KAIP SU GALVA?

Profesorius ėjo gatve. Viena ko-ja dėjo ant šaligatvio, o kitą ant gatvės. Sutinka jį draugas ir klau-sia:

— Labas rytas, profesoriau, kaip tamstai šįryt.

— O, blogai, — atsakė profe-sorius. — Viskas buvo gerai, tik dabar nei iš šio, nei iš to pradė-jau šlubuoti.

Tėvo Užduotis.

Motina: — Neklausinėk tėtės, matai, kad jis pyksta.

Vaikas: — Mamyt, jįsai nepyksta, kad aš jo klausinėju, bet kad nemoka atsakyti.

Puikiai.

Tėvas: — Už ką tave mokytoja mušė?

Sūnus: — Ji liepė parašyti vieną straipsnį: „kaip tinginys atlieka darbą“. Aš išdaviau jai neprirašytą popierą.

Iš Gyvenimo.

— tai ką gi veiki atostogaudamas?

— Žinai nėra kas veikia, musės gaudau.

— Na, ar daug pagauni?

— Ot ir šiandien pagavau, penkias, dvi vyriškos lyties ir tris moteriškos.

— Mat dvi sėdėjo ant degtinės bonkos, o trys ant veidrodžio.

Tikrai Nelaimė!

— Ar tau, Juozai, teko kada nors pergyventi geležinkelio nelaimę?

— O taip. Vieną kartą, važiuo-damas tuneliu tarp Lentvario ir Vilniaus, vieton sužiedotinės pabučiavau savo būsimąją uošvę.

Drugless Prescription

— Agitated Caller — "I want something to quiet my nerves".

Lawyer — "But I'm not a doctor,
I'm a lawyer."

"Yes, I know. I want a divorce."

Too Sad

The street sweeper was weeping bitterly as he pushed his broom along the curb.

"What is the trouble, my good man?" asked a bystander.

"Sir", said the street sweeper,
"there has been an accident here.
One of my friends was killed and I am forced to sweep away the debris."

"Oh, I see" said the bystander,
"just scraping up an acquaintance."

Perfect.

A sales manager was asked by a recently fired salesman for a recommendation. He thought it over and then wrote as follows: "The bearer of this letter is leaving me after one month of work. I am perfectly satisfied."

Over and Over Again

„KUR KITI DEVYNI?“

Džiaugėsi Kristus pamatęs vieną išgydytą raupsuotą grįžtanti pasakyti savo padėkos žodį. Linksma Katalikų visuomenė, kad auga mūsų jaunimo organizacijos. Nuo buvusio seimo New Yorke susilaukėme arti trijų šimtų naujų narių. Bet kur dar ta galinga minia jaunimo, kuri ne su mumis. Daug jo yra visai neprijungto prie jokių katalikiškų organizacijų. Kur jie?

Brangus Vyti, tai tavo darbas juos surasti. Kur tik sutiksi jauną, ar dirbtuvėje, ar žaidime, ar pasilinksminime, tuoj bandyk jį prikalbinti prie Vyčių. Būk savo organizacijos kupčium. Parduok jos idealus kiekvienam savo draugui, pažįstamui.

Šiandien kas tik pradeda kokį nors darbą, tuoj stengiasi sudaryti organizaciją, arba prisijungti prie esančios. Žino, kad tame yra didesnė jėga. Iš tokio veikimo randasi gausenių vaisių.

Žinome, kad komunistai visokiais būdais bando išibriauti mūsų tarpan ir paglemžti mūsų jaunimą. Nežinau kur, bet atsimenu girdėjęs posakį, kuris šiaip skamba: Tvirčiausia defensiva — yra gera offensiva. Reiškia tas geriausiai atsilaikys prieš užpuolimą, kuris tvirčiausiai yra prisiruošęs.

Negaišinkime nei laiko, nei spaudos lapų, pešdamiesi žodžiais su mūsų priešais. Tegu jie aikvoja savo laiką ir rašalą savo šmeižtams ir išmėtinėjimams. Mes-gi tuo tarpu burkime savo jaunimą į didelę, galingą organizaciją. Akyliai ją dabokime, tvirtai ją saugokime, sąmoningai ją auklėkime. Ir štai mūsų priešai pasijus vieni besiklausą savo šmeižtų, ir ras opoziciją neperžengiamą.

Todėl dar kartą kviečiame visą katalikišką jaunimą prie mūsų. Lai Vyčiai sudarotą tvirtą opozicionierių frontą. Duokime mūsų katalikiškai visuomenei džiaugtis mūsų Lietuvos meile ir ištikimybe Bažnyčiai.

A POT OF GLUE

Time judges people not according to the amount of wealth they have amassed, not according to the amount of pleasure they might have had while idling, not according to the amount of work they have done for themselves, nor for the amount of work they have done for others with compensation: it judges the worth of man by the energy he expends during a life time for the welfare of his fellow being.

