Griežta Bausmė

Prancūzų generolas Pelisje tarnybos metu buvęs nepapras-tai griežtas. Vienas kareivis drįso generolui kaž ką šiurkš-čiai pasakyti.

Perpykęs generolas drožė kančium kareiviui per galvą.
Perširdęs kareivis griebė revol-verį ir šovė į generolą. Bet revolveris neiššovė.

Generolas įsakė:

— Trisdešimts parų daboklės už netikusį ginklo užlaiky-mą!

Graži Porelė.

— Na, kaip? Ar jaunavedžiai tinka vienas kitam? — teiraujasi vienas kaimynas pas kitą, kelioms dienoms po vestu-vių praslinkus.

— Rodos, kad tinka: jo gi-minės apie jaunąją kalba „vargšė mergaitė“, o jos giminės apie jį sako „vargšas jauno-lis.“ O kai abu vargšai, tai gal ir sugyvens.

Jaunikaiti, Sakau Tau Kelkis!

Vyčiai, šituos žodžius ištarė Išganytojas mirusiam jaunikaičiui. Jis kėlėsi ir grįžo uždarbauti savo motinos užlaikymui. Šiandien, pats dar gyvas negirdi tuos pačius žodžius? Tavo tėvynė laukia, kad tu neštumei jos vardą, jos gyvybę ateičiai. Veik iš vieno su savo draugais lietuviškoje organizacijoje. Joje laikyk ir tobulyk Lietuvos garbę.

Dabar eina mūsų vėjus, trauk visus lietuvius draugus prie tau mylimos organizacijos. Parodyk jiems, kad štai grynai lietuviškos dvasios kūnas, kurio jiems nereikia bijotis, bet pri-sidėti prie jo užlaikymo ir sveiko augimo. Pasakyk jiems, kad šitoje organizacijoje nevien išliks lietuvis, bet jo tikėjimas bus aukščiausiame laipsnyje gerbiamas ir yra kelrodis visų jos veikimų. Taip pat primink, kad joje duodama ir dramoje ir dainoje ir sporte ir literatūroje skleisti savo talentus. Trauk juos prie mūsų, kad mes ir skaičiumi augtume ir jis įdėtų ko nors naudingo į mūsų organizuotą kūną.

HERE'S OUR SIDE

In this issue of Vytis the reader will find an exceptional amount of councils news. One member will say, that is as it should be; another will exclaim, there is nothing here of general interest. Both are right.

When a correspondent pleads with the editor to insert the entire article claiming that it should be done because there is a re-organization, a celebration, a jubilee, etc., etc.; and the article is a full page or more, what is the editor to do? The event is very important, but usually only one-fourth of a page is allotted each council and a half-page to the district. In addition to the article sent in a post-script is ordinarily added, threatening a withdrawal of the council, refusal to send in dues, etc., etc., if everything is not done in accordance with the specifications of the correspondent. Such, dear members, is the loyalty we contend with and strive to overcome.

We look to the broad-minded leaders in every locality to explain our ideals. That we accomplish our purpose of promoting everything Lithuanian and Catholic, is more important to us than satisfying one individual's desire to have his name spelled out on a printed page. We urge our council officers to instill our true ideal into the heart of every Lithuanian youth.

— The End —

IŠ TAMSOS Į ŠVIESĄ

Kiekvienas gamtos sutvėrimas yra paniekoje laikomas, kuris drįsta naikinti savąją veislę. Beveik kiekviename gamtos laipsnyje randasi panašių sau-ėdžių. Dar randasi net ir mums nesuprantamų barbarų, kurie valgo savuosius. Maitinasi savo žmonių kūnais. Piktinamės ir biauřejamės skaitydami jų necivilizuotų pobūdžių aprašymais. Negalima suprasti kaip šitame dvidešimtame amžiuje gali rasti tokių neišsilavinusių žmonių. Tam kuris studijuoja žmoniją nenuostabu. Jeigu civilizuoti broliai šiandien ėda savuosius, tai kodėl tam silpno proto barbarui negalima. Mat jo civilizuotas brolis gudriau, civilizuotai, moka uždengti savo barbarišką elgesį.

Šiandien civilizuotame pasaulyje žmonės viens kitą ėda, stengdamiesi suardyti savo artimo — tos pačios tautos, to paties tikėjimo — dvasią. Matydami artimą žengiant pirmyn, jo DRAUGAI pasirenę iškasti jam pražūtis duobę, net ir pražūčiai draug su juo šimtams kitų kilnių dvasių. Neskaudu perpulti priešų pinklėse, ir nesunku su savo draugų pagalba iš jų išsipainioti; bet kuomet draugas rengia artimo veikimui nelaimę, jos skausmas daug sunkiau perkęsti, net pati gyvybė nebeturi patraukimo. Tam veikimui tampa pastatytas mirties paminklas.

Kiek tenka išgirsti priekaištų: jaunimas neveikia, nedirba; nieko daugiau nežino, kaip tik šokti; nieko gero iš jo; nekokia lietuvių ateitis Amerikoje. Tu pats kurs darai šituos priekaištus ar davei nors kartą jaunimui veikti. Jei gali sakyti, kad suteikė tą progą, ar gali sakyti, kad darbas nebuvo atliktas, o jei geriau negu pats būtumei atlikęs, susiraukęs sau nepasisei daugiau tų mandra-pypkių nesikviesi sau pagalbon, nes yra galimybės, kad tavo garbės liepsnelę trupučiuką aptemdė. Gal pats save pasistatęs aukščiau už idealus dėl kurių neva dirbi, nevien, kad neprileidai jaunimo prie darbo, bet savo netaktiškais žodžiais nuvarei juos svetimon prieglaudon, kur jis sunaudojo savo jaunas jėgas. O pats prisidėjai prie jo tolimesnio nupuolimo saldžiai pasityčiuodamas.

Jaunimas daugiau nežino, kaip tik šokti! Jei jaunas būdamas pats nešokai, tai iš pasiutimo, matydamas, kaip jauni linksminasi, jiems išmėtinėji. Gal, kad įgavęs drąsos pajudintumei savo sustingusius kaulus aplink sale prie orkestros sutaikintų garsų, suprastumei, kad sveika žmogui ir pašokti. Bet sakyti, kad jaunimas vien šokiais užsiima, tai netiesa. Žinoma, išminčių yra visoje gamtoje, randasi ir jaunimo, kuris pasitenkina parduoti savo jaunas jėgas vien tik linksmybės dievaičiui, vienok turime labai daug jaunimo, kuris trokšta veikti gražiems idealams. Pažvelgkime į savo praeitį. Ar tai būtų buvę kokie tautiniai apvaikščiojimai, ar bažnytiniai paminėjimai, ar kokie organizacijų vakarai, parodykite kur jaunimas būtų savo jėgų, savo talentų neprisidėjęs. Pasaulinėje Parodoje, lietuvių dienoje — gražiausias pasireiškimas buvo tūkstantinis choras, kurio balsai pervėrė oro bangas ir sujudino kiekvieno klausančio sielą. Tas milžiniškas choras beveik vienintėliai susidarė iš jaunų žmonių, kurių krūtinės siuntė kuotyriausius balsus, kad tik parodžius klausantiems, kad ir lietuviai turi ko nors gražaus suteikti pasauliui.

Kiek yra buvę seimų, juose parengimų, kokiam tai nebūtų, bile geram tikslui, jaunėji vis prisidėjo. Savo išpildytais programais palinksmo susirinkusią pubilką. Juk tai jaunimo darbas, pasmaginti, tuos kurių gyvenimo dienele temsta ir ilga naktis traukia prie ramaus, smagaus poilsio.

