems tautiniams reikalams specialų "Tautiškų Centų Fonda", kurį suaugina tos organizacijos nariai sumokēdami kas mēnuo po kelis centus.

Birželio pabaigoj Scranton, Pa. įvykęs seimas iš to fondo išdalino netoli penkis tukstančius dolerių.

JAUNIMO leidējai turēdami omeny kilnius to fondo tikslus, pasiuntē SLA. 40-tam seimui prašymą suteikti šiam jaunosios kartos laikraščiui paramos, kuri dabar auginant nuosavos spaustuvēs fonda butų labai įvertinta ir kartu gražiai pasitarnautų tautinei akcijai išeivijoj.

Stambios sumos buvo paskirta įvairioms Lietuvos organizacijoms. Net "Demokratijos gynimui Lietuvoje" buvo suteiktas gražus čekis. JAUNIMO prašymas nebuvo patenkintas.

Pradžia Visados Sunki

Rytuose neseniai pradējęs eiti kairiojo sparno lietuvių jaunimo žurnalas "Voice" savo Nr. 3. nusiskundžia, kad medžiaginē buklē nēra per stipriam stovy ir, kad jei finansinēs paramos nesulauks tuojau, tai leidējai bus priversti publikaciją bent kuriam laikui suspenduoti.

Savo vedamajam, "Frankly Speaking" užvardintam, jie rašo: "Eidami su šiuo numeriu spaudon, darome pastangas išsilaikyti bet kokia kaina. Nebent finansinē parama mums ateis tuč tuojaus kaip tai formoje prenumeratų, aukų, bei garsinimų, mes busime priversti arba suspenduoti tolimesnį leidimą keliems mēnesiams arba sumažinti žurnalą visiškai pakeičiant formatą."

Nors bizniškai kalbant, "Voice" yra mums konkurentas, o principiniai nesutinkame su kai kuriais leidējų nusistatymo punktais, turime atvirai pasakyti jog nenorētume matyti ji susispenduojant. Amerikos jauniems lietuviams reikalinga kiek galint daugiau savos spaudos organų.

Leisti bent kokį lietuvišką laikraštį šioj šaly ir dar šiais laikais yra daugiau negu sunkus darbas, ka jau ir besakyti apie jaunimo laikraščius. Nors jaunų lietuvių yra daug, bet jie gerokai įšalę ir skaitytojus turime tiesiog išsiauklēti vieną po vieno. Jaunieji abelnai yra finansiniai nestiprųs. Senimas daugiausiai pasitenkina parodydami savo pritarimą sveikinimais ir linkējimais. O broli, bilų sveikinimais bei linkējimais negali apmokēti.

Ir JAUNIMAS neguli rožēmis išklotoj lovoj. Reikia suktis visomis pusēmis. Dēka pasišventusių jaunuolių darbas visgi sekas. Pradžia yra visados sunkiausia. Tikimēs, kad ir "Voice" pradžios sunkumus sekmingai nu-

COMMENTARIES

By E. J. K.

Dr. S. Biežis with his party...

Tai jau dabar ir po JAU-NIMO pikniko!! and to say that we personally received an exhilarating shot in the arm by being present would be putting it mildly ... to begin with, we all did such a delightfully thourough job of making a liar of the weatherman, and this, after practically (and sadly) conceding a rainy day for JAUNIMAS' shindig... if we were inclined to philosophize a bit in this hot weather - which we are not - we could point out how symbolical this was of JAUNIMAS always coming out on top even against the greatest odds ... anyway, it was such a pleasure to meet some of our co-workers for the first time in almost two years and others for the first time at all ... and we have gone to our daily routine of industriously doing nothing with pleasant memories of the past week-end and great expectations for the future .. it was such a cosmopolitan crowd of predominantly young Lithuanian men and women, representatives of so many walks of life and groups and cities of the middle west . . of our old home town Waukegan's representation, we saw Helen Jonaitis, Grace Baron, Wallie Skyrius, Tony Burba, Bernice Selenak, Charley Čepaitis and Leo Selenak Other friends and well-wishers of Jaunimas noted were:

of little problems leading to selfish lives: and don't close your eyes to everything of which you don't approve. Show some appreciation and gratitude. It is a true and important fact that the world considers a person very small today unless all civilized duties interest him. One who developed a habit of making excuses is seldom good for anything else.