It is according to such worth that we continue to honor Washington and Lincoln; because they knew what sacrifice was. For the same reason we condemn the conquests of Napoleon who knew only how to satiate his own desires instead of thinking for the good of others.

Look back upon your own existence thus far and you can readily determine what you are worth. Do you know the meaning of sacrifice; have you aided your fellow man to better himself? Perhaps you are so self-centered and conceited that you can't even think of doing some good for another.

Here is an organization, the Knights of Lithuania, which offers you an unlimited means to demonstrate your desire to make something of yourself instead of remaining shiftless and irresponsible. The new membership drive of the organization is on, get in and join together with your friends. Start out by bettering conditions in your local council and you will find that at the same time you are becoming worthy not only to yourself but to society.

It is up to you to make yourself work. Your friend can only urge you to do so. Don't be a sluggard the rest of your life.

LEADERSHIP

Let us hope that the examples, set by George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, will serve as an inspiration to Lithuanian youth to strive for the continued freedom of Lithuania.

To read "Whither Lithuanian Youth" published in the December issue of the "Vytis", one would gather from it that the author had made a thorough-going study of the underlying and existent conditions found in the lives of the American born Lithuanian youth of today. But he himself proves this not to be the case.

On a closer scrutiny of the article, one finds that the author undoubtedly allows himself to consider the exception and not the rule.

He states in his article that the membership of the Knights of Lithuania finds itself dwindling. I wonder if he speaks of one Council in particular, a group of Councils, or of the entire organization. If of the entire organization, then I again wonder if the writer had the exact statistics concerning the membership standing during the years of 1933 and 1934 before him, when he wrote his article. I am inclined to wonder thusly because the report of the 22nd Annual Convention still lingers in my mind.

If I remember correctly, the Center announced, in its annual report, that there had been both, a sound financial gain, which aided in the paying of an age-old debt incurred by our predecessors, and also a favorable increase in membership for the year of 1934 as compared to the year of 1933.

Yet, considering the fact that I base my statistics on memory, let us go so far as to assume that the membership of the K of L organization is dwindling. The writer then asks what are the causes for this being so. Immediately, with his next breath of air, he answers his own query, pointing to the younger generation and stating that it is up to them, the younger generation so-called, to realize that they are needed to carry on the work of their predecessors.

The fault, however, if there really is a dwindling in membership, lies not with the younger generation, nor with their lack of spirit or patriotic fervor, nor with any such ephemeral cause, but with the EXECUTIVES and LEADERS of that particular Council in which there has been shown a drop, or decrease in membership.

Compare in mind, your conception of what you think to be a fairly good-sized, well-governed, and prosperous Council, with one the direct antithesis of this. There will be no doubt whatsoever, that the former is headed by a real leader, while the latter, by a mere figure-head.

Any well-led organization, always, and in every instance, will show a decided advantage over a group headed by a negligent or even incapable leader. Leadership is the prime factor in deciding the prosperity of an organization... leadership is the essential quality necessary to bring a group out of the rut... leadership is the means to an end, that end being, as far as we are concerned, a representative group of Lithuanian youth, belonging to a representative Council, belonging to the K of L Center and accomplishing those duties essential for the development of the organization, with zest, gusto, and I might add, absolute preciseness.

Headed by a real leader, who is both conscientious and capable, an organized group can almost do the impossible.

In considering therefore, this aspect, the fact becomes evidently obvious that a real, good leader generally is the main cog in his particular organization... that most often the future of the organization actually depends on him.

We have been speaking of real leaders for so many paragraphs now, that undoubtedly the reader is beginning to wonder just what might be the conception of one..... just what qualities or characteristics go to make up a real leader. Following are some ideals, elements, qualities characteristics, or notions as to what comprises a good, real leader.

A leader, primarily, must know himself as perfectly as possible. He must have clear-cut, definite ideas in his mind. He must believe in those ideas with exacting confidence. He must have a definite philosophy of life. He must be courageous. He must not change his mode of thinking to suit the various classes, or various types of people. His beliefs are not to be snap judgements. He must not deceive his associates. He must know his possessive characteristics. He must have driving will power!

Continuing, he must know when and what to compromise. He must do things well..... realize the necessity for CO-OPERATION.... look into the future and put his ideas accordingly. A leader must possess idealism. He must have some definite object in view. He must not dream of the inadequacy of the present conditions. He must go ahead and better these conditions. A leader must have personality... personal tact. He must deal with people as human beings. He must know when to retreat and when not to forge ahead into pure suicide. Finally, he must have pride, and humility as well.

From even a practical standpoint, therefore, we can gather that the prime, the principle factor, that could possibly direct a decrease in the membership standing in the entire organization, would be the INABILITY TO LEAD on the part of the executives in the various Councils, and not the spiritless, non-patriotic members, as Mr. Minauskas would have us believe.

Spiritless and non-patriotic members are simply a consequence and a proportionate effect of the principle, or main cause, namely, the incompetency of the leader to fulfill his position.

A good leader imbues all the necessary spirit and patriotism that is essential to his organization by being of these qualities himself.