Būdavo tag-days ir kitokios rinkliavos. Ar mūsų mergaitės nepraleido dienas ant kampe, kai kada be valgio, dideliame šaltyje, sulaukusios vakaro, linksmai grįžo prie komiteto ir įteikė surinktą auką ir akyliai žiūrėjo, kad daugiau būtų surinkusi už kitas, ne iš pavydo, bet kad pasižymėtų savo veikime.

Iš jaunikaičių ar nėsate ir girdėję jų gražių minčių, net ir lietuviškoje kalboje. Jei ne, tai pirm negu darysi daugiau netaktiškų pastabų įsigyk jaunimo kokį nors žurnalą, pavyzdžiui Vytį, ir pasiskaityk, arba išgirdę, kad vienas iš jų kur nors kalbės, bei duos paskaitą, nusistatyk išgirsti, ir pats nustebsi.

Tiesa, finansiniai maža tėra jaunimas nuveikęs. Kiek jų kišenuose finansų, tiek ir veikimo, o kur nei tiek nėra, tai priežastį rasime tame, kad ir jų tėvai turėdami nerėmė gerų darbų.

Nieko gero iš jo. Yra ir daug blogo. Bet kuris į save pasižiūrėjęs drįs mesti pirmąjį akmenį. Mūsų, ypač lietuvių, jaunimas kur tik nesuteptas svetimomis aplinkybėmis, yra pavyzdinčiai doras. Juomi nereikia gėdėtis. Kiekvienas visuomenės veikėjas, ypač dvasios vadai gali tai patvirtinti. Nesenai teko dalyvauti viešame katalikiško jaunimo parengime, didelėje Chicagos viešbučio salėje. Po pasilinksminimo, viešbučio valdininkai pareiškė, kad jie neturėjo taip mandagiai pasielgusios grupės ir patvirtino tą savo išsireiškimą pridurdami, kad jei ta pati grupė norėtų kada ateityje samdyti salę, kaina visuomet bus prieinama. Ir svetimtaučiai patėmija jų gerumą. O mes tankiai tik stengiamės iškelti aikštėn jų suklydimus.

Lietuvių ateitis Amerikoje nėra nei trumpa, ne juoda. Jeigu žiūrėsime į praeities darbus ir padėsime jiems toliau tobulinties ir plačiau veikti, mūsų tėvų sunkiai pastatytos įstaugos nesugrius, nepereis į svetimas rankas, bet ilgai skelbs pasauliui, kad štai lietuvių išėivių paminklai, ir jų sūnūs ir dukterys, kurie nei savo tautos nesigėdi, nei jai pačiai duoda gėdos.

Nemanykite, kad čia norima išpūsti jaunimą. Visai ne, jaunimas turi daug darbo prieš savo akis. Jam reikalinga suaugusiųjų priežiūra, jam reikalinga senųjų praktika, išbandyto rimto patarimo. Tėvai, vadai, dvasiškiai turi nuolatai būti jų tarpe. Jaunimas nei jų bijo, nei nuo jų bėga, bet džiaugiasi regėdami jų pritarimą ir iš vieno veikimą.

Raukime iš savo širdies tą storžievišką pavydą, nutraukime nuo savo proto tą aklą nusistatymą, spiaukime iš savo burnos šiurkščius užmetinėjimus. Kelkime savo jaunimą, duokime jam savo pasitikėjimo ranką, o nestumkime ten kur nei visuomenė negaus ragauti jo gavinančių jėgų, nei pats turės iš kur atnaujinti savo netinkamai išnaudotas jėgas. Neleiskime, mūsų priešams iš mūsų gardžiai pasijuokti. Jei vienybėje galybė, tai lietuviai Amerikoje, ypač katalikai, vieningai veikime. Jaunieji su senaisiais, senieji su savo sūnumis ir dukterimis. Tada mūsų protėviams pastatysime garbės paminklą ir Dievui linksmi atiduosime savo užvaizdavimo sąskaitą.

Didžiojo Poeto Sukaktuvės

Sausio 17 d., 1935 metais sueina lygiai 100 metų nuo Vyskupo Antano Baranausko gimimo.

Vyskupas A. Baranauskas, „Anykščių Šilėlio“ autorius, ne tik buvo gabus ir didis poetas, įrodęs lietuvių tautos bičiuliams ir priešams mūsų kalbos gražumą, bet taip pat nenulstantis veikėjas, budintojas ir kovotojas dėl lietuvių teisių. Kaip geras ganytojas, jis ne vien savo diecezijos žmones gynė nuo baisiausių Rusijos caro agentų persekiojimų, bet visos tautos reikalais rūpinosi.

Savo gražiomis eilėmis ir kitokiais raštais vysk. Antanas Baranauskas uždegė visą eilę jaunų lietuvių ir raštu ir žodžiu kelti tautinę lietuvių sąmonę, kovoti su mūsų krašto lenkintojais ir rusifikatoriais. Jo nuopelnai mūsų tautai yra dideli.

Reikia tikėtis, kad ir Lietuva ir jos visa padorioji išėivija tinkamai paminės to didžiojo lietuvių tautos poeto ir veikėjo sukaktuves. A. L. R. K. Federacijos apskričiai ir skyriai neturėtų praleisti šios progos, bet prakalbomis, paskaitomis ir kitokiais būdais minėti to didžiojo vyro sukaktį. Svarbu, kad ir mūsų mokyklos nuo to neatsiliktu. „Draugas“

AESLOP'S FABLES

The Traveler and The Two Old Men.

Sometime past a traveler was making his weary way to a small hamlet called Bologna. The road was wet, muddy, and very difficult for him to traverse, so the traveler let his horse go quite slowly. In a short while he came to a cross-road.

The traveler stopped and looked for a sign which would show him which road was the right one for him to take, but there was no such sign to be found there. Fortunately before deciding, he saw an old man coming up along a by-path. He addressed the old man in a friendly manner and inquired if he could inform him which was the right road to Bologna.

The old man scratched his head, thought out loud for a few moments, then answered that he had lived thereabouts for sixty years but did not know the road to such town. The traveler thanked him just the same, and after hesitating decided to take the road to the left, hoping it was the right one.

Now it so happened that the road to the left led up a very steep hill, so it was necessary for the horse to rest every few paces in the slippery mud before he could again proceed upwards. Having reached and passed the center of the steep hill after some difficulty, the traveler heard the old man below shout to him and wave his arm. He also saw that there was another old man standing next the one with whom he had spoken. The traveler was quite sure then that he had taken the wrong road, so he carefully made his way down again to where the two old men were standing.

Upon reaching them the first old man approached him and explained that the second old man was his brother, and that he had lived in the neighborhood for sixty-five years, but he didn't know the road to Bologna either. Having heard this, the traveler controlled his first impulses, then turned his horse and galloped away on the road to the right. The first old man looked at his older brother and remarked: "That stranger didn't even say 'thank you' to us."

Remember this then: Consider the source and anger subsides; besides, the old men thought they were right.

V y t i s —

BROADWAY ON NEW YEAR'S EVE.

At a far distance from the Times Square, the lights of Broadway seemed brighter than ever, and as I neared my object I heard a tumult arise from a corner in the Rialto. Cowbells rang, whistles blew, horns blared, crowds shouted and New York was celebrating it's New Year in full force far before the appointed hour.

