

KASDIENA...

Po Trijų Metų Ar Neapsauks? Nacių Budeliai Vagie, Kepurė Dega

Angliai vėl bombardavo Saarbruckeną — anglies ir plieno centrą.

Sovietų aviacija vėl bombardavo Varšavą ir Rytų Prūsijos miestus.

Po trijų metų karo jau ne naciai bombarduoja kitas šalis, bet juos kiti bombarduoja. Ir dar kaip.

Hitlerio viltys laimėti karą gęsta.

Sergei Ingr, Čekoslovakijos Apsigimnio Ministeris, kalbamas per radiją Londone, sakė, jog Sovietai kariuotą tvirtai įsitikinimu ir pasiryžimu, jog laimės karą.

Ingr buvo nuvykęs į SSSR. Vokiečių pranešimai apie karą yra melagingi, jis sakė.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt permantai, jog ir Amerikoj būsių steigiamą kooperatyvės virtuves ir šalkyklas, kad moterims paglenginti ir daugiau jų kitiems "šams palitosoti."

Ar nebūs ji vėl apsaukta komuniste?

Anglijoj jau yra daug kooperatyvių virtuvių ir valgyklų. Angliai patyrė, jog tai netik darbu sutalpo, bet sveikatingumo atžvilgiu geriau, nes galima geriau virimas prižiūrėti.

Vaikų prižiūrėjimo namų irgi įsteigta.

Prieš karą Sovietų Sąjunga buvo tūly žmonių gan pikti smerkiama už tokias įstaigas, kurios dabar Anglijoj įvesta, ir Prezidento žmona mano, Amerikoj šis įvesta.

SSSR irgi įvedė tai, nes reikėjo įvesti.

Šiame kare atpus daug neapykantos paskleistos prieš SSSR.

Hitlerio budeliai nužudė dar 45 žmones Norvegijoj ir Jungoslavijoj ir keltis šimtus žmonių mirip pasmerkė, sako Londono pranešimas.

Žudo tie budeliai okupuotų kraštų žmones, o kova prieš nacius vis tiek nenusilpninama.

Ar guma "Naujienos" "laišku per Lisaboną", kad naciai "sukuria naujus norvegus ir kroatus"?

Jos ryškiai dėjo nacių pikta propagandą, kad "sukuriama naujas lietuvis", kuomet lietuvių žudomi, kaip ir kiti okupuotų kraštų žmonės.

Norvegų Amerikoj rodo nėra, kurie priimty tokių nacių propagandą.

Alan Cranston pasakė reikmingą kalbą neangliškų laikraščių redaktoriams ir leidėjams New Yorku. Jis pažymėjo, kad tūli laikraščiai neva kalba už armiją, už karą hondus, bet prieš Hitlerį neraso.

"Naujienų" redaktorius tuo jau šoko aiškinti, kad tai tikoma kitoms, o ne jam.

Tai primena mums tą posakį: "Vagie, kepurė dega."

Istikro, ta kalba tarsi pirštu taiko į kaktą p. Grigaitėnui. Ar gi ne lapelis "Jaunimas" šaukė "Three cheers for Hitler" pirma Pearl Harbor?

Ar gi ne jo laikraštyje kas-

Nejaugi?

Iš Karo Produkcijos Tarybos rezignavo Reese Taylor, plieno ir geležies departmento vedėjas.

Kas užims jo vietą? Kalbama, kad tą vite užimtį Donald Nelson nori pakviesti Bethlehem Steel Co. prezidentą Eugene Grace.

Jie Eugene Grace įsitaps ton vieton, tai bus daugiau negu skandalas. Mūsų gyvenime jis ir jo korporacija yra tas ką vadinu ekonominiu rojalizmu. Pereitais metais jis gavo iš Bethlehem Kompanijos daugiau nei pusę milijono dolerių algos.

Tai teisėjas Felix Frankfurter pasakė apie Bethlehem Steel, kad laike pereitō pasaulinio karo jis pelnai buvo lupikiški, kad ji tiesiog rubavojo valdžią, pilydama karinius užsakymus. Ir šio karo metu tai korporacija rūpi tik pelnai. Tai kaipgi tokios korporacijos prezidentas gali užimti taip aukštą, taip atsakingą vietą tokioj įstaigoj, kaip karo produkcijos Taryba!

Be to, ligi pat pastarųjų laikų Eugene Grace buvo ryškiausias simbolis openšapinio kapitalo ir todėl jis neprimtinis organizuotoms dabrbui.

Labai keista, kad Donald Nelson linkta rinkties sau artimiausias pagalbininkus tarp tokių kietaziūvių, kaip Grace. reikia tikėtis, kad protestai, kilę iš daugelio vietų, uždarys Mr. Grace'ui duris į Karo Produkcijos Tarybą.

Kalifornijos Fronte

Ką parodė primary rinkimai Kalifornijoje? Jie parodė, kad žmonės labiausiai patikimi tais kandidatais, kurie nuosirdžiai remia Roosevelt politiką, nuosirdžiai stoja už karą.

Demokratų partija nominavo dešimtį pro-Rooseveltinių kandidatų. Jų tarpe yra dabartiniai kongresmanai Thomas Ford, Kramer ir Welch. Tie vyrai, be to, griežtai pasisakė už tuojautinį sudarymą antro fronto.

Be to, lapkričio rinkimuose pasirodys nauja politinė figura. Tai leitenantas Will Rogers. Jam teks susiremti su atakliu reaktivinku Leland Ford (republikonu). Will Rogers turi užtikrintą paramą iš darbininkų, iš visų progresyvių. Jo laimėjimas užduos reaktivinkams skaudų smūgį.

Savo kandidatų gubernatorių demokratini nominavo dabartinį gubernatorių Olsoną. Jo oponentu bus republikonas Earl Warren, openšaperių kandidatas. Kalifornijos žmonės turi energiška padirbti, kad Olsonas ir vėl būtų išrinktas gubernatorium.

Bendrai imant, primary rinkimuose geriausiai pasirodė griežti nesvyruojantį karo šalininkai, nes juos visomis išgalėmis rėmė organizuotas darbas—CIO ir Darbo Federacija.

Jau dabar Kalifornijoje verda smarki rinkiminė kampanija.

Dar Vienas Frontas?

Kinų laikraštis "Ta Kung Pao" rašo, kad Japonija ruošiasi užpulti Sovietų Sąjungą. Ji stiprina savo Kwantungo armiją ir per kelias pastarąsias savaites padidino ją penkiomis naujomis divizijomis.

Generolas Stilwell, vyriausias Jungtinių Tautų komandieras Indijoje, taip-pat išsireiškė, kad Japonijos aviantūristai planuoja užpulti Sibirą.

Tos rūšies žinių ir gandų ir pirmiau būdavo. Šiuo kartų jų yra daugiau. Mes manome, kad jos turi pagrindo. Hitleris jau senai spiria Japoniją pradėti naują kruvingą avantiūrą. Tas faktas, kad Japonija padarė nepuolimo sutartį su Sovietų Sąjunga visiškai nereikiška, kad Japonijos žodžiai galima pasitikėti. Japonijai vadovauja klasingi pasalinai iš kurių visko galima laukti.

Sovietų Sąjunga tą žino ir todėl Toliuose Rytuose užlaiko stiprią armiją.

Galimybė atidarymo naujo fronto Toliuose Rytuose tūli Amerikos laikraščiai ir tūli komentatoriai riša su tuo faktu, kad iš valdžios paštraukė užsienio reikalų ministeris Togo. Jisai, girdi, nenorėjęs karo su Rusija ir buvo "gerenis" negu premieras Hideki Tojo. Tas rezignavimas visiškai nerodo, kad Japonijoj yra "geri" ir "blogi" fašistai. Visi jie vienodi, visi jie vilkai. Menka permaina dekoracijų japonų valdžioje nieko nereikiškos ir, pagaliaus, ne Togo jų nustato Japonijos politika, bet ta galvarieji klika, kuri suorganizavo pasalingą ataką ant Pearl Harbor.