In estimating and examining for example, the New York and New Jersey District and its twelve subjective Councils today, we can find that actually there are but one or two of the Council leaders that need a hypodermic imbuing of spirit and patriotism. And this hypodermic imbuing can be administered very effectively by the District President. Considering that one, or possibly two Councils at the most, require a bit of stimulation, the average obviously, portrays itself to be quite pleasing.

In having, therefore, let us say in round figures, at least fifteen actual and potential leaders in the New York and New Jersey District effervescing in these qualities of spirit and patriotism, and being considered as a few of the many solid pillars representative of Idealism and Faith, foundationally supporting the tectonic construction of the Knights of Lithuania, we can readily prophesy the organization, built upon that type of leadership, can never crumble into ruin, or even dare to become extinct. Its sodality becomes perennial with the passing of generations.

Thusly in summarization, the fact can only be reiterated that but one primary cause presents itself; if there is, or should be, as per assumption, a decrease in the membership standing of the organization today. And that essential, primary cause, is the leader acting "per se", or metaphorically speaking, a solid pillar evolutionizing into defectivity.

The only possible means, therefore, of avoiding this deplorable situation of a possibly decreasing membership standing, would be to emphatically denounce the imperial reign of figure-heads, and let those who would officially represent the various Councils of the Knights of Lithuanian Organization be REAL, GOD-FEARING, CATHOLIC LEADERS.

NUTIESKIME GAIRES ATEIČIAI

*Vyčių Vajus Užsibaigs ant Velykų Dienos.
Kiek Narių Galėsi Prirašyti?*

Artojo į dirvą įsėti grūdai, netaip greit atneša vaisių. Kad išnoktų brangios varpos, reikia laukti kelių mėnesių laiko, šilto lietaus ir saulės kaitros. Tankiai tenka nukęsti pasėliams didelių šalčių nepakeliamos kaitros ir smarkių audrų.

Kiekvienas artojas, pasėjęs pasėlį, kantriai laukia pageidaujamo vaisiaus. Jis tikisi, kad jo rūpestingas darbas nebus sunaikintas ir ateityj atneš tikros naudos.

Taip gyvenime esti beveik su kiekvienu darbu, visuomeniniu sąjudžiu ir įvairiomis reformomis. Kiekviena pradžia yra sunki. Kiekvienas, kad ir naudingiausias naujas sumanymas, sutinka daug abejonių ir nepritarimo ir tik po ilgo laiko, pamatę kitų pasišventėlių drąsą ir pasiryžimą, pradeda susiprasti ir stoja į eilę, kad tas kilnus darbas būtų varomas visu smarkumu pirmyn.

Taip prasidėjo krikščionybė. taip kilo ir mūsų tautos nepriklausomybė. Juk kiek abejonių ir nepritarimo buvo kuriant laisvąją Lietuvą. O vis dėlto šiandien mes džiaugiamės laisve ir jos garbingais kovotojais.

Nelengva taip pat buvo ir Lietuvos Vyčių organizacijos pradžia, bet kūrėjai — pasiryžėliai dirbo, kad sukūrus gražią ateitį priaugančiai jaunuomenei. Jų pasiaukojimo dėka, šiandien džiaugiamės vyčių organizacija, kuri skleidžia po visą kraštą Dievo ir Tėvynės meilę.

Mes neužmirškime, kad prieš mūsų akis tęsiasi laimingesnės ateities plotai, kuriuos pelningais bei naudingais padarys ne kas kitas, tik mūsų pasišventimas ir šiandieniniai darbai. Praeities laimėjimas per daug nesdžaugkime, bet siekime naujų ir prakilnesnių.

Visi mūsų keliai, veda į ateitį. Taigi ir kiekvienas šios dienos žingsnis ar įvykdintas protingas sumanymas, ateityje teiks laimėjimų.

Sutikę naujus metus, susimąstėme, ką veikti, ką pradėti, kaip žengti ir skaistesnį rytojū. Šia proga sustoję valandėlei ir peržvelgę sąrašą nuveiktų darbų, tieskime gaires naujiems žygiams, naujiems darbams.

Vyčių organizacija paskelbė naujų narių vajú. Vajaus metu mūsų visų pasiryžimas turi būti ši vajú padaryti pasekmingu, sukviesti visus savo draugus į vyčių organizaciją, kad nei vieno iš mūsų draugų neliktų neįstoję į vyčių organizaciją.