The hotels around Times Square were filled to capacity, by thousands of visitors who came to witness blase New Yorkers celebrate. A gun duel between police and bandits could not arouse the emotions of our sophisticated citizens as this carefully planned day could. Even the police force and reserves were there "en masse" to prevent the revellers from leaving our beloved city "en mess".

As I pushed my way up the over-crowded street. I came upon two staggering fellows, Italians, who were vainly endeavoring to sing. So fiercely did these besotted songbirds chant the operetta "Rigoletto" that I surmised it at first to be an Indian war dance. At the corner the policeman restrained the two from crossing against traffic. Pausing for a moment in their joyful misery, they extracted with cautious fingers a bottle from their coat and began drowning each other with generosity before the eyes of the envious policeman. With the traffic lights in their favor the two innocents staggered down the street, singing with renewed vigor. I really could not tell whether they were crying from pain or trying to sing a pathetic song.

On the next street, a group of students discovered a broken bottle of "pre-war" lying in the gutter. Immediately the whole group fell on bended knees before the bottle. With heads bobing up and down they presented a pitiful sight, so pitiful that a group of policemen darted out of the crowds and descended upon the disadvantageous positions of the unsuspecting fanatics, brandishing night clubs. In a moment the mass meeting was over.

At Times Square there milled a million people, each making as much noise as possible. In the heart of the city were dozens of street cars, trapped by this huge and impenetrable mob that flooded every corner. In spite of the ambitious traffic cop the cars remained stationery. The merry makers danced tauntingly about the cars, blaring horns into the faces of the unfortunate and greatly humiliated passengers.

The theaters about Broadway were in convulsions. Boisterous mobs interrupted the performance, clamouring, shouting, blowing, horns, jeering, and cheering. They did everything but climb the cat walks and drop the chandeliers. Reckless groups seized lonely ushers and forced them to drink till they staggered. Sophisticates and over-tortured dignitarians forgot themselves and became pugilists when they failed to get seats. Managers ran everywhere trying to get everything done in a hurry but were satisfied with nothing. To be with a mob in the theater is great fun, especially when you can get away with a fire axe to boot.

In the last car of my home bound train was a mob of sailors, who sang, shouted and whistled until the car began to rock. Although the Navy never had a monopoly on our subway, it was evident that the last car was exclusively theirs. Passengers trying to enter were gently thrown out. Even the conductors dared not restrain them from smashing bulbs and tossing seats around. Happily they did not take the wheels off the car.

The million or more that made merry on Broadway, did soften the dissipated energy of the worn out police force and the employees of private concerns. But this occurred once a year and the job of doing the thing right was well taken in hand. Thus our blase cities indulged with ardent fervor in outrageous acts, which made it all the merrier. For this reason New York is known as the "cross roads of the world", where thousands of visitors assemble to witness the gala event, unrivaled anywhere in the world. Where people of all stations of life run amuck, mingle and consider it decorous. Our home towners raise a tremendous tumult but are overshadowed by our enthusiastic visitors, who go to the extreme. In such jocund company of fifty-seven and more varieties, one can't help forgetting his grievance, nor can one be restrained from going back for more. Broadway knows no limit! I'm waiting for the Next New Year, too.

SO. BOSTON, MASS. 17-ta KUOPA

HARTFORD, CONN.

Lietuvos Vyčių 17 Algirdo kp. metinis susinkimas įvyko sausio 27 d. Vyčių kambary. Paskelbus naujų narių vaju, mūsų kuopos nariai, visi užinteresuoti, kad padarius vaju pasekmingą, užtad į šį susirinkimą net visi atsilankė.

Šį kartą užbaigti, visi nebaigti reikalai, ir daug naujų įnešimų padaryta. Šį kartą nauja valdyba užėmė vietas, bet p-lė F. Karlonaitė buvusi finansų raštininkė ir šiemetams išrinkta už protokolų raštininką prieš užimant įteikė rezignaciją iš raštininko vietos. Jos vieton išrinkta stud. P. Rakauskas.

Dr. E. Valiackas praneša, kad Boston College yra susitvėrusi org. į kurią įeina visos katalikiškos org. ir draugijos. Organizacijos tikslas, smerkti nepadorius krutamus paveikslus. Org. vadovauja p. Sullivan. Kartu įneša, kad ir vyčiai stotų į tą organizaciją. Įnešimas priimtas ir įgaliota dr. E. Valiackas ir mokyt. P. Galinis tuo rūpintis.

Buvo ir daugiau naudingų įnešimų. Sausio 20 d., įvyko debatai temoje: „Ar verta lietuvių jaunimui priklausyti prie lietuviškų organizacijų?“. Debatai buvo rengiami vyčių naujų narių vaju proga. Teigiamosios pusės debatoriai laimėjo savo poziciją. Teigiamą pusę gynė p-nia O. Ivaškienė ir J. Gričiūnas; neigiamą pusę p-lė F. Karlonaitė ir M. Grilevičius.

Buvo ir kalbėtojų. Dr. J. Landžius ir dr. E. Valiackas. Kalbose labai pasižymėjo dr. E. Valiackas. Jis kalbėjo apie Vyčių organizaciją ir jaunimą.

M. Grilevičius skaitė paskaitą: „Nutieskime gaires ateičiai.“ Jo paskaita priminė visiems, kad turime pabusti ir stoti į darbą Vyčių organizacijos labui ypatingai vaju metu.

Kovo 3 d. nutarta rengti kiti debatai ir prakalbos, kol dar eina naujų narių vaju. Pakviesta mok. P. Galinis, kad parodytų gražiausias Lietuvos vietas krutamuose paveiksluose, nes jis lankydamasis Lietuvoj 1932 m. nufotografavo. Mok. P. Galinis sutiko tą paruošti.

Debatoriais išrinkta B. Kavoliutė, M. Žukauskaitė, P. Rakauskas ir P. Razvadauskas. Temą pasirinkus debatoriai su kuopos valdyba pasitarus.

Žodžiu sakant, mūsų vyčiai subruzdavo šiuo vaju metu į darbą ir tikimasi, kad vaju bus pasekmingas. Bravo vyčiai! Lenktyniuokimės!

Nors Vyties skiltyse daug nesirado apie Hartfordo kuopos veiklumą visi nariai uoliai ir gyvai darbavosi ir dirba. Rengimas 1935 metų Seimui yra pradėtas su tuo tikslu padaryti šį suvažiavimą gausingiausį ir išpūdingiausį Vyčių gyvenime.

Šių metų valdyboje darbuojasi Leo Masotas — pirmininkas; Stanislovas Morkus — vice-pirmininkas; Edvardas Mončiūnas — protokolų raštininkas; Louise Shages — finansų raštininkė; ir Antanas Laskus — išdininkas. Mes Vyčiai, didžiuojamės savo dvasios vadais: kun. Ambotu ir kun. Ražaičiu. Kun. Ambotas darbuojasi Vyčių labui per dvidešimt metų ir per pereitą Vyčių Seimą tapo pakeltas į Garbės Narius Vyčių organizacijos. Nesenai iš mūsų tarpo buvo išskeltas visų mylimas kun. Gradeckis, bet jo įpėdinis kun. Ražaitis savo darbštumu turi daug prisiviliojęs.

Hartfordo mieste Vyčių kuopa stovi pirmoje vietoje City Championship Basketball žaidime. Svetimtaučiai yra gerai susipažinę su mūsų veikimu; mes ir lošėjai didžiuojamės, kad mes esame lietuviais, o ypatingai Vyčiais.