Yra pagrindo manyti, kad Japonija puls Sibirą. Bet Sibiras prisirengs. Raudonoji Armija prisirengus.

Garbės Reikalas

Maskvos "Pravda" rašė: "Viso pasaulio garbės reikalas diktuoja būtinumą angloamerikiškių ofensyvo prieš Vokietiją."

Taip yra. Tai ne perdėjimas. Raudonoji Armija mūsai ne tik už savo tėvynę, ne tik už garbę Sovietų Sąjungos. Ji mūsai už garbę viso pasaulio, už išliuosavimą pajungtų tautų.

"Pravda" priduria: "Ateis laikas ir istorikai pasakys, kad Luckas vokiečiams daugiau kainavo kaip Paryžius, o Balkanus jiems buvo lengviau užkariauti negu paimti mūsų Smolenską."

Tai teisybė. Sovietų šalies žmonės ir armija pradeda ironiška šypsoties, kad juos tik giria, kad jais didžiuojasi. Jie nori tikros pagalbos, kad karo našta kristų ant visų lygiai.

Mūsų garbės sąvyjauta diktuoja būtinumą antro fronto Europoje. Tai mūsų, tai viso civilizuoto pasaulio garbės reikalas.

Tiems, kurie sako, kad antro fronto sukūrimas tai karo ekspertų dalykas, gerai atšama senatorius Pepper: "Taip, techniški detalų išsprendimas priklauso karo vadovybei. Bet aš, pilietis ir senatorius, turiu teisę reikalauti, kad antras frontas būtų atidarytas."

Taip, šis karas yra liaudies karas. Liaudies teisė ir priedermė rūpintis, kad šis karas būtų kuo greičiausiai laimėtas.

Tie karo ekspertai, daugelis jų jau ne kartą parodė, kad jie klysdavo.

Sovietų raudonasis orlaivynas dabar, beveik kasdien, atakuoja Rytų Prūsijos miestus, iš kurių lietuviams labiausiai žinomi Tilžė ir Karaliaučius. Kartais raudonieji lakūnai pasiekia ir Berlyną. Kartais, jie atakuoja Varsavą.

Berlynas bando nuoduoti, kad rusų atakos nepadaro žalos.

Bet juk ir apie anglių lakūnus naciai sako, kad jie žalos beveik nepadaro ir jei kas nukentčia tai tik atskiri civiliai.

Tam nacių bloufi niekas nepatikės.

Kas gauna "Vilniai" naują skaitytojų, tas duoda visuomenei naują kovotoją, sąmoningą kareivį už šviesesnę ateitį!

TAUPLYKIME centus, o geriausias taupymui būdas yra perkant Karo Stampas, kurias paskui galima iškeisti į Karo Bondsus. Dabar pirke $18.75 bondą po 10 metų gausime $25. O kam nebus galima laukti taip ilgai, galima atsimti pinigūs bile kada po 60 dienų nuo pirkimo bonso.

Mudu su sekretorium rašėme tu kuopų veikėjams specialius laiškus ir prašėme juos pasidarbuoti. Gerai atsiliepę tiksliai vienos kitos kuopos veikėjai. Kiti tebytyl—nei duoklių prisiumčia, nei parašo, kame dalykas, kad jų kuopoje niekas nėra mokėję duoklių.

Draugai, laukiami iš jūsų vienokio ar kitokio atsakymo. Padėkite savo kuopas ant žemlapio! Lai šiemet nei viena kuopa, kad ir ji būtų mažiausia, neišsibraukia iš mūsų garbingos organizacijos surašū!

Peržiūrėję Centre esamus kuopų rekordus, mes randame labai rimtą padėtį visoje eilėje didžiųjų kuopų. Kai kurių jų dar nė pusė narių nėra pasimokėję duokles už 1942 metus. Tai toks greitas, skubus reikalas, jog juomi turi susirūpinti kiekviena tokia kuopa ir kiekvienas nuosirdus LLD veikėjas.

Per šį mėnesį mes turime pamatyti kiekvieną narį ir išrinkti duokles. Juk daug lengviau iš senųjų narių duokles išrinkti, negu gauti naujus narius.

Todėl, draugai, dėkime didžiausias pastangas, idant iki spalio 1 dienos visi mūsų Draugijos nariai pasimokėtų duokles. Mes Centro raštininkai negalime pasiekti tų narius ir paprašyti pasimokėti duokles. Tai yra darbas kuopų viršininkų ir veikėjų. Mes pasitikime, draugai, kad jūs savo organizacijos nesuvilsite.

Pernai gana prastai Draugijos reikalai stovėjo Kanadoje. Kanadiečiai labai sunkiai mokėjo duokles. Gi šiemet Kanadoje padėtis labai pasitaishė. Ne tik nariai puikiai mokasi duokles, bet net ir nauju kuopų kuriasi. Už tai mes tik galime pasveikinti mūsų Draugijos Kanados vadus ir veikėjus. Mes esame tikri, kad su spalio 1 diena Kanadoje nebus like nei vieno seno nario, nepasimokėjusio duoklių už 1942 metus.

Dar kartą, draugai: Lai šis rugsėjo mėnuo esit mūsų visų rūgiapūtes mėnu!

A. Bimba, L. L. D. Pirmininkas.

"Kur Jūs Stovite?"

TOKIS KLAUSIMAS PASTATYTA CHICAGOS VOKIECIAMS.

Anti-naciniai Chicagos vokiečiai turėjo konferenciją, kurioje mobilizuota jėgos prieš nacius.

Konferencija išleido pareiškimą ir priėmė eilę rezoliucijų. Pareiškime klausia visus Chicagos vokiečius: "Kur jūs stovite?"

Pažymėtina, kad laisvamanių sąjunga atsisakė dalyvauti konferencijoje.

Ši konferencija, kuriai senieji socialistai turi įtakos, taipgi atsisakė dalyvauti, nes nenorį eiti įvien su kapitalistais.

Suprantama, nenorėjimas su kapitalistais eiti, tai bus tik priedanga. Ištikro, jie nori eiti su Vokietijos kapitalistais ir su Hitleriu, kaip lietuvių toki pat "socialistų" atakuoja Sovietų Sąjungą.

Klausimas—su kuo jūs stovite vokiečiams labai etoj.

Klausimas su kuo jūs stovite labai vietoj ir tūliems lietuviams.

Kas stoja už demokratiją, kas stoja su demokratiniėmis salimis, tas stoja ir su Sovietų Sąjunga, kuri veda demokratijų karą.

Kas sako stoja su demokratijomis, bet lieja tulžį prieš SSSR, tas yra biaurus veidmainys, tik prisimetus demokratijos šalininku, o fakte veikia Hitlerio naudai.

Su kuo jūs stovite, dabar reikia statyti visiems. Kare yra tik dvi pusės—demokratija ir fašizmas.

Kas stoja už demokratiją, tas turi būti prieš asį, prieš Hitlerį. Rezervacijoms vietos nėra.

Kas stoja prieš fašizmą, tas turi stoti su visomis šalimis, kurios kariauja prieš Hitlerį. Rezervacijų ir čia nėra.

Kas pasilieka rezervacijas, tas prisimetelės—asiės talkininkas.

Mėšos Porcijų Kalbos Pasitvirtino

Jau nekuris laikas Chicagoj, ypač mėšos industrijoj kalbos, kad bus įvesta mėšos porcijos pasitvirtina. Iš Washingtono praneša, kad karo produkcijos, maisto skyrius, armijos, laivyno ir kairių administracijų atstovai laikė plačią konferenciją.

Ten priešio išvadą, kad nuo ateinančio sausio 1-mos bus įvesta mėšos porcijos.