Tačiau neužtenka tik paskelbti vajú, užtenka tik daug ir gražiai apie mūsų vyčių stiprinimą pakalbėti ar parašyti. Nuoširdaus darbo įdėti reikia. Vien tik žodžiais nieko neuveiksime. Todėl kiekvienas mūsų turim tuomi susirūpinti. Kiekvieno mūsų pareiga darbais įrodyti, kad mes tikrai norim vyčių organizaciją stiprinti ir plėsti. Kad galima, lai niekas tuo neabejoja. Kiekvienas narys tikrai gali surasti bent vieną naują narį. Tik noro reikia. O jei mes kiekvienas per tuos du mėnesius surasim nors po vieną naują narį, vadinasi įtrauksim į tautinį ir religinį darbą, nors po vieną darbininką, jau daug padarysim. Mūsų jėgos dvigubai padidės. Aišku, atsiras ir tokių, kurie ir po tris ir daugiau naujų narių organizacijai duos. Juo daugiau — juo geriau. Mūsų vadai pamatę mūsų pasišventimą organizacijos gerovei, daugiau atkreips dėmesio ir dar nuoširdžiau mus parems, tik šiam reikalui turim paaukoti daugiau energijos ir susipratimo.

Per iniciatyvą ir energiją kilniems darbams, žmogus save auklėja. Būti drąsiu bei išsilavinusiu jaunuoliu-e, kiekvienam reikalinga. To iš mūsų nori ir pati organizacija, kad būtų daugiau veiklių pasišventusių jaunuolių.

Tad į darbą! Suburkime mūsų jaunąsias jėgas. Pajudinkim žemę! Užtenka požemiais slankioti. Užtenka vien į kitus žiūrėti ir laukti ką jie padarys. Nuo naujųjų metų mes drąsiai ir pasiryžę stokim į darbą.

Aš, tu, jis, ji, mes visi į darbą vajú metu.

M. Grilevičius.

„MERUNAS“

K. S. Karpiaus „Merunas“ (Dirva) yra istorinė apysaka iš gilios senovės laike Vikingų kovų su Lietuviais. Į šį aprašymą įeina paėmimas tų laikų garsios pilies Apuolės ir paskui jos išvadavimas. Autorius dėsto laiką Ardžio, Daugupiaus valdovo, karo žygiais ir pilies iškilmėmis švenčių metu, kuomet likimas vieno jo sūnaus Meruno, kurio pražudymas buvo surengtas, išlieka gyvas, patenka svetimos šalyse, ten auga, išmoksta visokių priešų kovų būdų, kuriuos vėliau grįžęs į savo gimtinę kraštą panaudoja priešų išmušimui, ir užėmęs iš jų didžią pilį lieka joje valdyti. Apart Meruno garbingumo iškėlimo rašytojas vaizduoja dar ir žmonių dvasinę pusę, kurion daugelyje paskirų esančių straipsnių įsigilina. Abelnai, aprašymas yra lengvai suprantamas ir laiko skaitytojo dėmę iki pabaigos nors knygoje literatinės vertės nėra.

Šventas Kazimierai, Melskis Už Mus

Nors ir kažin kaip dirbtume, kad ir mokytojų galvos mus dydėtų, net didžiausios minios mums padėtų, visą tai nueitų veltui jei Geriausias Dievas nepalaistys mūsų veiklas savo gavinančia malone. Ta malonė mūsų sielai yra lyg tie vitaminai, kurie užlaiko ir apsaugoja mūsų kūno stiprumą. Ne vien mes kaip pavieniai reikalaujame tos Dievo dovanos, bet ir organizuotos sielos ir kūnai taip pat jei veiks Dievo darbą neapseina be Viešpaties pagalbos.

Tą malonę Šventoji Dvasia gausiai dalina visiems. Dalį jos duoda tikrai kuomet jos prašome: „Prašykite ir bus jums duota“, taria mums pats Jėzus. Nevien, kad jis laukia mūsų maldų, bet prie to mums duoda Jo begaliniai numylėtas ypatus, kurios savo galingu užtarymu teiks mūsų prašymus Aukščiausiam.

Mums kaip jaunimui ir lietuviams tuomi Užtarėju yra Šventas Kazimieras. Jo užtarymu, mes naudojames, prie Jo galime visuomet siekti pagalbos. Mūsų organizaciją jis saugoja, jai Dievo apvaizdos ir malonių prašo. Ir mes sau ir savo organizacijai daugiau pagalbos per jį apturime, juo labiau išreiškiame jam mūsų pasitikėjimą ir prisirišimą.

Neužilgo Bažnyčia pagerbs tą mūsų Užtarėją. Kovo 4 d. visuotinoje Bažnyčioje yra jam pašvęsta. Mes irgi neužmirškime atiduoti savo patronui jo užsitarnautą garbę. Vyčiai ir visas jaunimas, visi lietuviai garbinkime mūsų Šventąjį Kazimierą. Šimmet apvaikšiosim, Jo šventę Kovo 10 d. Sukraukime tą dieną mūsų skaisčių sielų pašvęstų Viešpatis Kūnu ir Krauju, bukieta.

Šventasai Kazimierai aukojame Kovo mėnesį tavo garbei. Neužmiršk mūsų tavo pasikalbėjimuose su mūsų Tėvu.

AESLOP'S FABLES

THE STORY OF A VINTNER AND HIS WINE.

Once upon a time when strong liquors were prohibited, there lived a merry vintner. His schooling was not of the best, and he could never make the same wine twice so he hired another fellow villager to help him.