When one is still young, one should seek to promote understanding of human nature, wise unselfish living and constant observation and he or she will win out by living a fuller and a happier life. Good Luck to you.

> DON'T MISS JAUNIMAS WHILE YOU ARE AWAY ...

MRS. M. COLNEY.

Have it mailed to you on your vacation. Simply notify JAUNIMAS and it will be mailed to you wherever you are for as long a period as you wish.

Messrs. Klimas and Tumavičius, of Ciceros Red Rose Club and Lietuvos Kareivių, who brought with them their clubs' financial support and best wishes for JAUNIMAS ... Mr. B. Jakaitis, well-known in Lithuanian political and fraternal circles ... Mr. N. Kulys, of the Lith. R. C. Choir Federation ... Joe and Monica Peters of the Knights of Lithuania ... Mr. Bieksha, of Sandara, who sets up these columns ... Father S. Draugelis, of Gary, publisher of the monthly "Pasiuntinys" ... Vytautas Beliajus, whose dan cing has gained him national repute and whose articles on Lithuanian folklore have been high-spots of past issues of JAUNIMAS... Mr. Ambrose of Naujienos . . . John Romanas, who led the singing around the bonfire . . . Father Vembrē, of Westville, Mass., with whom we watched the Gary-Marquette game and talked over our remembrances of the East and Marianapolis. O. tos musu lietuvaitēs, kurios savo gražumu be mažiausios abejonės pralenkia visų kitų tautu mergaites!... there were so many of them there, but we particularly remember our staff members, Eve Lukas, Ann Juozaitis, Julia Rakštis, Sadie Briedis (the girl in white, with green do-dads), Connie Sudeikis of Rockdale, and that charming, effervescent, hard-working group who spent the entire day in the stands, Ann Poshka, Helen Pužauskis, Marie Pilot, Lillian Eurkaitis, Julia and Ann Ber, neckis, - all of whom collectively and each one of whom individually makes it such a pleasure to be with JAUNIMAS ... not to mention the great bunch of fellows who put in weeks of preparation and a hard day's work for JAUNIMAS: Johnny Shulmistras, Johnny Carobus, Jack Juozaitis, Tony Rudis, Paul Ridikas, Edie Mankus, Wallie Burneika and his father, and last, though very definitely not least, Joe Poshka himself. ...there were many, many hun dred more, since these few names are only what we can pick out at random from a hodge-podge of impressions of people and personalities ... the Joninių laužas, with its accompaniment of community dancing and singing of Lithuanian songs was such a picturesque topping - off of a perfect day we couldn't resist contributing (?) to the singing with our slightly rusty baritone and essaving a few steps and hand-claps and turns of "Noriu Miego" ... JAUNIMAS" crowd was and unusually wellmannered one - we had Deputy Jack Donahue's enthussiastic opinion to that effect ... and was JAUNIMAS picnic a success? Definitely!

GETTING PERSONAL

Pirmyn Chorus

The forty-five members of the Chicago Lithuanian Pirmyn Chorus, led by their director, CHARLES STEPHENS, who left Chicago a month ago for a concert tour of Lithuania, have the entire population going plain "crazy" about them ... The group was met at Kaunas Ry. Station with ceremonies befitting a visiting monarch or a dictator . . . Later they couldn't find an auditorium large enough to accommodate the "want-to-get-in" crowds . . . Towns where the chorus visit for concerts declare civic holidays . . . ANN KASKAS, Mets outstanding contralto will be one of seven artists appearing next season in the second series of concerts sponsored by the Adult Education Council at Chicago's Orchestra Hall. APOLONIJA STOSHKUS, youthful soprano from Worcester, Mass., who some months ago went to Germany to further her studies in voice, was recently signed to a contract with Berlin's Opera Co., the "Deutsche Opernhaus" ... MISS CHAR-LOTTE SEREIKA, 6810 So. Rockwell St. became the third Lithuanian air hostess in U.S.A. when she graduated a firtnight ago from the United Air Lines stewardess training school and was presented her wings at the Chicago Airport ... She has been assigned to fly between Chicago and New York. MR. DAN KURAITIS (Milda Auto Sales) and the Mrs. will leave shortly for a vacation tour of Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, and other points of interest in the near East ... Consul and Mrs. P. DAUŽVARDIS may accompany them . . . JOHN SAR-KAUSKAS, Continental walker, reached the State of Illinois last week in his hike across the United States.