Už daug pasekmingų vakarų 1934 metais tariame ačiū mūsų veikliai entertainment komisijai. Apart mėnesinių parengimų buvo surengta Hallowe'en ir Kalėdų parės, kuriose atsilankė senų narių ir rado daug patenkinimo atsiminime savo jaunystės dienų.

Susirinkimus laikome savo „clubroom'e“, kuris įrengtas su radio, pool table, pin-pong table ir t. t. Šiame kambaryje galima atsivesti bile kokį draugą, be jokios gėdos. Viskas švariai ir moderniškai ištaisyta.

Perskaityt šiuos kelius žodelius — ar nenorėsite pas mus pasisvečiuoti? Mes užtikriname, kad tie, kurie atsilankys pas mumis ateinančiame Seime nenorės namon grįžti.

Vėliau parašysiu kelius žodelius apie Hartfordo miesto grožybes ir gyventojų širdingumą.

LIETUVOS VYČIŲ 4-tos KUOPA CHICAGO, ILL.

Pirmieji šios kuopos organizatoriai buvo Kun. F. Kemėšis, dabar Lietuvoje; Jo Malonybė Praletas M. L. Krušas; Aleksandras Aleksis, Leonardas Šimutis ir kiti. Susirinkimai buvo laikomi kas Ketvergą. Susirinkimai yra laikomi toj pačioj vietoj iki šiam laikui.

Pirmininkai buvusieji per 20 metų: Aleksandras Aleksis (1914 — 1916); Leonardas Šimutis (1916 — 1916) tris mėnesius; Justas Kudirka, (1916 — 1918); Justas Balsis (1918 — 1919); B. Abromaitė (1919 — 1920); Antanas Benaitis (1920 — 1921); Apolonija Petkiutė (1921 — 1921) du mėnesius; Stanislovas Šimulis (1921 — 1927); Pranas Vainora (1927 — 1928); Ant. Jankauskas (1928 — 1929); Juozas Giedraitis (1929 — 1930); Pranas Savickas (1930 — 1930) 5 mėnesius; 1930 metais nuo birželio mėn. tapo išrinktas Povilas Šaltimieras pirmininku, sėkmingai išpirmininkavo tris metus. Trumpiausiai pirmininkavo A. Petkiutė — du mėnesius — laikė vieną susirinkimą. Ilgiausiai išpirmininkavo Stanislovas Šimulis penkius metus ir 10 mėnesių. Narių stovis kuopoje būdavo nevienodiškas skaičiumi nuo 40 iki 300. Mažiausiai buvo kuopoje narių 1933 m. ir pradžioje 1923 m. apie 40 narių. Skaitlingiausiai buvo narių kuopoje 1924 metais suvirš 300 pilnai užsimokėjusių.

Pirmieji moksleiviai darbavosi mūsų kuopoje: Kazimieras Pakštas ir Dr. Račkus, o ypatingai Leonardas Šimutis, dabartinis „Draugo“ redaktorius yra labai daug pasidarbavęs mūsų kuopoje. Dramos skyrių vedamas, pats veikalus rašydamas ir mokydavo juos. Daug paskaitų ir prakalbų yra pasakęs Liet. Vyčių naujai. Taipgi kun. J. Paškauskas, dabartinis klebonas Visų Šventų parapijos, taipgi kun. Svirskas, dabartinis Šv. Mykolo parap. klebonas, kun. A. Linkus Šv. Petro ir Povilo parap. klebonas ir kun. Mikaitis. Jie laike vakacijų aktyviai dalyvaudavo kuopos susirinkime ir daug gerų ir naudingų paskaitų pasakydavo jaunimui. Deja ir dabar yra moksleivių, dvasiškių ir svietiškių, bet jie nedalyvauja vyčių kuopose. Nežinia dėl ko?

Dabartinis kuopos veikimas su pradžia šių metų sumanėme eilę visokių gerų sumanymų ypač ir valdybos nariai ir parodo, kad tobulai Liet. Vyčių konstituciją pildo ir nori būti pavyzdinga kuopa. Bet deja viskas yra ant popiergalio, tiktai vieną išpildėm, tai yra, daug narių prie Liet. Vyčių 4-tos kuopos prirašėm 1931 metais ir stovėjome pirmoje vietoje centre ir už tai gavome dovaną. O kiti visi dalykai yra labai susimaišę gana reiks daug padirbėti kolei susitvarkysime visokiais būdais.

Dvasios vadas gerb. Kun. Ig. Albavičius turi visą savo jėgą idėjęs į vyčius, kad tik vyčiai gyvuotų. Bet kokiū nors reikalū nueiname, vis atviromis rankomis mes priimti esame. Linkime gerb. klebonui daug sveikatos ir laimės.

Šiais metais išrinkta gabi valdyba. Taipgi kuopa minės 20 metų jubiliejų ir 17 m. Lietuvos nepriklausomybės sukaktuves vasario 17 d. Dievo Apveizdos parap.

svetainėj. Po prakalbų bus šokiai, taipgi programą išpildys Liet. Vyčių Dainos Choras, po vadovyste muz. J. Saurio.

Visi esate širdingai kviečiami atsilankyti į šias iškilmes. Lai gyvuoja Liet. Vyčių 4-ta kuopa ilgiausius metus.

INDIANA HARBOR, INDIANA, COUNCIL 55

Vyčių 55 kuopos susirinkimas įvyko Sausio 7 d. su nauja mūsų valdyba vyčių kambary.

Buvo nutarta, kad kožnas narys turės nusipirkti sau konstituciją. Mes buvom pakvietę kelis svečius, bet labai nusiminėm, todėl kad jau mitingas buvo atidarytas ir dar svečių nebuvo. Tik žiūrėk, ir štai įstojo į mūsų kambarį gerbiamas mūsų Vyčių Dvasios Vadas Kunigas Valančius, ponas K. Savickas ir ponas Munstriukas.

Po pasisveikinimo, susirinkimas vėl sekė toliau. Raportas dėl basketball pelno buvo atiduotas. Paskui svečiai pakvietė mus dalyvauti Vyčių Šokyje, kuris atsi-bus Sausio 20 d., Midland Kliubo viešbutyje.

Po mitingo visi su džiaugsmu nuėjome į salę, dėl pasilinksminimo. Valgių komisija neužmiršo mus ir todėl skaniai pavaišino. Juokai, pasakos, ir programa mus sočiai patenkino.

Po visko, atsisveikinom su svečiais, su kuriais mes visados esame linksmi pamatyti dirbant su mumis; ir patenkinti vėl grįžom namon. (Kad neužmirščiau, keli mūsų darbštūs vyrai gražiai atrodė apsijuose su „aprons“?????).

WATERBURY, CONN. 7-ta KUOPA

Buvo laikai, kada Waterburio Vyčių kuopa skaitė narių skaičių šimtais, ir būta laikų, kad tik desėtkais. Būta laikų, kad Vyčių čia veikimas žydėt žydėjo, bet praeitų metų antrame pusmetyje, taip nusigyventa, kad į organizacijos metinį Seimą neturėjo teisės siųsti nė vieno atstovo. Šiais metais vėl išrinkta nauja bei gabi valdyba ir yra stipri viltis, kad Waterburio Vyčiai vėl atgaus garbingą vietą, savo organizacijoje. Ir kodėl gi ne? Juk čia ačiui organizacijos garbės nariui bei kuopos dvasios vadui gerb. kun. J. Valantiejiui vyčiai turi įtaisyta puikų klubnamį ir kitas patogias veikimui aplinkybes, tik reikia gerų norų ir daugiau savo organizacijai pasišventimo.