This helper was a young and sprightly fellow with a good taste for beverages of any alcoholic content. In addition he could read and write, so it was a simple matter for him to write down the formula of any beverage he distilled thus making it easy to repeat the formula used. Note my fellow townsmen that an education is indispensable at times.

Together the Vintner and his new assistant began to make progress in the distillation of their liquids as well as in the sales. Everything was done with the utmost secrecy for it was contrary to the village law to either purchase, sell or make this elevating beverage.

One day while the Vintner went away to the nearby big city the hired man decided to surprise his master by mixing a new brand of vintage. He mixed plenty of the liquid and tasted, tasted, and tasted it to get it just right. Before he was through tasting, he began to feel better than just right; but his head began to ache and he knew he was unsteady on his feet; the world looked rosier, and he felt very happy, and he knew he could lick the world if he wanted to.

The hired man bottled up some of his precious formula and walked outside to see what he could see, if anything. The world outside was not the same; the earth was evidently off its axis. He began to swing his arms, with the intention of making the world behave by chastising it severely. Neighbors gathered 'round him to witness the great battle. It was not long before a beautiful car drew up along the crowd and two fine gentlemen, probably servants of a rich lord thought the hired man to himself, asked him to accompany them. They took his arm and escorted him to the beautiful car which soon whisked him away. They came to a large and stately building, and again they helped him alight. This was really service thought the hired man to himself. He did not try to figure out why such consideration was shown him. They led him to an air-cooled room with a door of iron, it appeared like iron crotchet work.

After examining his quarters the hired man expressed his satisfaction to the two gentlemen and said, "Wake me early to-morrow, for I'm to be the Queen of May".

The hired man never awoke.

Remember this then: Don't be deceived by your taste and there will always be a to-morrow — and then you can be the Queen of May.

LITTLE PRINCE PASHKUSTVA.

Once the little Prince Pashkustva saw a dog with a can tied to its tail. He ran after it, caught it, and untied the can. The dog looked up at the Prince in appreciation.

With a swift kick the little Prince sent the dog scampering and he yelled: „You nut! Next time don't let a can be tied to your tail without fighting.”

KVIETIMAS TALKON

Su naujais metais prasidėjo Lietuvos Vyčių naujų narių vėjus. Atskiros vyčių kuopos apskritys ir pavieniai nariai stoja darban, dėdami visas pastangas padidinti savo organizaciją.

Bet tas jų darbas neturės gerų pasekmių jei plačioji visuomenė jiems nepadės. Apie vyčių organizacijos išgyvenusios jau 24 metus svarbą nėra reikalo daug ir kalbėti. Jos nuveiktieji praeities darbai patys apie save kalba. Tik pažvelgkime, kuris iš dabartinių katalikiškų organizacijų vadų vienu ar kitu laiku nėra buvęs vyčių veikėju ar nariu, kur dauguma ir gavo savo pirmus patyrimus vadovauti draugijoms.

Pastaruoju laiku vyčių veikimas daugelyje vietų buvo apsilpęs, bet tam yra daug priežasčių. O svarbiausia iš jų, tai kad vyčiams pritrūko vadų, kurių daugumą apleido vyčius dėl svarbių priežasčių, daugelis grįždami savo tėvynėn Lietuvon. Ir vyčių veikimas turėjo susilpnėti, nes be to dar, jauni ir nepatyrę čia gimę ir augę vadai negavo reikalingos paramos iš plačios lietuvių katalikų visuomenės.

Kuopos kai kuriose vietose turėjo net ir visai žlugti, kadangi veitoj pagalbos vyčiams buvo organizuojama kitos draugijos ar klubai. Ir daugelis atvėjų tas išėjo netik vyčių, bet ir pačios visuomenės nenaudai.

Jau kiekvienam aišku, kad lietuvybės likimas Amerikoje priklausys nuo mūsų jaunosios kartos. Ir mes nerasime geresnių priemonių atsilankyti prieš jaunimo ištautėjimą, kaip stiprinant ir palaikant savo jaunimo organizacijas.

Kongresuose ir seimuose išnešame rezoliucijas remti ir stiprinti jaunimo organizacijas. Bet kur tų visų prižadų vaisiai? Bereikalo seimuose skaitomė paskaitas ir veltui gaišiname laiką, jei apleidę seimo posėdį vėl viską užmirštame.

Laikas jau susiprasti ir parodyti darbais, ne žodžiais savo paramą jaunimui. Gi šio vėjus proga eikime vyčiams talkon ir padėkime jiems sutraukti po savo vėliavą visą katalikišką jaunimą. Kur yra vyčių kuopos — stiprinkime jas, kur jų dar nėra — suorganizuokime. Lai nelieka nei vienos vietos Amerikoje, kur randasi lietuvių, be vyčių kuopos.