Mėšos stokos nėra, bet norima sureguliuoti, kad jos kaina nebūtų įkelta ir kad visos mėšos gautų už nustatytą kainą.

Kaip tik pradėjo kalbėti apie gyvulių kainų aukštį, tai tuojau didieji gyvulių augintojai, ypač spekuliantai, pradėjo grūsti gyvulius į rinką.

Iš Kansas City žiniom, tenais vieną dieną suvarė į rinką apie 32,502 gyvulių pardavimui.

Demokratų partijos platformos komitetas vakar susirinko pagaminti šioms rinkimams platformą, nes jau artinasi partijos konvencija. Konvencija įvyks rugsėjo 10, Springfield, Ill.

"TAI YRA PRIEŠAS" IR "MRS. MINIVER"—DVI VERTOS MATYMO FILMOS

"World Playhouse" teatre teberodoma filma "Tai Yra Priešas," o "United Artists" teatre filma "Mrs. Miniver." Pirma filma gaminta Sovietų Sąjungoje, o antra Hollywoode, bet gali būti skaitoma britiška, kadangi dauguma artistų yra britai ir tokia yra tema.

Abi filmos vertos matymo, nes jos įvairiais būdais ir skirtingais stiprumo laipsniais aiškina prieš kokias barbariškas jėgas laisvas pasaulis dabar kariauja.

Chicago lenkai plačiai pa-minėjo trijų metų sukaktu-ves načių užpuolimo ant jų šalies, kuris ir laikinai at-nešė jų šaliai nepriklausomybės pradžią ir vergo-ve. Katalikiškose Chicago lenkų bažnyčiose buvo atla-kyta pamaldos ir įvairiose salėse įvairių pažiūrų len-kaū tai svarbią datą pažymė-mėjo.

Visur pabrėžtas nepalau-žiamas pasitikėjimas, kad Svienyotos Tautos greitai laiku pasieks pergalę ir kad tada ir Lenkija atgaus sa-vo nepriklausomybę. Len-kaū taipgi reiškė savo pa-gaidavimą, kad antras fron-tas būtų atidarytas nelau-kiant.

Here For International Student Meet; Put 309 Nazis On Casualty List

WASHINGTON:—A smiling young Russian guerrilla, Miss Liudmila Pavlichenko, with the highest record in the Soviet's army of snipers, arrived here this past Thursday and signified with a broad grin and a flurry of Russian words that she was "glad to be in this country."

The 26-year-old senior lieutenant, who quit social work to join the guerrilla forces and has put 309 German soldiers on the official casualty list, arrived after a three week trip by bomber, Pan-American Clipper and train to attend the International Student Assembly which opened here yesterday, September 2nd.

With her were two other student delegates, one of them a leader of the Moscow Youth Organization and the other an army lieutenant who won the title "Hero of the Soviet Union" by killing 152 Germans with 154 bullets in 11 months of sniping at the front.

Doesn't Look Part

Miss Pavlichenko, brunette and stockily built, scarcely looked the part of a veteran of behind-the-lines warfare who was four times wounded and fought through the Battle of Sevastopol almost to the last day. On the blouse of her army uniform were pinned the Order of Lenin—highest Soviet decoration—and the insignia of the Guards Regiment.

None of the students spoke English. Nikolai Krasavchenko, Moscow youth leader, acted as spokesman and told a reception committee of American students and Russian and United States Army and Navy officers that he hoped the visit would "bring our two countries more closely together against the German invaders."

While a Russian Embassy official translated, the third member of the

Lith In Ireland Is Rarin' Fer Action; Is Ready For Second Front

Typical Yank rarin' for action is Edwin Shermikas who has been recently promoted to Private First Class. Shermikas is stationed in Ireland with thousands of other American boys, ready to open the much demanded and necessary 2nd front.

PPC EDWIN SHERMIKAS

Edwin is with the engineers unit. He is a member of the Association of Lithuanian Workers (LDS) and is a former member of Chicago's LKM chorus. As an artist his works are known throughout Chicago as his paintings have been on exhibition at the Chicago Art Institute.

ARE READY FOR SECOND FRONT

"Yank" the official AEF newspaper, published by and for the enlisted men is raring to get at the enemy. In an editorial, "To Whom It May Concern", the servicemen's weekly expresses that sentiment voiced by free people throughout the world: "That it's time to fight!" And by fight, they mean the immediate opening of a 2nd front as the only way to defeat Axis surely and quickly.

States "Yank":

"When do we fight?"

"Being soldiers, we have sat around for months now, waiting for that question to be answered for us. It hasn't been.

"Meanwhile, the wounds of the world have been gouged deeper, and salt has been poured into the wounds.

"We came here to fight. Instead we have listened to sales talk as if someone were trying to SELL us the idea of fighting . . .

"These facts we hold to be self-evident: That we need the planes, the guns, the ordnance, the transport to win this war. We know, furthermore, that the world at war is a vast maze of complicated problems in logistics and transport and production and we know that fronts are hard to open . . .

"We came here to fight.

"We have waited. Complex be the world or not, we came here to fight. We did not come here to wait.

"Did they wait at Dunkirk for some ministry to build them a fleet of luxury liners to come and take them home? Did they wait at Tobruk for air-conditioned barracks? Or over the channel in September, 1940, did they sit around and wait for a new catalogue of fighter planes to hurl at the enemy?"

"The marines have had their first offensive crack at the enemy in the Solomon islands. The navy has had its crack at the Axis all over the world. The air force has knocked silly certain of the enemy emplacements. However, their action alone will not win the war, and we know it. The greater burden lies with the army, and the army has not had its chance at offensive action.

"We know that only the warrior is the conqueror, and we cannot win this war without fighting.

It's not easy. It is never going to be easy to open a front or start fighting. But as soldiers, we came here to fight.

"When in God's name do we fight?"

This expression by "Yank" seeks an answer. And the answer must be forthcoming from military heads NOW! Victory depends on the 2nd front NOW, not "soon."

Via Inter Continent News

By Jonas Shimkus

From a German soldier, Melmuth Gerlau, of the 361st Regiment, 168th Infantry Division, taken prisoner in July, I learned something of the state of affairs in Lithuania now under the rule of the German occupationists.

As related to me by the prisoner, German troops on their way to the Soviet-German front, his battalion to be specific, were stationed at Kraziai. Here I give the prisoners exact words:

"At the end of May there were large columns of Germans moving along the highway from Tilsit to Siauliai. In particular there were a great many motor trucks with ammunition at a point not far from Kraziai.

"Where the river Krazante intersects, the road bridge was blown up while two motor lorries and an armoured car were passing over it. Thirty two Germans were killed and the explosion caused an eight hour delay in the movement of the column.

"Krause, the battalion commander immediately dispatched a punitive detachment of sixty men to the village of Simaichiai, a short distance from the bridge. The village was surrounded and the population turned into the highway.

"The peasants were given half an hour in which to inform the author-

Noted Youth Leaders Representing Prominent Organizations Pledge Support To Roosevelt; Ask 2nd Front Opening

CHICAGO, ILL.:—Endorsed by 72 noted youth leaders, representing fraternal organizations, trade unions and universities, a youth's declaration of support to President Roosevelt for a 2nd front has been issued, and is being circulated throughout all youth groups in this city. Joseph Sacal, editor of the VILNIS ENGLISH SECTION is one of the youth declaration's endorsers.

Clearly expounding the sentiment of midwestern youth, the declaration states:

Mr. President:

We, the undersigned young people of Chicago, together with all patriotic Americans, have been electrified by the news of the successful Commando raids which are heralded as the dress rehearsal for the second front.

The first Yankee soldiers have landed in France and have fought the Hitler enemy! Our armed forces are on the offensive against Japan in the Pacific!