Šiems metams valdybos sąstatas: kun. J. Valantiejus, dvasios vadas; Juozas Kupstas — pirmininkas; Petras Lazauskas — vice-pirmininkas; Julius Vilčiauskas — raštininkas, Marė Orintas — kasierius; Ona Atkočius — finansų raštininkas; Jonas Pilipavičius ir Pranas Šaknaitis — kasos globėjai; Jonas Lesunaitis, Marė Mažeika, Edvardas Laskis, Juozas Vitkauskas, K. Kenausis, ir komp. Aleksis — direktoriai.

Naujai valdybai linkiu gerų sekmių.

NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY DISTRICT CONVENTION

Conventions ordinarily are wearying bores. However, an exception to the rule makes itself evident in the form of the New York and New Jersey District Convention, held at Great Neck, Long Island on January 13th, 1935.

Not only was it a pleasure to be present at this Convention, but also a joy to note how masterfully the affairs of the District were handled. No longer, as in the days of yore, were half-educated would be interpreters of Parliamentary Procedure leaping up and yelling in vociferous, booming voices... "Not according to Parliamentary (Law!)" no longer were delegates delivering verbose and unnecessary time-wasting speeches concerning the actual waste of time... no longer were the antiquated and mighty few of the so-called hey-day, rising, and with chests abnormally expanded, haranguing for twenty minutes or so.. Seventeen years ago, — when I... etc.

And now to summarize the facts accomplished and discussed at the Convention.

Primarily, after the customary procedures of the meeting had been cleared, the Mandate Committee reported ten councils to be represented with delegates numbering 24, and guests averaging approximately 50.

Salutations were then extended to the delegation by Rev. Joseph Aleksunas, Vicar of Transfiguration Church in Maspeth, and by Anthony J. Mazeika, Center President. A salutatory telegram from Rev. John Laurinaitis, Spiritual Advisor of the District, was read.

Various annual reports having been made, and all of the old business having been settled, the delegation proceeded to the election of new officers for the forthcoming year, the results of which follow: Spiritual Advisor — Rev. Joseph Aleksunas; President — Michael Martinkus; Vice-President — Vincent Matulevičius of Jersey City; Second Vice-President — J. Stačkus of Bayonne; Treasurer — Charles Basanavičius of Jersey City; Secretary — Bertha Braškis of New York City.

Of the many items brought to discussion, the following are important: A Spring affair was voted to be held to replete the treasury of the District, the committee selected being: S. Vasalskaitė, J. Žemaitaitė, A. Surdokaitė and E. Pribuišis.

A Communion Breakfast was voted to be held on the Sunday either before or after St. Casimir's day, that day falling on the fourth day of March. It was suggested and put in the form of a motion that all Council members of each and every Council in the New York Jersey District be obliged to receive Communion in a body, at an appointed church on that particular day. The receiving of Communion would be followed by a Communion Breakfast... sequently, a Convention in the afternoon... and finally, a social affair in the evening. The selection or appointing of an intermediary Church was put off until the facts and various aspects of the entire affair might be brought back to the Council members for deliberation and thence voted upon to discern the probability of such an event.

The District Dramatic Club announced that it was practically prepared to begin its annual tour of the various parishes with its highly dynamic dramatization „Žmogžudžio Duktė“. The thespians, following, the precedent set last year, have also prepared themselves with an English comedy which they intend to present at the same time. All Councils were asked to submit suitable dates, as soon as possible, for the presentation to be held in their respective cities.

The newly re-organized Council 113 of Linden, New Jersey, after conquering many insurmountable domiciliary difficulties, was officially given its charter by Mr. Mazeika the Center President.

Rev. C. Paulonis, pastor of St. George's Church in Central Brooklyn, attending the Convention with the delegates of Council 49, added an address in which he stressed the fact that the individual Councils should, and ought to become better acquainted with their pastors if they would have progress in their particular organization. Father Paulonis also stated that the obviously marked independence of the various Councils, not only in this territory, but also in other territories is simply and expeditiously ripping apart the foundations upon which the K of L has built itself.

The time limit not allowing much more discussion, a few minor points were added to the Communion Breakfast affair, and thusly the Convention of January 13th came to an end. Father Aleksunas recited the closing prayers.

The time limit, from apparent results, again proved itself an invaluable factor. I say, again, because I recall the previous Convention in which time also played the principal role. Estimating and comparing these two Conventions with the others, we find that more has been accomplished in the two time-limited meetings than in any other two time unlimited meetings put together. Realizing this ,ergo, why not time limited Conventions?

Following the Convention, the Great Neck Council 109 showed itself to be graciously hospitable and verily congenial by driving all of the delegates to the home of Charles Budris, one of the Council's active members, where a well-prepared supper was enjoyed by the entire delegation.

The Executive Board takes this opportunity to extend to Mr. Budris and to the Knights of Great Neck Council 109 its sincere gratitude for the congenial and hospitable amenity shown both to the delegation and to itself.

The summing up of the most outstanding activities of the past few months in our council, is the Christmas party for the children of our parish given by our council. The party was under the charge of Sally Miller, and was quite a success. A toy was given to each child, a popcorn ball and a stocking filled with candy, nuts and fruits.

Our new officers elected for this year are: Charles Goldick — President; Bill Chapel — Vice-President; Joe Goldick — Athletic director; Anthony Aleksionas — sergeant-at-arms. Re-elected officers are: Bernadetta Sluzinas — secretary; Veronica Sinkevičiūtė — fin. secretary and treasurer.

Our monthly card parties are turning out to be quite successful; and here's hoping our luck continues.

August Vardauskas — Vice-president;

Anne Pužauskas — Secretary;

Frances Žitkus, — Financial Secretary;

Stasys Šimulis — Treasurer.

Starting things off with a bang, we have proposed a gala celebration of the 20 year Jubilee of Council 4. Twenty years ago the first spark of our council was created and since then that small spark has become illuminated with countless numbers of bright lights representing our diligent, hardworking members.

February the 17th is the night of our big 20 year Jubilee program and dance. We've picked the cream of the crop, in entertainment. The K of L Dainos Choir under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sauris, will delight the audience with their Lithuanian songs.

And that's not all! After the program, we're dancing to the gay music of the Virginia ambassadors. We extend a cordial invitation to everyone to join us in the fun. Remember, a good time is in store!

BALANAI ŽINIŲ!

Dienraščio „Draugo“ Morkus išlindęs iš po savo balanės Sausio 30 d. numeryje teikia skaitytojams keletą nuomonių apie Liet. Vyčių organizaciją. Lygina save prie mokyto dantis, o pasirodo, tik geros širdies moterėlė, kuri atvykusi aplankyti ligonį simpatiška išskaitliuoja nabagai visus amžiną atilsį jos pažįstamus, kurie panašia liga sirgo ir nesavo laiku turėjo apleisti šią ašarų pakalnę. Ant galo priduria dėl suraminimo dabar jau visai mirties dalgiui atsidavusiam ligoniui, kad jis dar neblogiausiai atrodo, ir žinoma, gali dar neragauti amžiną atilsį jos draugų likimo.

Brolau, jeigu dantis tikslas būtų vien tik durinėti savo „tulšėmis“ žmonių dantyse skaudamasias vietas, jie visi šiandien galėtų stovėti bedarbių linijose ir nužemintai laukti pakol labdarybės narys suteiks jų gyvybei duonos šmotelį. Ir nejaugi yra tokių dantis, kurie imtų savo pacientus ir išvestų viešai ant gatvės ir sušauktų minias, kad visi matytų, kokie jų supuvę dantis. Ne. Jis ypač pacijentui nurodo, kur skaudamos vietos ir mandagiai pataria koku būdu, kaip lengviau būtų visą pataisyti ir išgelbėti visą burną, net pačią viso kūno sveikatą.