JAUNIMAS' First Picnic, July 3rd, was one of the most successful affairs this newspaper ever sponsored. A word of thanks goes to the committee who unelfishly worked so hard for many weeks in preparation for that Big Day ... Following comprised the committee: SIDNEY MALIN, JOHN CA-ROBUS, JOHN JUOZAITIS, ANTHONY RUDIS, ANN POSH-KA, JULIA and ANN BERNECKIS, MARIE PILOT, LILLI-AN EURKAITIS, WALTER BURNEIKA, PAUL J. RIDIKAS, JOHN SHULMISTRAS, EDDIE MANKUS, EVE A. LUKAS, HELEN PUZAUSKAS, and CONSTANCE DANDREA. Food and refreshment concessions were managed by the feminine members of the committee ... ANTHONY RUDIS was in thing that will help others. charge of the bar JOHN SHULMISTRAS led the games... VYTAUTAS BELIAJUS headed the Lithuanian dances ... JOHN CAROBUS and JULIA BERNECKIS were in charge owe to the ambition of our of the JAUNIMAS pavilion ... WALTER BURNEIKA supervised the gate crew ... JOHN ROMANAS, Chicago's popular ish thinking men and women, soloist led the community singing by the bonfire . . . Editor that lived before us. They JUOZAS POSHKA was the M. C. and he did so much talking, that he was hoarse for days afterward and could not talk above a whisper . . . At its first meeting after the picnic, the committee unanimously voted to hold one more picnic before the summer ends... It will be a moonlight affair... Most likely on August 27th ... The exact date and place will be announced in the next issue of JAUNIMAS ... By the way, at this picnic Chicagoans will have a chance to meet the Chicago Lith. Olympic squad, which will return shortly before our affair . . . As a special scoop, JAUNIMAS will present the Lith. Olympiad in colored moving pictures. You'd better make it a date now... Graduates Of 1938

Annually, parents and students are faced with the problem of, "What is success material for the boy and girl in the future?" Indeed, if the living conditions stay as are, life will be a struggle, quite unthinkable, to many of our Lith - graduates. Time spent in study will seem wasted. There will be trails, temptations, disappointments - all these are helps instead of hinderances, if used rightly. They can strengthen character. You may have triasl and discouragements these days, but one who keeps head clear with regular sleep, hard think ing, wise living and constant observation, will win out.

Start now young graduates: there is such a thing as train ing the mind to wise thinking. Good resolutions will do it. Don't be afraid or ashamed to learn to take while young ambition. Don't admit that you made a mistake - take a little of unjust criticism or other rebuff - don't go to pieces easily - try to keep your mental balance under trying conditions. This is the kind of stuff that one HAS to learn to take while young to make big men and women later in years.

No one is worth his salt who does not try to do some-Everything that we enjoy comforts or luxury etc., we unselfish parents or unselfmade a real sacrifice of their comfort and convenience when they saw you through years of study, your early dependent years. Try to be like them in some little way -when your time, conscience purse and services will permit you - also sharing in interests and activities of oth-

"We're going to be some better in football at Illinois this year. We'll be bigger, but we won't be mature enough. We never are. Our kids are all too young compared to the rest of the conference. U. S. Liths Strong

All the stronger basketball teams have been working out since the end of June. Each American-Lithuanian having a group to teach, usually their own club, both men and women's teams. They work out about two hours a nite about three times a week at present and all are getting into good shape. From general appearances the combined team of stars the U.S. Lithuanians are sending seems to be the best of the lot. But you must consider the circumstances: The Americans will have but ten days after arrival to get into shape, as the Olympic tournament starts July 26 and ends 31st. Again Lithuanians will be on home grounds and on an outdoor WOODEN court. Then, it will probably be very, very hot out doors and the team with the best condition will win. But, may the best team win and may there be a successful Pirmoji Lietuvos Tautine Olimpijada!