We now look forward to the speedy opening of the second front itself. Our American troops, fighting shoulder to shoulder with our British Allies, attacking Hitler jointly with the Red Army, will bring victory to the United Nations.

The invasion of Europe will inspire our patriotic youth to achieve unprecedented efforts and results in war production, purchasing of war bonds and stamps, U.S.O. activities, Civilian Defense work, blood donations, salvage collection and all patriotic war activities.

MR. PRESIDENT: THE SECOND FRONT NOW WILL SAVE THE FUTURE OF AMERICAN YOUTH! CHICAGO YOUTH STAND 100% BEHIND YOU!!

Draft Board Official Is Bared By Lith As Having Accepted Bribe For Change in Classification

CHICAGO, ILL.:—A former convict and local draft board chairman, A. J. Weitzman was arrested and charged with having accepted a bribe to change a draftee from 1-A to 3-A classification.

Undoing of the draft chairman came about through Joseph Kavalasuskas, a truck driver.

According to United States District Attorney, J. Albert Woll's statement regarding the case, Kavalasuskas, who is unmarried, but claims a father as a dependent, charged that he was to pay $200 to Weitzman to have his status changed to 3-A. He paid $150, then another $25, Kavalasuskas is said to have declared, according to Woll.

Then, saying that he feared he would "be milked from now on," Kavalasuskas went to the F. B. I. with his story.

Woll said that the F. B. I. agents arranged for Kavalasuskas to make an appointment with Weitzman in front of the draft board office where another $25 was to be paid.

The F. B. I. men hid in the background, according to the story, while Kavalasuskas met Weitzman and turned over the money.

The draft board chairman accepted the bills, the F. B. I. agents said, but flung them to the ground when the agents appeared and identified themselves.

ities the names of those guilty of the explosion. All however declared they knew nothing whatever about it. At the end of the half hour four men were bound hand and foot with heavy stones being hung around their necks, and were thrown in the river with all of the village looking on.

"Nothing however was gained by this measure. Whereupon all women and children were driven off to Kraziai and all men, including ten of advanced age were shot. Then their corpses were strung up with these labels on their breasts: 'These men supported partisans.'

"What became of the women and children no one knew. The whole village of Simaiciai was burned and razed to the ground. The Germans published this news in Kraziai in the newspaper and also in special bill poster form, as a warning to those who may assist partisan fighters."

Hitlerist brown-beasts are exterminating the Lithuanian people. They are burning villages, razing them to the ground. Where the feet of the brown-shirted hangmen pass, nothing remains but wasteland with the graves of our brothers and sisters, pools of blood and rivers of tears.

delegation, Lt. Vladimir Pchelintsev, nodded agreement.

The three students were guests of President and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House and are staying at the home of William Batt, vice-chairman of the War Production Board.

Organized Snipers Group

Miss Pavlichenko graduated from Kiev University, where she majored in history and sociology. In 1938 she graduated from the snipers' school and at the outbreak of the war tried to enlist in the army. She was first turned down, but later was sent with a guerrilla unit to the Odessa area. At Odessa and Sevastopol she set the pace for snipers and trained 80 others credited with destroying more than 2,000 Germans.

Pchelintsev had a similar record, winning the title "Sniper of the U. S. S. R." at school and organizing a mass snipers' movement on the Leningrad front.

Krasavchenko, 26, was put in charge of a construction project in the war zone employing 60,000 workers. He was once captured, but escaped in a few hours and traveled 250 miles over enemy-occupied territory to reach his own lines. He recently was put in charge of supplying Moscow with fuel.

The Soviet delegation was the first foreign group to arrive for the three-day student meeting. Their itinerary has not been worked out.

Windy City LDS Ferns' Sorority Night Out Is Big Success

NEWSY SAYS:

It has been decided that inasmuch as this Friday the Labor Day weekend begins, it would be best not to have our meeting as scheduled. It will be held on next Friday, September 11th, instead. Please be sure to make a note of this change in dates.

Well, Friday we girls went out for a good time, and we did have a good time. We all slowly but surely gathered at Helings for dinner. We were sorry that all the girls could not come, but I suppose if it were possible for them to come, they would have done so. The Committee brought a Birthday Cake which was decorated with our Greek letters and 1st Year on it. At the end of dinner, the cake was devoured with our desert. Very good cake too. Our President, HELEN LANE, gave a little speech in honor of the occasion, and she voiced our own sentiments to a T. After dining we walked over to the Chicago Theatre where we saw "Floodlight Serenade" which was very entertaining. On the stage we saw Claude Thornhill and his orchestra. Or perhaps I should say we heard him if you get what I mean. We liked the song "Idaho" when the French horns took over. I like that. There was a juggler on the program too, and man could he juggle! It was interesting the way he juggled the tamberines in time to a rumba. There were also three fellows who imitated famous orchestras. Pretty good they were. Personally, I liked their imitation of Harry James playing "Sleepy Lagoon" the best. After a few comments on the show, we went to the Latin Quarter, a new theatre-cafe which has just opened up in town. It was nice in there, but it was kinda warm. They put on quite a variety of acts in the floor show. They even had some real South American dances. We stayed there a while, and then we were off for home as most of the girls had to go to work the next day. However, I must say the gals were very quiet compared to the other times we have gone out. As a matter of fact, here lately all of the LDS affairs have been rather quiet. I wonder what the matter can be. Do you know?

NOSEY SAYS:

I don't know about the others, but I had fun Friday. You know I think JESSIE SHAIKO doesn't like to eat with us. Can you beat that? She waltzes in and says "I had my dinner already". Fine thing I must say. ALINE ZIMONT came dressed up like a "typical New Yorker" so they say. You know if we had been any higher up in the balcony, we would have been sitting up on the roof. I don't know why, but it never fails that we get the best seats in the house. FRANNIE YURGIL nearly scared the daylight out of a girl sitting in front of her when she gave out with her whistle like she always does. FRANNIE STEIN could not attend in view of a mislocated knee joint. Sorry to hear this FRANNIE. It was also her birthday. Belated greetings to you from us FRANNIE. CEL RIVA kept saying we should have gone to see the All Star Football game. Maybe we should have as AL BLOZIS and VINCE BANONIS were on the All Stars. We could have cheered them on. Yes? Oh well, it was a good thing we did not go as I understand some of those people who did go could not see it because that London fog which we had. JESSIE SHAIKO, ANN PETERS, and MARTHA ROGERS sure kept all of us on needles and pins. When we were walking to the Latin Quarter, they disappeared suddenly, and we didn't know what had

September 16th Scheduled Date For Opening Of Chicago LDS Bowling; Girls Are Giving Helpful Assistance In League Organization

By Al Klaud

Final preparations are being made in the Chicago LDS Bowling League. The bowling will again take place at Marzano's Alleys, at 8:15 P. M. Wednesday Evenings.

League commencement is scheduled to take place about September 16, which we expect six men teams and four teams from the feminine sex.

To go further into detail, we have two teams from the Redwings branch. Al Lerner's Foul Balls and a team from the Sparks and Monarchs, if possible. Cherry Brand is again captained by Curly Urban. A new entrant is in the offing, a so-called team with members of former league players. This team is newly organized under the name of Pro-Rollers. In the men's division, many familiar faces will be missing due to certain circumstances.

Girls Active

Our women have been the ones who urgently request the organization of a bowling league. Frank Yurkil and Jessie Shaiko expect to round teams from Redwings and the Sparks. The Monarchs can also get a team organized easy enough without half trying and another team will come out of the so-called alternates. More concrete plans on our girl situation will be given to all very soon.

There is yet to be made the schedule and rules for presentation. A mid-season sweepstakes will take place as a semi-tourney as there will be no National Tourney this year.

happened to them. After about fifteen minutes they appeared saying that they had got lost. What do you know about that! MARY SHIMKUS was so worried about them they walked all the way back to the show looking for them but without success. HELEN KWAIN was showing all of the girls that cute picture she has of little Dennis. ALDONA PAVELONIS was telling us about the three little fishes she received through the mail in a little "barrel".

