

THIS DAY and AGE

Feasts of the Blessed Virgin

THE SEVEN DOLORS

On September the fifteenth we celebrate the Feast of the Seven Dolors or as many know it, the Feast of our Mother of Sorrows. This feast always looked upon as a great feast of Our Lady, these days has taken on a new significance due to the great popularity of the Novena to our Mother of Sorrows.

Oh, all who pass by the way, see His sorrow. He trod the way of pain. "Despised and the most object of men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with infirmities; and His look as it were hidden and despised, whereupon we esteemed Him not. Surely He hath borne out infirmities and carried our sorrows; and we thought Him as it were a leper, and as one struck by God and afflicted. But He was wounded for our iniquities, He was bruised for our sins; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and by His bruises we were healed. All we like sheep have gone astray, everyone hath turned aside into his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He was offered because it was His own will, and He opened not His mouth: He shall be led as a sheep to slaughter, and shall be dumb as a lamb before His shearer, and he shall not open His mouth. He shall lay down his life. Man of Sorrows has cleansed us; He lived and died to redeem us; He was lifted to the cross that we might have an abundant life. Oh, all who pass by the way, behold His sorrow.

Scrow must come in life, To some it is tragic, and hard to endure, for seemingly the sharp pangs will not lessen, much less die. To others, however, scrow comes, but not with overwhelming force. Yet, little trials can rob one of joy. A small loss is suffered; an unkind word comes but den, misunderstandings beat about. How good God is to make our sorrows reminders of the vanity of fleeting moments. We should not, must not believe that we cannot be brave. We can with grace face life with resolution. God blesses those who mourn with the right spirit. Resignation to His will necessary.

The Blessed Virgin knew the seven swords of sorrow. Her heart was pierced, for she was a willing partaker of her son's suffering. Those who know the keenest joys are most sensitive to the sharpest scrow. There is always the vision of the cross for those who love our Lord the best. Calvary, which completes a sacrifice, is the refuge of the chosen followers. The perfect Mother, from Bethlehem to the Great Hill of death, was a wholehearted victim.

And as we strive to share in the failure of the Cross, we know that Mary shall be near, yearning and willing to share the failure with us, to help us reach Calvary's Heights; and so to attain that eternal day where "death shall be no more, nor mourning, nor weeping, nor scrow," but only the reward, the endless prize for sharing, with Mary, in the joys which come to all those who have suffered with our Lord.

WIT, WISDOM AND WHAT NOT

It happened just as I predicted a few weeks ago. Ben Ulas and Ann Herasuta formally announced their engagement this past Saturday at a party at the Ulas residence on Parkwood drive. There were about four close friends present and they enjoyed themselves immensely. More luck to you both.

I wonder who is going to be next out of that old bunch. Johnny Andrusis should be next, however I don't think so, he's too much of a happy-go-lucky fellow. Next in line is Al Varkala, he's got a good job, pleasant personality and all he needs is a girl.

Marge Mulicis is in our midst again, but not for long, she is going back soon for her last year as a student nurse at St. John's Hospital. It seems she is getting prettier every time I see her, which is about twice a year, and then only in passing.

Heard from Akron that Vicki Citavicius and Pete Kubilius are going to say "I do" before the altar at St. George's Church on October 12. The old crowd is slowly dwindling, couple by couple.

Walter Jurgilis, one of the "Lithuanian Scouts" is going to celebrate his birthday and nameday Sunday, Sept. 22. Walter has just been getting around the Lithuanian circles these past few months, and is getting to be quite popular.

The Musketeers are going to celebrate in grand fashion on September 30. The occasion, "Ham" Miglich, local milk peddler, is having his twenty-second birthday. Many happy returns of the day.

OVER THE WEEK END: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ditchman proudly announce the birth of a baby daughter. It seems that I was born twenty years too soon judging by the number of girls born now. . . . Josephine Kliss threatens to sue me just because I called her a "cute little girl." . . . Dorothy Lukas going to church Sunday with a handsome escort. . . . A certain boy calling up Mary Sharkus to find out when Annie Kubilius is going to be in town. . . . Tony Svets is in Bridgville Pa., attending the funeral of one of his boyhood chums. . . . Hank Mitchell enjoying himself, not exerting himself on the dance floor by all means, at the wedding reception of Frank Agurkis to Helen Kalakauskas. . . . Al Raines and Chuck Mazie swimming half way out to the five mile crib in Lake Erie, then quitting, reason—cold water, br. . . . Andy Skarnus and Tony Obraitis very closely observing the moon that wasn't out Saturday night. . . . Pete Skarnus taking out a new girl friend every Saturday night. Can't he make up his mind? . . . Wonder what attraction Bernie Mulicis' eyes hold for the girls that dance with him on Thursday nights. Boys, better ask the girls.

Bruno Kudzius, metallurgical engineer, son of the well known interior decorator, has been called to N. Y., by the government for a six week period of examinations after which time he will return to Cleveland to assume the duties of an inspector of metals for the United States government.