Jaunime, stok į katalikiško jaunimo organizacija vyčius! Gi tu, jaunuoli-e, iš Lietuvos atvykęs, kodėl nepriklausai prie vyčių? Gal manai, kad ta organizacija tau yra perprasta? Ne! Čia tau yra labai plati dirva padirbėti savo tautos ir bažnyčios gerovei, įkvėpti tos savo lietuviškos dvasios į čia augusį jaunimą, kuris da neturėjo progos pamatyti savo akimis tos mums brangios tėvų žemės, Lietuvos.

Ir ištikro, kiekvieno iš Lietuvos atvykusio jaunuolio priedermė yra skleisti lietuvybės dvasią šios šalies jaunajai lietuvių kartai. Gi savo priklausymu prie vyčių, pridوسي tai organizacijai daugiau lietuviškumo ir labiau ją sustiprinsi. Nes nekartą nusiskundžiame, kad vyčiai suamerikonėję ir savo susirinkimuose dažnai vartoja anglų kalbą. Bet tai yra tik dėl to, kad šią organizaciją sudaro daugiau, kaip 90 procentų čia gimęs ir augęs jaunimas ir todėl nepridera mums juos kaltinti, jei nevisada vartoja savo susirinkimuose lietuvių kalbą.

Tėveliai, jūs irgi raginkite savo sūnus, dukteris įrašyti į vyčius, jei norite, kad mūsų jaunoji karta liktūsi su mumis, kad mums pasitraukus jie galėtų stoti mūsų vieton ir varyti mūsų pradėtą darbą pirmyn.

OUR RESPECTS TO THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA

Radio Address Given on February 17th over „Margutis”

Simultaneously with their compatriots on the Baltic sea, more than 50,000 Chicagoans of Lithuanian birth and extraction are taking part in mass meetings tonight in observance of the “July Fourth” of the Republic of Lithuania.

More than a million American Lithuanians throughout the United States mark the 17th anniversary of Lithuania’s independence.

Margutis’ radio hour is dedicated to the celebration.

Seventeen years ago our modest fathers on the Baltic shores broke away from the czaristic rule of Russia in the aftermath of the World’s War, and without superior diplomacy, minus any fanfare and brass bands, confident that right will prevail, announced to the world that the 32,000 square miles of land tilled by the 4,000,000 peasants is not Poland, Russia, Germany — but Lithuania, the former kingdom of which Chaucer spoke in his Canterbury Tales.

But Lithuania? Where is it?

In 1919 a dispatch came from Paris to America, referring to Lithuania as one of the Balkan States. When President Antanas Smetona was inaugurated in Kaunas, a non-plussed American reporter in Paris forwarded a dispatch to his editor here, saying that Hon. Smetona was made President of Lettland.

When our fathers immigrated to this country at first they were classified as Russians.

This foggy idea of the identity of Lithuanians was dispelled by us Americans of Lithuanian descent.

We accomplished much toward the recognition of the Republic of Lithuania.

We Americans of Lithuanian parents are the press agents for Lithuania!

I dare say that Jack Sharkey, that bragged Lith in the world of fisticuffs, created more interest in Lithuania than the finest, most intellectual discourse on the physiography of that country before a group of Harvard or Yale professors. He was the subject, and incidentally Lithuania, of barmaids, radio talks, newspapers columns, of society on Park Avenue, of women gossiping on their back porches. He and Lithuania became the subjects of the backwoodsman, the fishermen angling for bass and the foreman shouting to his workmen digging sewers.

Brisbane, Westbrook Pegler, Joe Foley, Paul Gallico, Damon Runyan and many others wrote about him, mentioning Sharkey, the big Lith. “ungarrulous gob”.

Other boosters of Lithuania among the Americans of Lithuanian descent are Billie Burke-Burkauskas, the golf champ; Ed. Kawal, captain of the North Western University football and basketball teams; Joe Stankus-Stancock, captain of the Naval Academy football team; our Krause brothers, Ed. and Phil., who made a name for themselves at Notre Dame and De Paul universities, and many others.

I consider Phyllis Duganne, a young and pretty lassie from Pennsylvania, who writes very fine and interesting stories for the Cosmopolitan and American magazines, as the foremost American woman of Lithuanian descent. And watch her go to higher goals in journalism and books!

Other women here of Lithuanian descent who are famous are Barbary Darlys, Chicago Civic opera prima-donna; Emily Mickunaitė of the Grand Opera of New York; the youthful and good looking Miss Martha Osipavičius and Miss Emma Shemaitis who are winning laurels in breaking swimming records.

And during A Century of Progress of 1934 a young Lith. attorney, A. A. Olis, conducted the Chicago Symphony Orchestra playing Lith. compositions of Naujalis, Jakubėnas, Karnavičius and procured by Composer Anthony Vanagaitis.

In the business world we can be proud of the Brenza clan, especially John Brenza, who was the first in the United States to reopen his bank in Chicago following the national bank moratorium declared by President Roosevelt.

Hon. Antanas Kalvaitis, Lithuania's consul here, commenting on Lithuania's present condition, said:

"Lithuania economically, politically and culturally is progressing.