Skaudžiai užgavęs Vyčių kūną, jei matai reikalo gydymui, ateik su visa savo balana, su visais draugais gydytojais ir vesk prie tvirto, sveiko gyvavimo, o nebūk graboriumi ir nekask ankstybos duobės iš visų pusių gyjančiai organizacijai.

Vyčiai! Paskaitę ar išgirdę panašią diagnozę nenusiminkite ir neatsiduokite mirties dalgiui. Ypač šiandien nors pamažėliu, bet ryškiai žengiame pirmyn. Netikėkite visokiems gandams. Šiandien Rytai — New York'o Apskritis smarkiai veikia sukelti fondą spaustuvei. Pačiose „Draugo“ skiltyse Pittsburgho žiniose neseniai tilpo smagus pranešimas, kad Pittsburgho Kunigų Vienybės susirinkimas nusitarė jungti visą Pittsburgho jaunimą prie Lietuvos Vyčių organizacijos. Štai pradžia mūsų atgijimo Pensylvanijoje. O Chicagoje pats Morkus pripažįsta, kad tvirčiausiai gyvuojame. Iš viso to atrodo, kad mes dar toli nuo kapinyno. Tik stokime visi petys į petį, maldaudami kartu

Studentų organizacijai nepavydime! Lai gyvuoja studentai! Lai auga jų organizacija! Mes Vyčiai gyvuojame dėl viso jaunimo — studentų, darbininkų, sportininkų, menininkų, visiems duodame progos saviems sunaudoti savo talentus. Jaunime, susiprask, kad tik vienybe tenuveiksi didelius darbus. Tai visi prie Vyčių ir su Vyčiais pirmyn!

KUN. M. URBONAVIČIUS, M. I. C.
CONGRATULATIONS.

The Knights of Lithuania Organization congratulate the Rev. M. Urbonavičius, M. I. C. on the Twenty Year Anniversary of his Ordination and wish him the best of health and success to continue his priceless work among the Lithuanian youth.

Rev. M. Urbonavičius, M. I. C., the present pastor of Kenosha has continuously been one of the most ardent supporters of the Knights of Lithuania Organization, besides being an energetic and relentless organizer. To his resourceful efforts the Chicago District, similarly, the entire K of L organization, owes much of its present day spirit, enthusiasm and activity. His influence, guidance, and joyiality are ardently felt by every person whom he contacts and to each he inparts the true K of L spirit. Even though the Rev. M. Urbanavičius is now in Kenosha, the Chicago District feels that he is with us constantly at least in spirit.

On Sunday, January 20th, 1935, Rev. Urbonavičius celebrated the Twenty Year Anniversary of his Ordination. On this occasion, the Chicago District deemed it necessary to honor this man who has done so much towards our ideals. Hence, President Joseph Poska, Monica Zibas, and Joseph C. Peters travelled out to Kenosha to congratulate the Jubilant. During the course of events that day, the trio had the privelege to attend a Jubilee Dinner, which was prepared by the Kenoshians in honor of their pastor, and had an opportunity to publicly extend the felicitations of the youth of Chicago. President Joseph Poska delivered a short speech and a little souvenir presenting the best wishes of the District. Following Joseph Peters offered congratulations and a token of remembrance from Council 24 (West Side), the first council that the Reverend Father joined and worked with. Then Monica Zibas, speaking for the I. C. of B. V. M. Sodality of the Chicago District, tendered hearty greetings of that organization.

NEWS FLASHES OF THE CHICAGO DISTRICT

By Joseph C. Peters

The Chicago District delegates have elected a very capable and ambitious staff for the coming year. Each member of the incoming staff has had wide, varied and practical experience in the K of L organization and is therefore well acquainted with our aims and ambitions and is in a suitable position to know just what the District must accomplish in the coming year. May we have the pleasure to introduce the Honorable Staff?

President — Joseph Poska (Council 112)

First Vice-President — Monica Zibas (Council 24)

2nd Vice-President — A. Beliauskas (Council 13)

Secretary — Mary Brazauskas (Council 24)

Treasurer — Leonard Gritis (Council 36)

Correspondent — Joseph C. Peters (Council 24).

The first major activity that the Chicago District is sponsoring is the Annual Basketball League. May I interrupt here in passing to mention the fact that the Basketball Commissioner, Joseph Glebauskas, also the Recording Secretary of Council 24, has put forth his best efforts and has devoted practically all his available time towards the materialization of the league. His untiring efforts surely are appreciated by every Council. Due to some unforeseen difficulties and a shortage of funds the league was slow in materializing, but all obstacles were removed and the league commenced operations on Sunday, January 13th, 1935, at the McKinley Park gymnasium. The games start at 2:00 P. M. and continue to 6:00. Admission is only fifteen cents each Sunday, or by Season Pass, which puts a dent in your pocketbook to the extent of fifty-five cents and is valid for the first seven Sundays. At the present time there are seven teams in the league; namely, Cicero, Marquette, North Side, West Side, Town of Lake, West Side, Brighton Park, and Providence of God. (Due to certain unavoidable circumstances Indiana Harbor was forced to withdraw from the league this year). Therefore, you are assured of three good games of basketball each Sunday. Attend one and all and cheer your boys onward to victory, and possibly to the glory of a championship. Here are the results of the first three weeks of play:

| Team | Won | Lost | Percentage |
|----------------|-----|------|------------|
| Marquette..... | 2 | 0 | 1000 |
| Providence | 2 | 0 | 1000 |
| Cicero | 2 | 1 | 666 |
| West Side | 2 | 1 | 666 |
| Town of Lake | 1 | 2 | 333 |
| North Side | 0 | 2 | 000 |
| Brighton Park | 0 | 3 | 000 |

CLEVELAND, OHIO, COUNCIL 25

On December 10th last, election of officers took place with surprising results. Mrs. Alvina Luiza chose not to run again for president, and Albert Wilkaitis was elected by a small margin over Walter Krause.

John Kazel became our new vice-president and Ann Usalis our new recording secretary, Martin Zitkus was re-elected treasurer. Agnes Keever was retained as financial secretary with Nellie Greene as her assistant. George Lucas was nominated to assist the recording secretary. Frank Swinarski and Connie Salkes were elected trustees, and Peter Luiza and Vic. Pochauskas seargent-at-arms.

Mary Zupka, George Lucas and Ann Usalis were chosen correspondents for the coming year.

A gala New Year's Eve party was held at the home of our congenial member, Lillian Brazis, which affair lasted until the wee hours of morning, and a grand time was had by all who attended.

At the card party held Jan. 12 at Connie Salkes' home, there seemed to be more outsiders than council members. All knights are urged to attend these card parties; if some are to be put over in a big way. That means you too, Mr. President.

Cupid had two more victims to his credit, Mrs. Vitas held an engagement party on Sunday, January 6th to announce the betrothal of her charming daughter Evelyn to Eddie Anderson, both active members of our council. This goes to prove that the K of L is a good place for young Lithuanian men and women to get together.

— M. E. Z.