Everyone got up to sing the "Star Spangled Banner" at the Latin Quarter, but PHYLLIS RAISINS almost sat down instead. She was sitting near a stair which she did not see and when she started to stand up, well, there just wasn't any floor to stand on.

SPECIAL to the Escort: Listen you, I'll have you know that Newsy and I are not "bags". Remember that!

Flash! The LDS males are leaving us fast and furious. The last one to leave was TONY GUZAUSKAS. Now our next one to leave will be STANLEY BERNOT. STAN enlisted in the Coast Guard and will be leaving us on September 15th. I understand the Redwings are throwing a sendoff party for him on September 12th at Hollywood Inn.

Newsy and I just could not scrape up $2.50 and it seemed that no one had any spare cash around, so we could not make it to the Sparks Boat Trip. I betcha they had fun though. That is all for now. Sooo long.

—NEWSY AND NOSEY

PRECIOUS—Paramount publicity man says Ann Miller is wearing the only pair of hip-length silk stockings on Pacific coast. Between movie shots stockings are kept in glass case, stored in bomb shelter.

Another Redwing Member Leaves for The Armed Forces

It seems to me various LDS activities are slowing down but why? All we need is a little revamping and we can have just as much activity as before but we have to find a different trend.

Since winter and fall is just around the corner, we will have bowling. Then, how about various socials and items for the boys who left—we must above all remember each and every one of them. Writing a letter to them at first doesn't mean as much as keeping the same attention when they are away more than a few months. Various LDS'rs would like to know the doings and whereabouts of the BOYS.

It would be wonderful for the Redwing people to get in touch with the Vilnis or even the ESCORT and sort of keep the members at home "in the know"—I know many would write a few lines to say Al Vestart, Julius Urbikas, J. Gizevich and others. So let's cooperate!

Another Volunteer!

On September 12th the Redwings are going to have a SENDOFF PARTY for one of the most popular and well known members. Someone who all in the Chicago LDS will miss namely—STAN BERNOT!

The blonde boy friend has enlisted in the Coast Guards. Stan wanted to be near the water, as he did here in Chicago. You would always hear

Clevelanders Tend Sendoff To Noted Lith Youth Sportman

It was a joyous, yet sad day for the Paltan's. They knew their youngest son, George, was to leave for the Army but were surprised to see their eldest son, Joe, home on leave early Saturday morning, as he had gone only a month before. Seeing Joe Paltan home was such a shock and surprise, that all that were there didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Most of us did both, some just looked as if they'd seen a ghost. All in all, we were glad to see Joe again. The Army life goes well with him and he goes well with the Army life. Some would say "They go well together." Joe will stay until Sunday evening or Monday morning. In the meantime, he will be visiting with his many many friends and acquaintances.

George Paltan was a furlough inductee, just as his brother was. His many friends and relatives saw him off from the Mall, next to the City Hall, where after having their picture taken, the inductees were spoken to by one of Cleveland's judges, then were led to the Terminal by the May Company Band. Upon reaching the Terminal and knowing where to meet his family and friends, he was able to visit with them until train time. Among them being, his mother and father, his brother, two uncles and one aunt, Matellis family, Cecilia Peters, Josephine Kanapasky, and Frank Kazel. When the whistle was blown, he kissed them all good-bye, then ran to his place at the platform, where the May Company Band played the Star Spangled Banner again, then he walked down the steps to his train. George Paltan left Cleveland at one o'clock p. m. on Saturday, August 29, 1942 to go to Camp Perry—Reception Center.

The Leader's Softball Team has lost many of its best men, but we all know that "big" George will help to smash the Axis—even if he has to do it with his bare hands.

LKM Chorus Picnic Is Success, Says Chorus Scribe

As you all remember last Sunday was the L.K.M. season closing picnic and here are a few things I noticed: JOE S. running around serving the hungry people herring and spare ribs. . . . Ed Ziny was again seen with two girls. Gee how do you do it, Ed? . . . Lillian S. and Valeria B. were again dancing the favorite polkas but the girls weren't as lively as usual. I wonder why? . . . Ed Barr and Volle were listening to the ball game. Claimed there was nothing else to do. . . . Steve Lucas was seen roaming around the grove. Stell and Len Kelly were there also. . . . Bertha D. seemed lost, walking around alone Jack Gordon and family were also present. Was it to get some country air, or was it the herring and the spare ribs? . . . One of our well known members has left for Akron, Ohio.

What They Say

M. Clifford Townsend, Administrator, A.A.C.A.A.:

"This war is also a great opportunity—a chance to make a fresh start with a new kind of peace. Whether or not that peace will last depends more than anything else upon whether people are hungry or well-fed.

"It has been said that we are on the steel standard in this war. Many think that by the time it is over the world will be on the food standard. More and more the farmer is becoming the man of the hour. That is what Secretary Wickard had in mind when he said 'Food will win the war and write the peace.' Whatever the post-war world brings, nothing worth while will be possible unless man has enough to eat.

"As one of our peace aims, I believe with many others that adequate food should be regarded as a basic right, along with such rights as freedom of speech, press and religion. Just about every American agrees with President Roosevelt's Four Freedoms as our goal, and

LKM Chorus Prepares for Winter Season

Since those lazy days of summer are dying rapidly and the cool refreshing days of autumn are just around the corner, we three are going to get down to business, and join the other loyal chorus members to keep L.K.M. alive.

Do you people know how many times we have urged you to come to rehearsals? It is such a large number of times that we would use up this whole column telling you. Many times, personally, we have asked you to come down to rehearsals. Surely we're not asking you to do something impossible like donating your eye or arm! We're merely asking you to save one night a week to come to rehearsals. So old and new members come back and help the regulars put L.K.M. back on its feet.

I smell barbecued spare ribs... I smell herring. Ah, that meal was good! Where did we get such a delicious meal? Why at the chorus picnic Sunday... WE saw Alma and Al, those newlyweds of L.K.M.... Lillian our financial secretary was selling chips at the food table. (It was tough on Lillian to sit and sell chips... Kay and Tex dropped by to say hello... Mr. Ziny was working behind the bar so the idea struck us that Ed was at the picnic also. So we put up a searching party to find Ed. While searching for Ed, we saw a certain soprano's aunt. So we put two and two together and got our answer... that it was going to be tough to find these two. But after hours of searching we found Val and Ed in the deserted dance hall. That is what we call real (?)... We were very much honored to have as a distinguished guest, Walter Kubilius from Brooklyn. At least somebody likes our chorus. With Walter was Joe Sacal... Tony G. was working behind the bar with sunglasses. Bertha D. also came to our picnic to show the boys a good time but there were no boys. Better luck next time Bert... From the looks of the picnic it was quite successful... Stanley Bernot is leaving for the Coast Guards Sept. 15. Good Luck Stan!!... Well this is enough from us for the time being. So 'til next Tuesday. We remain the Wings of Destiny.

—"THE THREE RAVENS"

the fourth of these—freedom from want—includes having enough to eat."

Ralph Bard, Assistant Secretary of the Navy:

"The Navy and organized labor realize that the American intention is to win this war together. We shall not come to victory separately. To cement this unification of purpose, and to strengthen the national effort in producing the instruments of war for our fighting men on a world-wide scale, the Navy, in its own labor policy, has kept one fact steadily in mind—this is the war of the common man. Its labor policy must, therefore, be progressive and liberal. It has to be, since its profound direction must be necessarily lead, by the use of sea power, to that victory by which the common man will possess his inheritance of security and prosperity in the new world of peace."