"I pay my respects to my fatherland, to our President Antanas Smetona, whose sixtieth birthday we recently celebrated.

"May Lithuania prosper and continue in its success!"

What attitude shall we Americans of Lithuanian origin take toward Lithuania, the land of our progenitors?

It seems to me that we owe the country of our fathers reasonable respect!

When we consider the realities which make our nation America great, we readily will see the reason.

Today Americans are courageous and intelligent; and that is due to the stock from which they sprang.

America's progenitors entered into a quest for new lands and new homes, breasted mighty seas in ships too frail for modern use and faced the wilderness.

Our fathers abandoned all that was dear to them in Lithuania to face the unknown — a new social order and new conditions of life.

They came here penniless, mostly on borrowed money, on "shifkartė" purchase by some relative here, who allegedly was piling mountains with dollars.

It required a lot of courage, stamina for our fathers to forsake their birth-place!

To us, their sons and daughters, they have communicated their daring, their adventurousness, their adaptability, their culture, their songs, the dainos, their loves, their customs, especially their language, more ancient than Greek, Latin, Scandinavian, Slavic and German.

For this we are better Americans!

For this we must thank our fathers; for this we must respect their country!

For this we are joyful that the Republic of Lithuania is celebrating today its own "Fourth of July"!

Thank you!

— Stasys Pieža.

Vyčiai! Žengiame Pirmyn!

Su šiais 1935 metais prasidėjo nauja era Liet. Vyčių organizacijoje. Naujus Metus vyčiai pasitiko su pasiryžimu ir pasirengę stoti į didelį darbą patraukti po savo vyčių vėliava šios šalies lietuvišką jaunimą.

Paskelbiama naujų narių vajas, bet ištikro labai mažai apie jį kalbama. Šių metų vyčių nusistatymas: pasirodyti darbais — ne žodžiais. Ir pradžioje vajaus dauguma kuopų dirbo prisirengiamuose prie vajaus darbuose. Bet jau ir ir dabar vajui vos dar įpusėjus pasekmės puikiausios — vyčiai turi savo tarpe jau net kelius šimtus naujų narių. O kur dar vajaus pabaiga?!

Ir tiesiog stebėtina, jog, visa tai vyksta kaip tik tuo laiku, kada pakartotinai spaudoje straipsniai apie vyčius labai nepalankūs savo išvadamis ir išpranašavimais apie šios organizacijos ateitį. Kur būk vyčiai esą beveik mirę, kaip tik didžiausias veikimas pasirodo. Vyčiai ypatingai parodo judėjimą netik Chicagoje, bet ir New Yorke, New Jersey, Naujoj Anglijoj ypatingai, ir visur kitur, kur jų veikimas atrodo apsnūdęs.

Tai vyksta netik dėka pačių vyčių, bet ypatingai dvasios ir kitų visuomenės veikėjų kurie galop nutarė paduoti savo ranką jaunimui ir jam pagelbėti organizatyviame darbe. Deje, ne visur ir ne visi visuomenės vadai tai supranta ir dar vis stovi atstu nuo Lietuvos Vyčių organizacijos.

Bet neatsižvelgiant to, jaunimas stoja po vyčių vėliava po viena, po kelius, dešimtis ir net po kelios dešimtis vienu kartu. Taip, vyčių obalsis „Dievui ir Tėvynei“ pasiekė minias ir pradėjo reikštis jų trūso vaisiai.

Vyčiai! visi kaip vienas išnaudokime šį momentą! Dar didesniu pasiryžimu varykime šį pradėtą vajaus darbą pirmyn. Parodykime, jog mes siekiame savo tikslą darbais, ne žodžiais. Skleiskime savo idėjas jaunosios lietuvių kartos tarpe ir savo pasekėjus patraukime po savo vėliava.

Ei vyčiai! Padirbėkim tautai ir bažnyčiai!

A. J. Mažeika,

HARD-WORKING SECRETARY

Every council has been receiving its correspondences from the center more promptly than ever before. Our secretary Miss Bernice Paliliunas has been on the job though not in the best of health. We wish her a speedy recovery.

PATERSON, N. J. COUNCIL 61.

Dance A Success!

The dance held under the joint sponsoring of the Paterson Knights of Lithuania and the Saint Theresa's Guild, on Saturday January 26th and held at the Parish hall at 147 Montgomery Place, was a tremendous social and financial success. With the entire hall arrayed in lively colors and the lamps shaded so as to cast a somber hue, the throngs that attended found a real atmosphere for their dancing and merrymaking.

The proceeds realized from this affair have been given over to the committee in charge of the renovations in the church.

Hail Rulers!!!

Persident — Edward A. Stanulis
 Vice-President — Anthony A. Waraske
 Recording Secretary — Mary Troskas
 Financial Secretary — Theresa Usas
 Treasurer — John Spranaitis (2nd) Trustees — Walter Waraske and William Noreika

BISHOP MATULIONIS VISITS

With the greatest throng ever to jam its way into the St. Casimir Church since its foundation, the Lithuanians of Paterson showed their appreciation to his Excellency, the Right Reverend Bishop Matulionis, for paying them a visit; and for the purpose of viewing for the first time in their lives the numerous ceremonies that are performed during the course of a Pontifical Mass.