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, COUNCIL 41

On January 10th, the "Vytauto" council held its first monthly meeting of the new year and it was rather a surprize meeting for nine new members have enrolled with our council. We, trust that our new members will soon become acquainted with the older knights and also become active members and serve their council and help support the general organization. Some of the new business that was decided on and passed upon at our monthly meeting was:

— Sport News —

The formation of a Ping-Pong Tournament, which is to be played separately by the young men and women. A gold medal will go as first prize for the boy and girl that attains the highest rating, and a silver medal will be given to the boy and girl who finishes second. There will not be a medal for third place scorers! Members who have not registered in this tournament are urged to get in line. A fee of ten cents is charged to members who enter the tournament. This money goes toward the purchasing of the medals. So come on boys and girls sign up and show your stuff!

Fourteen

The members of the basketball team have now been practicing for the past couple of weeks and soon hope to meet opposition from some of the best teams. It's true we've started late — but better late than never! Mr. V. Vaichulevičius, Mr. W. Peckaitis and Mr. J. Romenchus are looking out for the team and are doing their part by participating in practices, showing the boys some of the fine points of the game, etc.

— Social News —

A dance has been arranged for February 7th which is to be held at our parish hall. Annunciation Hall. Clubroom's are now open every Monday and Thursday evening. Rev. Kartavičius, our spiritual advisor has O. K.'d evenings for our council. The committee members chosen for the dance affair are: Miss Josephine Yanuska, Mr. Albert Kruzikauskas, Mr. Walter Kaimauskas and yours truly.

— J. Minauskas.

GREAT NECK, L. I., N. Y. COUNCIL 109

With new officers for the new year, we find John E. Masulis occupying the presidency, Mary Lazaunik as vice-president, Alex Wesley as financial secretary, Charles Budris as treasurer, and Amelia Kens as secretary.

The dance committee found the gala masquerade (held on January 12) not only a tremendous social success, but also a financial one which has increased the treasury from almost nothing to actually something. The committee was composed of Charles Budris, Alex Wesley, John E. Masulis, and Joseph Dagelis, Jr. who put in valuable time to make sure of a great success. We thank everyone who attended our affair and helped support it financially.

At the District Convention, which was held in Great Neck, the usual yearly elections were held. And incidentally, Great Neck is honored by the fact that Father Aleksunas was chosen as spiritual advisor for the district as he is the present advisor for our council. Charles Budris and Joseph Dagelis, Jr. were chosen as delegates for Great Neck. After the meeting a huge social affair was donated by the active members of the lodge to the delegates of the convention. It was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Budris. Father Paulonis and Father Aleksunas commented upon the magnificent reception given by the hosts and social committee consisting of Amelia Budris, Ann Dagelis, Mary Gatavinsky and Charles Budris. The reception later turned out to be a party. We members of the Great Neck Lodge take our hats off to Charles Budris' untiring efforts in attempting to keep the organization going full blast.

Due to the grand success and much hub-hub by elderly folks of our soberly populated town about our recent dance, we have actual promises of a dozen new members to our lodge. We even have Brooklynites desiring an opportunity to join our council.

Until later.....

Joseph Dagelis, Jr.
Correspondent for Council 109.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., COUNCIL 93.

The Rochester Council has been absent from the pages of the Vytis for several months, but is still strong in its activity spirit. Here is a brief summary in a nutshell.

A grand Novelty and Balloon Dance was staged in November, during which we inaugurated our original Spot Dance Prizes.

A few weeks later, a Bowling Party was sponsored and we discovered our champion bowlers were John Franklyn and Angela Gudell; and our lowscore bowlers were — oh, never mind. I believe this affair led to the formation of a Sunday afternoon K of L pastime — Bowling.

Two of our local members deserve a great deal of praise and thanks for the hospitality shown at our

— V y t i s

Monthly Social Gatherings. During November, Josephine Melinis entertained the K of L members at her home and Isabelle Mocejunas received us very cordially at her home at our December Social Gathering.

Now to look a little into the future — the K of L members are looking forward to a Galla Dinner Dance to be held at a very exclusive place the latter part of February. Members, get your dues paid up because there is a surprise awaiting you! I also wish to mention that the cast is energetically preparing a play for February 17 and Prof. Bazys is preparing his K of L choir with a few songs for that evening.

— A Member.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., COUNCIL 124

On December 17th, our council conducted a wonderfully well attended meeting. A very representative group it was too, and we feel sure none present regretted their attendance that particular evening... Because after the regular business had been disposed of... annual election of officers, took place... A vigorous, sportmanlike rivalry existed among the various candidates during the previous months, arousing much interest concerning the relative merits, popularity and capability of each. Finally the ballots declared these to be the officers, for the new term; Miss Leonora Kappill, president, Mr. Anthony Zvirblis vice-president, Miss Estelle Teleisa recording secretary, Mrs. Anthony Žvirblis, secretary — treasurer, and Mr. Michael Martinkus, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Vincent Matulevich was elected to the post of Athletic Director, Vincie we expect a lot from you? This was in itself a grand testimonial to the vigor and health of our organization as well to the ability and untiring efforts of the present and past... Board of Officers; they were elated too. Lets hope the rank and file continue their evident interest and enthusiasm. On Thursday January 17th, the council will conduct the first of a series of so-called "Club Nite" at the St. Ann's Parish Hall. The idea to introduce the ample facilities of our council,... Ping-Pong equipment, shuffle-board, and cards-games... to the members in general and to get interest in the council and its build up; all are cordially invited and welcome. Mike Martinkus will be the host for the evening and Miss Leonora Kappil will play hostess. Miss Mildred Andrews and Mr. John Zvirblis were presented as new members. (welcome). All in all it was an excellent meeting and impressed all who attended most favorably and if we can only keep all our monthly meetings interesting....., if we can present to the members, something over and above the necessary, dry routine business affairs..., we can rest assured the members will come and bring new members.

LIETUVYBĖ, JAUNIMAS IR KOMUNISTAI

Komunistų Triksai. Tėvai Įspėkit Savo Vaikus.

Marquette Parko Vyčių kuopa, kuri per keletą metų išaugo į vieną didžiausių Liet. Vyčių organizacijos kuopų Amerikoje, pereinam susirinkime baigė pereinam metų atskaitą. Pasirodo, praėjusiais metais kuopa buvo surengus daug sėkmingų pramogų, kurių pajamos siekia netoli 500 dolerių. Ir išmokėta beveik tiek pat. Vienas didžiausių išmokėjimų buvo — $100.00 parapijai, bazaro metu, o kitas — netoli 60.00 dolerių padengimui nuostolių įvykusio 10 metų bankieto kuopos gyvavimo sukakčiai paminėti. Tas bankietas, kuris buvo pradėtas rengti prieš tris mėnesius, ir į kurį kuopa įdėjo daugiau rūpesčio ir darbo, negu į bent kokį kitą parengimą — nepasisekė. Kodėl?

Mūsų senieji lietuviai nematė svarbos tikram, lietuviškam, katalikiškam jaunimui pritariti jų kilniame darbe.

Prieš kelias savaites prieš bankietą nutarė, kad, esą, toji diena labai patogi vakarienei parapijos naudai. Rengėjų dėmesys buvo atkreiptas į faktą, kad jaunimo Liet. Vyčių kuopa tą pat dieną rengia reikšmingą vakarą. Atsakymas buvo toks: „Ar mes nusileisim jiems? Ar ne mūsų didesnė jėga? Mes rengsim, ir jaunimas mums nepakenks. Net jo priedermė dalyvauti parapijos vakare”.

Tai taip žiūri mūsų senesnieji į savo jaunimą!

Nors sakoma, kad čia lietuvių centras, bet tikroji lietuviška dvasia nyksta. Parapijoje organizuojasi nauji kliūbai, kurie nieko bendro neturi su lietuvių kalba ir veikimu.