LDS Youth Committee Issues Statement

Editor's Note: The following, a statement issued by the National Youth Committee of the Association of Lithuanian Workers is one of dire importance. Reflecting the win-the-war attitude of American youth of Lithuanian descent, the Vilnis Section is proud to bring to the attention of its readers the fighting words of America's largest youth embodying organization—the LDS.

- (Statement of the LDS National Youth Committee)
- In taking over our offices as members of the new LDS National Youth Committee, we realize the tremendous responsibility that is facing our LDS Youth Movement in these trying times. We are engaged in a war against barbarism and we must all work to win this war. We are proudly sending more and more members from our ranks into our country's armed forces, among them, members of our own National Youth Committee, as well.
 - At the same time, we are responsible for seeing that our organization will be as good or better when our men return after victory over the axis powers. We must not let them down. News of LDS growth and activity will be cheering news to them. We appeal to all our members to work with us in these trying times for all of us, for our country and our organization.
 - In order to clear up any misunderstandings that may exist regarding the manner in which the LDS Constitution was amended at the Convention in July of this year at Chicago, the LDS National Youth Committee wishes to make the following matters clear:
 - 1. That the National Youth Committee members and the branch delegates present at the Convention and at the Youth Conference wholeheartedly agree with the change that was made, striking from our laws the provision that the National Youth Committee must be elected from within a 100 mile radius of New York. They feel that the way is now open for a broader representation on the National Youth Committee from the different branches and areas where we have a youth movement. The National Youth Committee is joyful that the clause which should have been stricken from the Constitution long ago finally was, ending a number of years of discussion and misunderstanding. The previous Youth Committees had all opposed this provision.
 - 2. Neither the National Youth Committee members nor the delegates at the National Youth Conference opposed the amendment itself. Their opposition was directed solely at the method in which an amendment was going to be made—a technical matter of procedure.
 - The National Youth Committee, realizing its great responsibility to the youth movement of the LDS is very much pleased that the gates have been now thrown open even wider for the development of a really large youth movement. It shall continue to work, as it has in the past, using the Constitution and the rules passed at the National Youth Conferences as its guide to build the greatest Lithuanian American organization in the country.
 - Now that the field for new members to the Youth Committee has been broadened, we appeal to all leading members of the organization in each city and town where there is an LDS organization to work harder, to work with more spirit and with more loyalty to our organization than ever before. We appeal to our branches and our leaders to intensify their activities in civilian defense and in other work which will help us to win the war of civilization against barbarism so that we could once more return to our normal process of life and development.
 - It is with these thoughts in mind that our Youth Committee begins its work. We call upon each member, no matter where he may be, to strain every effort to build the LDS organization, to work to expand it, to engage in helping our country to win this war. With your cooperation, fellow members, we can do much without it—very little.
 - We know that we can count upon you. We know that despite the fact that many of our branch leaders are serving in our country's armed forces, despite the fact that our Youth Committee members are likewise in the armed forces, we who are left at home pledge ourselves to our boys in the service, that we shall not let them down. We shall work to make the LDS an organization that they would be even more proud of when they return than when they left.
 - We know that the membership of the LDS is 100% behind us and will work with us in this task.
- Onward to bigger things—is our slogan.

As We See It In Lith Circles

By George Starkauskas

- The whole language press faces a ban by the government. Federal authorities have voiced opinion that only through such action could pro-nazi tendencies and propaganda detrimental to the war effort be eliminated.
- We can to a great extent thank our Lithuanian pro-nazis for this government proposed action. Because of these lecherous Hitler admirers, all newspapers even though their win-the-war effort has been most admirable and helpful come under the ban.
- Personally we think the government would be making a grave mistake by pushing through the banning action. Such a move would tend to antagonize and disrupt the faith foreign element have in this country and instead of solving a complicated matter, heap abuse upon it.
- We understand the difficulties federal authorities have in tracing down pro-axis propaganda. We know they have to sift through hundreds of language newspapers. It is a terrific job. But wouldn't it be a job on a larger scale to relay vital governmental information to foreign element whose only source of news is through the language press, via the English press and expect them to understand what is what when their understanding of the language is limited?
- Would we be accomplishing our set task of involving all element behind the war drive with thousands of honest citizens being denied the privilege of knowing what their task is?
- Confusion would be the result of foreign language newspaper banning. It would create misunderstanding and create a definite slowdown in the patriotic endeavors of loyal foreign born. The language newspaper to these people is an organ which they fully understand, and, is that directive force which rallies millions behind the government.
- It is certain that a complete ban of the foreign language press would eliminate obnoxious pro-axis propaganda. But as we stated, such a ban instead of doing good, would harm the war effort.

- If the government must clamp down, let them clamp down on those who have been exposed as pro-nazi and Hitler admirers. The government has a complete listing of these newspapers. Let the same action as was taken against Father Coughlin's "Social Justice" be inaugurated. Furthermore, why not inaugurate this same ban against English newspapers whose seditious activity is most obvious and most readable? Certainly their pro-nazi manifestations have more detrimental value than the language press and reaches a greater amount of people who are liable to fall for their line!

- We can see the governments justification for wanting to eliminate pro-nazi propaganda. But the way not to do it is to clamp down on the whole language press. The way to do it is to eliminate those who assist Hitler and continue to allow publication of newspapers and other periodicals that are working for the defeat of Hitler, even though it does take a bit more time and effort.

THE UNCONQUERED WAIT FOR THE 2nd FRONT

Europe is fighting back. From the Continent comes word of resistance to Hitler in occupied countries. But the voices reaching the outside world tell more than stories of heroism. They carry a warning which says: "We cannot do this job alone. We will keep the fires of resistance burning to show you—in the lands still free—that our mutual cause is just, our courage high, our faith unflinching."

Smoke Signals

Gradually small fires of resistance were lighted on the Continent. Resistance at first took simple forms, expressive of the deep hatred and contempt felt toward the conqueror. Forbidden to boo when Nazi officials appeared on the screen, those Partisans who went to the movies took to clearing their throats and coughing loudly.

In Norway, when Nazi columns swung down the street, the Norwegians turned their backs and faced store windows and doorways. Although German was taught in practically all Norwegian schools, Norwegians suddenly were unable to speak a word of German or understand any command issued by the occupying forces. "Prepare for the day to come," read one appeal circulated to Norwegians. "And in the meantime treat Germans and Quislings as if they were non-existent . . . Do not speak a single word and do not perform a single act that may be useful to the Germans." The Norwegian Supreme Court resigned in a body during December, 1940. When the Nazis seized control of the Norwegian medical association, more than 2,000 of its 2,339 members resigned. More than 12,000 of Norway's 14,000-odd teachers quit the Nazi-dominated teachers' union. In February, 1942, when the Quisling government tried to block a church service at Trondheim Cathedral and required all children between the ages of 10 and 18 to enroll in the Nazi youth organization (Ungdomsfylking) all seven bishops of the Norwegian State Church resigned, sending individual letters of resignation to the government. Eleven hundred clergymen followed suit, retiring from their pulpits.

On Armistice Day last year mimeographed handbills were circulated throughout Brussels signed "Vive la Belgique Indépendante." Risking their lives, the people of Brussels demonstrated before the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, great crowds swirling through the streets to lay flowers on the tomb.

"Hurry Up, Fritz!"

Back in England after a raid over the Continent, a young British bomber sergeant reported that Dutch tulip fields had been planted to resemble huge Dutch flags. People stood in the fields, he said, and waved to him. In Brittany, when R. A. F. planes flew overhead the Bretons did not make for cover. "Hurry up, Fritz!" they cried to the disciplined German soldiers who dashed for shelter. "Hurry up, the R. A. F. is on your heels!" Breton sailors, forced to take German soldiers aboard their fishing boats as observers when they sailed into the English Channel, became conveniently lost in fog and mist and landed at ports in the south of England. The German soldiers were turned over to the British.

Hundreds of clandestine printing presses hidden throughout occupied Europe turn out secret newspapers, bringing to their readers news of the outside world and stories forbidden by the Nazi press. Belgium has 40 such underground papers. Both mimeographed and printed, smaller in size than our tabloids, these papers warn of neighbors who are Nazi spies and Quislings, tell where the British short wave can be located on radio dials, and print pictures of allied leaders smuggled from abroad. More than 100 underground papers are printed in Poland, both dailies and weeklies.

Radios Verboten

Regardless of consequences, people of the occupied countries continue to listen to short-wave broadcasts from the allies. A deep hunger for truth draws them to these voices from the free world.

Thousands of Poles have escaped and now fight with the United Nations against the Axis: in the Polish Corps in Scotland, the Polish Highland Brigade, the R. A. F., and throughout the Near East.

The morale of the German occupying forces suffers severe blows as a result of the constant and extreme hostility of the occupied peoples. Nobody can survive being hated day after day, being considered as something apart from the human race.

Sabotage in France has resulted in transportation delays, poor work in factories turning out implements of war, inefficient tightening of screws and bolts on trucks and tractors, and damage to plants. Sabotage of switches on French railroads has caused numerous wrecks of trains carrying arms and ammunition. Troop trains were mysteriously assaulted; loaded with German soldiers, one of them was blown up near Caen in Normandy, 10 miles from the English Channel. Fifteen Nazis were killed. Cables have been cut, railroad bridges dynamited. Railroad and telephone lines near Lyon, for one, have been destroyed. Skillful industrial sabotage, especially of complicated machinery, has been difficult to detect during inspection.

Armed Revolt

In addition to the countless V signs that sprang up magically on sidewalks, signboards, posters, and sides of buildings everywhere, the Czechs have drawn pictures of turtles, symbolizing the industrial slowdown in their factories. The Czechs have mastered the art of industrial sabotage.

Strikes have been called in factories using huge furnaces just before the furnaces must be stoked. Finished war materials, desperately needed on the Russian front, have been misdirected to Berlin, while trainloads of useless scrap iron have been sent to the Russian front.

Yugoslavs are in open armed revolt against Hitler.

Greek guerrilla bands, living in the hills, strike at German and Italian encampments and supply lines in Greece and Crete. Coordinating their efforts with other partisans, 5,000 Greek guerrillas, banding together along the Bulgarian border, swung into action in April, 1942; several hundred Nazi soldiers were killed and a troop train wrecked east of Salonika.

And what is Hitler's answer to those who resist? Canceled food cards; slow starvation, exile, concentration camps, torture and death. One cannot hope to list accurately the thousands upon thousands of people—fathers, mothers, children, corner grocers, doctors, postmen—who have been slain by the Nazis. Isolated examples give the general picture. In Yugoslavia, the Nazis resort to mass executions of from 30 to 120 innocent villagers at a time.

The Nazi-controlled Opspinski Noviny (in Belgrade) published on June 23, 1941, an order by the German military commander: "Two German soldiers were assassinated during the night by a group of unknown Serbs. One hundred men from the local population were shot in the morning in accordance with my instructions. . . . In the future, 100 Serbs will be shot for every assassinated German soldier." On October 20, the Dagens Nyheter reported that Skela village had been burned in reprisal for shots fired at a German military car. The German chief commandant stated that inhabitants of the village knew of the shooting but did not inform the authorities. "Male accomplices were shot," said the newspaper, "50 persons hanged."

"Fifty Persons Hanged"

When 2,000 workers in the Akers shipbuilding yards in Oslo went on strike, Oslo was placed under martial law. In addition, as added punishment to the city, the Nazis shot Viggo Hansteen, chief legal adviser to Norwegian trade unions, and Rolf Vicstroem, labor leader.

In April, 1942, two dozen Gestapo men, on a manhunt for two young Norwegians who had slipped back from England on a secret mission, came upon them asleep in the fishing village of Televaag, on Sorta Island, near Bergen. One was shot in his sleep. The other awakened in time to kill two Germans before being killed himself. The Nazis took swift reprisal. Eighteen innocent hostages were executed. The entire male population of Televaag (about 60) was sent to a concentration camp, and later shipped to Germany. All women and children were order out of town. Even animals were not spared the Nazi fury: cows, pigs, and sheep were sent to Bergen to be slaughtered. In a final frenzy of hate, the Nazis burned to the ground every house in the village. Televaag had been wiped off the face of the earth.

When Frenchmen shot down German officers and soldiers, the Nazis surrounded the 11th Arrondissement of Paris, a working-class district, and in a house-to-house canvass dragged 6,000 persons to concentration camps.

When three German soldiers were wounded in Paris, the Germans shot 10 French hostages. Ten hostages were shot the next days, 12 the day after. During one week in September, 1941, the Nazis admitted having shot 117 persons in Yugoslavia, 18 in Poland, five in Belgium. German and Vichy sources admit that 250 persons were executed in France between August 13 and October 23, 1941, including 145 hostages. During the first weeks of October the Nazis admitted having killed 1,000 persons in all Europe.

To cope with renewed French resistance during the spring of 1942 (after Laval's return), the Nazis slew more than 200 hostages—as reprisal, they said, for the assassination of 2 German soldiers. Seventy-two Netherlands were shot and 7 sentenced to life imprisonment in May for possessing arms and explosives. German authorities were outraged, complained that Dutch officers had "broken their word" by taking up arms against the invader, after having promised, in 1940, not to resist. Twenty-three hundred Yugoslav hostages were put to death in 2 weeks in November for the killing of 26 German soldiers. In Czechoslovakia, Hangman Reinhard Heydrich, the Gestapo man chosen to stamp out rebellion in Europe, had lost track of the exact number of persons who had swung from his nooses and been shot against his walls—when bullets fired in the cause of freedom whistled into his spine. Resistance to Hitler in occupied Europe requires courage that passes understanding.

These are merely fragments of the story that will one day be told, fragments that have reached the outside world little by little and often at great cost. They are not rumors. They are not inventions. But until the whole story can be told, their sources cannot, for obvious reasons, be disclosed.

When British Commandos landed recently in France, local Frenchmen mistook them for a full-scale army of liberation. Swiftly turning upon the Nazis, they seized German arms and produced hidden weapons.

This is the shape of things to come.

Walter Kubilius Writes . . .

Chicago Masquerade

● Indians do not roam the streets of Chicago with brandished tommyhawks and war whoops breaking the summer stillness. Nor, for that matter, do Billy the Kids and Jesse Jameses bang-bang-bang and shout Hi-Yo Silver! as they dash madly up the avenue for the gold-laden stage coach.

● Chicago has grown up. Chicago has shed the coon skin coat and is now wearing civilized apparel. Chicago takes its place among the cultured cities of the Mid-West that have advanced from the cowboys-and-Indians stage to the cops-and-robbers platform and from there to the serious business of providing a living and a life for millions of citizens, and the means wherewith to combat the forces of evil rampant over the globe.

● Having given credit where credit is due, let us go back to the subject of this thesis which is, "Vestiges of Frontier Culture in Urban Civilization", or, to put it more tersely, "Scram! City Slicker!"

● We submit these vignettes of Frontier Civilization:

. . . giant herds of cattle and buffalo roaming the great prairie . . . lonely cowboys on starlit nights singing away their solitude . . . the mad dash after a run-away horse . . . Dead Man's Gulch Bar at the foot of a hill leading to Cactus Joe's Burial Ground . . . Sweet Mamie O'Rourke, a four-year old child whose tender eyes soften the hearts of the brutes from the Rocky Range Mining Town . . .

● We now submit their vestiges in the cultural life of Chicago:

To a certain extent the herds of cattle wandering over the vast plain have been cut down. After having been in Chicago for a month we have not seen any cross State Street on their way to Montana or wherever it is that good little dogies go. But that may be, however, because State Street is impassable to both man and beast. Once the huge-barricades of piled-up street cars and torn-up pavements are taken away, the herds might cross again. Till then, till the cattle brush our clothes as we emerge from the Yes-Yes Club, we must say that there are no bovine beauties of the four-legged variety on State Street.