Moterų kliūbai jau pradėjo susirinkimus anglų kalba vesti; net į valdybą turėjo išrinkusios svetimtautę Delko? Delto, kad lietuviai pasidarė per daug puikūs, pradėjo girtis esant amerikonais. Mat, nori pasididžiuoti, kad gyvena gražesnėj miesto daly.

Kur toji puikybė mus veda? Pažvelgkime ir pamatysime. Kam mažai rūpi lietuviška dvasia, tam mažai rūpi ir katalikų tikėjimas. Kokią garbę neša mums tokios draugijos, kurioms nerūpi lietuviškumas?

Komunistų Veikla.

Per pereinam metus lietuviai komunistai smarkiai veikė, kad įtraukus katalikus į savo veikimą.

Pereinam Vyčių seime, New Yorke, buvo atvykę net iš kelių miestų jaunų komunistų atstovai ir reikalavo, kad jie būtų pripažinti delegatais; siūlė bendrą veikimą.

Nereikia nei sakyti, kad Vyčiai jų pasiūlymą ir juos pačius išmetė lauk iš seimo salės.

Dabar sumanyta naujas triksas katalikams pritraukti, būtent sportas. Suorganizuota basketball lyga ir paimta viena katalikų airių salė. Kiekvienas tymas pasižadėjo gauti žaidėjų iš katalikų tarpo ir žaidžia, kaip lietuviška lyga.

Neseniai Liet. Vyčių organizacijos dvasios vadas kun. A. Valančius išsiuntinėjo laiškus kiekvienai kuopai, įspėdamas narius neturėti jokio reikalo su jais, neiti į debatus, ar į sporto rungtynes. Todėl iš Vyčių tarpo ir nesiranda pas komunistus. Bet kaip apie kitas jaunimo organizacijas, kurios nežino apie šį pavojų?

Neseniai padaryta investigacija, koku būdu komunistai galėjo gauti katalikų salę žaidimams. Pasirodo, kad tos salės užvaizdai buvo įrodyta, jog ši lyga susideda iš katalikiško jaunimo. Parėmimui šio statemento, komunistų lygos vadas įrodė, kad keturi vieno tymo nariai žaidžia su Marquette Parko lietuvių katalikų parapijos C. Y. O. tyme toje pat salėje sekmadieniais.

Kas jie yra toki? Niekas kitas, kaip tik geriausių parapijonų vaikai, kurie nepriklauso ir neįdomauja lietuviško katalikiško jaunimo veikimu.

Vienas tų vaikinų net išsireiškė, kad gal, būtų gerai jei ir visos Holy Name Society tymas prisidėtų prie šios komunistų lygos. Mat, galėtų lengvai laimėt čempionatą. Nesupranta, kad komunistai to ir laukia. Jie atiduotų visus čempionatus, visus puodus, kad tik atsiektų savo tikslą!

Žinoma, tie žaidėjai neskaitys šio įspėjimo, nes jie gal jau gauna vorkerį, bet žinau, kad jų tėveliai skaito „Draugą“ ir kitus katalikiškus laikraščius ir galės įspėti juos, neleis žaisti tokioje kompanijoje.

Marketparkietis — „Draugas“.

Hamlin Garland, that masterful portrayer of life on the unacquainted with the use of the modern typewriter. At least that is the impression we get from a look at one of his letters to a translator who had written for permission to translate one of his stories. Apparently his secretary was not around and he typed the letter himself. The spelling, punctuation and writing in general are atrocious. We are inclined to blame it upon the typewriter, because Mr. Garland's stories excepting, of course, the dialects used by his characters, are examples of perfect literary English. Incidentally, Mr. Garland is president of the society that presents annual awards to American radio announcers for good diction.

Hilaire Belloc and Gilbert K. Chesterton are the Church's two greatest literati. We are under the impression that they are bosom friends — two cronies who are not above playing a practical joke on someone if the occasion is presented. The illustrations for Belloc's humorous novel "Mr. Petre" are by Chesterton, and his many admirers were surprised to discover that he is also a talented caricaturist. The sketches in question are very funny, and in keeping with the humor and subtle satire of the novel.

Our dusty and long-forgotten school history book reveals some interesting facts apropos of the current war debts question. In 1861 three European nations sent armies into Mexico to collect by force debts due them. In 1901, France, Great Britain and Germany sent armed forces into Venezuela for the same purpose. So what?

Some stamp editor, we forget who, asked us to observe that the business man, or banker, on the recently issued NRA postage stamp is actually out of step with his companions, the farmer, laborer and housewife. Take a look at the next NRA stamp you see, and verify the observation. We wonder whether it was a bit of subtle irony by the artist, or merely a bit of relief in the picture, to avoid artistic monotony?

In The Contract

An insurance agent had called upon Mrs. Jotter for her weekly premium and she had informed him of her intention to remove.

"And when may I expect the van?" she asked.

Not quite understanding the subtlety of the query, the agent probed deeper into the mystery, only to discover that a furniture van was the subject of the request.

"Yes," remarked Mrs. Jotter, "the company does all that free of charge".

"The company"! gasped the agent. "Furniture van—free!"

"Look here", said Mrs. Jotter, "here's a list of your own rules: 'Members removing from one district to another will be transferred free of charge.'"

Typical.

The fraters were having a very solemn meeting. Suddenly a knock was heard on the door, and a timid young pledge entered.

"Can I have a glass of water, sir?" he asked nervously.

"Go ahead, take one", called an active, quite annoyed.

Soon the pledge returned and requested another glass of water.

"Take it and get out, damn it," they growled.

Once again he returned. "Another glass, please."

"Go ahead, go ahead," was the sarcastically sweet tone.

He was back.

"May I —"

"Say, what the hell —" they exploded; "you sure got a lousy thirst, eh?"

"Not at all, sir," said the pledge timidly, "but the house is on fire, sir."

DAISY DARLING

(Advice to Palpitating Hearts)

Dear Miss Darling:

I'm just eighteen years old, and I know all about life, but I can't decide what to get my sweetie pie for a birthday gift. Should I keep company as usual or should I sort of forget my sweetie pie until after the mentioned date?

A. Canary.

Dear Cheep:

Don't be that way. Purchase something, then get a box from the classiest store in town and put the gift in it. This makes a fine impression. The sentiment counts. We all realize times are hard, but in this way you'll be holding your own.

Spendthrift Daisy.

Dear Miss Darling:

I was recently married to a prominent K of L member. Oh Daisy, I love him, I love him, I love him, and I love him.

Susie.

Dear Sue:

I gather from your letter that you "love him".

Affectionate Daisy.

And Vice Versa.

Suitor (who has crashed) — You were the last girl in the world I thought would reject me!

Eva — Don't talk so foolishly Gilbert. You'll find there are thousands of other girls.

DĒDĒ KASTUKAS SAKO:

Always be honest with yourself, and you'll find that you'll be happier. When you once gets to doin' shady things, you just can't feel at ease, nohow; and it's twice as hard to git back on the right road.

Life Among Ruins

When we were young we dreamed of the many great things we would accomplish in our later years. As the years rolled on it became more and more difficult to realize our youthful ambitions; the obstacles were greater, our responsibilities increased, and our illusions seemed to vanish. Some of us settled down and just grew old, others drifted away to different parts of the country. Few, very few, actually realized what they had set out to do. The happiest individuals among us were those who found joy and contentment in what little they had. We gather then that whether we achieve our ambitions or not doesn't matter so much; it is happiness that makes us want to continue existing. Strange as it may seem, hard work is the greatest source of such happiness.