● But they are damn frequent on Halsted Street and the adjoining stockyards where super-highways have been built for them while the worried citizen must make his wary way underneath, watchfully waiting for pancakes from heaven.

● As for the wild dash after the mad horse, well, that has not changed in the least.

● With only a few minor changes the old Western custom of dashing after mad horses persists. Chicagoans have made this a city-wide past-time particularly during the hours between 8 and 9 in the morning and 5 and 6 in the evening. The procedure is to stand on the corner as the onrushing street car nears, then to reach suddenly for the iron bar in the rear doorway. For the first few tries you invariably fly through the back window, minus the palm of your hand, into the wheels of the oncoming autos. This adds zest to the game. Having acquired a certain nimbleness because your arm now has three or four joints instead of the usual two—at the wrist and elbow—you are ready for bronco busting: jumping on a moving streetcar when it is full and the passengers are ready with outstretched elbows and knees to greet you.

● One might add here that in bronco busting it is not cricket to run in the same direction as the street car. The sportsman must run in the opposite direction and grab hold as it whizzes by. Much more fun.

● Some out-of-towners have asked me the purpose of the rope stretched across the center of the car. It is not to serve as a warning to the conductor for any person can easily see that an electric button would be far more efficient. It is used as a lasso to rope in lone customers as they stand nervously in the middle of the street waiting for the car to pick them up. To be quite truthful however, I have not seen this act performed yet.

● Dead Man's Gulch served its hardy customers a hardy brew which did away with dentists—and teeth for that matter. Chicagoans still get the same brew, with variations in color, taste, quality and stomach-burning ability. Along the bars from 47th Street to Garfield Park these are the brews we came across: Kingsbury, Ambrosia, Pilsen, Fox De Luxe, Rheingold, Monarch, Garden City, Topaz, Country Club, Pilsner, Schlitz, Pabst, Griesediek, Allweiden, Fox Head, Canada Ale, Burlington, White Eagle, Ruppert, Prager, Lieben, Tavern Pale.

● The names of a few others skip our memory for the moment. But after a gay evening acquiring a bar room tan and exercise for the right arm in lifting beer-filled-glass weights, the lonesome cowboy sings out in a lusty voice as he tries to climb the mountain that stretches across the street from one sidewalk to another.

● As for the little gal whose sweet heart warms the cowboys and the coal-miners. We met her near Pulaski the other day where, dress torn and askew, blueberry pie ringed around her mouth, she lisped some-earnest advice to her three-year old friend:

"Thees over there by the thaloon. Go ahead and thlap her in the puth."

Lithuanian Bears Do Their Stuff At Bear-All Star Game; Blozis And Banonis Shine For All-Stars

CHICAGO, ILL.—The Chicago Bears of 1942 once more will be the team to beat for the professional football crown. This point was cinched this past Friday at the Bear-All-Star game in which the Bruins romped to victory with a score of 21-0 in their favor.

Big push behind the Bear win was Bill Osmani, Lith from Worcester, Massachusetts with assistants Al Drulis and Al Matuza, all set to dive in lest the fleeting full-back meet with injury.

Lith leaders in the All-Star team attempt for points were Banonis and Super-man Al Blozis.

LDS MERRY-GO-ROUND

• The coming meetings of all LDS branches throughout the nation will be confronted with the task of voting in favor of a raise in dues. Reason behind it is to insure membership for the hundreds of the boys that are serving in the armed forces.

• As an organization one hundred per cent behind the war effort the thousands of members who are to vote for this dues raise must be clear on the reason behind it. Those members who understand must explain in full to others so that hesitation on the part of one or another individual becomes a decided "Yes, I'm in favor of the raise."

• Some of the adults of course, good solid patriotic people but nevertheless quite annoyed when the question of a raise comes to the fore, will undoubtedly raise a fuss. These individuals need a lot of explaining. But we are sure that with that necessary explanation they will cast the decided "yes" vote.

• There will be some, no doubt, regardless of all explanations who will fight the dues raise. But these will be few, a minute few. These people usually base their argument solely on the financial end and lose sight of the patriotic endeavor most necessary at the present time. They are the type of individual who would refuse to pay two dollars to an affair guaranteeing them all good food and drink for said amount, and wind up at a two-bit admission blowout with cost in food and drink soaring well over ten dollars.

• But as we said, such characters will be few. When the results of the voting are tallied we are quite sure that the boys in service will have been guaranteed paid-up membership in our organization due to the understanding vote of thousands of members within the LDS.

SPORTS AND STUFF

• Fall and winter sports activities are in the making. To date, considering the fact that many of the boys have left for the army, Chicago is the only city that has reported on bowling. Their plans are elaborate and judging from the amount of teams to participate, they will not fall behind the last season.

• Meanwhile, four other cities have possibilities of maintaining set winter sports activities. They are Detroit, Cleveland, Rockford and Ambridge, Pennsylvania. Wonder what's cookin' in New York and Massachusetts?

DRAMA

• Chicago branches that participated in the recently held LDS National Dramatic Tourney are preparing a shindig to honor actors, actresses, playwrights, and assistants that made winning a reality.

• We think the venture is a good—providing it is worked out correctly. There is nothing nobler than to show our appreciation to those persons who have worked hard not only to maintain, but to elevate Lithuanian culture and ideas.

400th LDS Member Enters U. S. Forces; Is Tendered Sendoff

CHICAGO, ILL.: — We'll know in LDS circles locally and on a national scale, Anthony Guzauskas, left for service with the U. S. armed forces this past week.

Members of his branch, the Sparks, tendered Guzauskas a sendoff party on Tuesday evening. The party was well attended by representatives of other LDS branches and his own branch presented him with a parting gift.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—With many active LDS members away with the armed forces, the recently held LDS National Convention saw fit to discuss the membership status of the members while they are away and decided to conduct a vote thru-out the LDS organization as to whether the members would be willing to take upon themselves to pay ten cents more dues per month for the duration, and have their contribution used toward paying of the dues of members who are fighting for their country, for their organization and for all that we hold so dear.

The assesment would be very small. As was expressed by one delegate, it would amount to the cost of one glass of beer per month per member, and we shall be helping the boys in the service if we adopt the assesment by this popular vote of the membership.

In the armed forces today are many of the most active members of our youth movement. There is no need to enumerate all of them. The members know who they are. While they are at camp or at the front, they will not be able to worry about paying their dues to the LDS branch. In the past some branches have been taking care of the dues of the members. But with more and more being called up for service, it becomes increasingly difficult for these branches, particularly the youth branches. The small monthly assesment would take care of this very easily and upon the victorious return of our soldiers after the war is over, they will be very happy to find that their organization was thinking about them all the time, that they did not loose their membership status because duty to their country had called them from our ranks temporarily.

Rules for Voting

The rules that must apply to the meeting where the voting will take place are as follows: All members are to receive postal cards for the September meeting on which will be stated that a vote will be taken as to whether the members agree to the ten cent assesment. It will be a vote, either by a show of hands or by secret ballot, depending on how the members themselves decide. The tally sheet, which has been sent to each branch must then be filled, stating how many voted for the ten cent assesment for the duration, how many voted against it, and how many abstained from voting. ONLY MEMBERS present at the meeting are allowed to vote. The tally sheet is to be signed by the president and secretary of the branch and to be mailed to the National Office not later than September 25th of this year.

It is expected that the vast majority of the LDS members will vote for the assesment. However, the youth branches must make a specially good showing—get as many members as you can to the meeting where the voting will take place and bring in as many votes as you can. This is one problem that affects the youth more vitally than any other question to date in this war period.