Many dignitaries of the Church and State were also present, among them the Mayor of the city. On the following evening they gave a small concert in His honor and presented his Excellency with slight tokens of esteem.

Membership Drive On!

In accordance with the letter sent out to all the councils of the K. of L., the Paterson chapter is also sponsoring a gigantic membership drive by which means they hope to increase their membership.

It was clearly specified at the meeting, however, that undesirous persons, who have not the interests of the Club at heart, would not be accepted and all members were urged to choose the potential members with discretion so as to avoid possible altercations in the future.

— "Edstan."

GREAT NECK, L. I., N. Y., COUNCIL 109

It is now quite evident that our club has been making marked headway; for we have registered about a dozen new members to our council: Peter Valentine, Dominic Dennis, Anthony Gatavinsky, Mary Petroni, Elizabeth Petroni (the Damon and Pythias twins), Agatha Winslow, Stell Paulonis, Frances Stadulis, Ann Sousaris.

A new dance committee was chosen composed of Mary Lazaunick, Alec Wesey, and Charles Budris. This group is to make plans for some newer novelties at the oncoming union-killing duel. Elections for delegates for the next district conventions were usual with Charles Budris and Joseph Dagelis, Jr. being chosen to represent Great Neck. It is quite apparent that the members are making better headway in bench-warming than they are in the partaking of the activities of the organization.

After the business meeting we had a gala party for the celebration of the birthday of our honorable president, John E. Masulis. Father Aleksunas presided as toastmaster. Alec Wesey could always be found lying around somewhere on the floor or growling at the dog. After the stroke of twelve, we had the honor to celebrate the birthday of our pretty secretary, Mille Kens. Both of these specimens receive presents that had the members on their toes and crutches waiting until they finished unravelling their packages. Johnnie got his wish fulfilled by receiving an auto and Millie got what every well dressed woman should wear.

Once more the club extends its most cordial thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Budris for the use of their home and for their considerate patience for putting up with a bunch of wolves. By the way Charlie did some fancy strumming on his banjo, while Johnnie did some fancy tap-dancing. The piano selections came from all sources.

Our members are well represented in the field of athletics, for the major part of the town's high school basketball is comprised of Lithuanian boys and we have had the honor of having a Lithuanian boy be selected as captain of every football team that the high school has ever put out.

NEW YORK and NEW JERSEY DISTRICT DRAMATIC CIRCLE NEWS.

The first meeting this year of the Dramatic Circle was held on January 31, 1935. Election of a new executive board took place, and the following members were selected:

Chairman — Peter Vaicels,
Treasurer — Charles Bason
Secretary — Ann Vaicels
Lithuanian Librarian — Susan Mazeika
Lithuanian Director — Anthony Mazeika
English Librarian — Bertha B. Brosky
English Director — Michael Martinkus
Stage Manager — William Bason

The former executive board did all in its power to establish more firmly the newly formed Dramatic Circle and performed its duties well. Let us hope the Circle will continue successfully.

What has happened to all you potential Duses and Hampdens? The N. Y. and N. J. District Dramatic Circle which was formed last July needs more members. More types are wanted. Everyone has a bit of actor in his makeup. Why not give this ability a means of expression? Each one who attends has an equal chance of showing his or her acting? capabilities.

During the past year the Circle presented "The Red Lamp" and „Atgaila", and even played a return engagement. (What again?) Now we have in production the English comedy „Camp Keep-Off" and the Lithuanian drama „Žmogžudžio Duktė". Both casts are studying parts and rehearsing scenes so that they may be as nearly perfect as possible. Needless to say — what with the excellent directing of Mr. A. Mazeika and Mr. M. Martinkus — both plays and players are progressing satisfactorily. It is hoped our premiere will be March 9. Tentative dates and places are now selected and councils will be notified accordingly. We advise all District Councils to dust off the auditorium chairs, put stage curtain in working order and fix any loose flooring in the stage.

Besides producing two main plays, the Circle intends to feature skits and short one-act plays after each meeting. This will not only give all members a chance to act, but also provide entertainment. Moreover, these skits and plays will be available to any council within the District should it be in need of such entertainment for affairs. We invite the chairmen of local councils to attend our meetings so that they may be aware of our activities.

The casts of the two plays are as follows:

„ŽMOGŽUDŽIO DUKTĖ"

Lithuanian Drama in Four Acts

Marytė (18 year old girl) Ann Vaicels
Stepas (Her father) Peter Vaicels
Julija (Her mother) Anna Kainauskas
Stasys (Young doctor) Walter Kainauskas

Žigmas (Professor) Anthony Samolionis
Edmendas (An old suitor) John Misalauskas
Zelma (A landlady) Bertha B. Brosky

"Camp KEEP-OFF"

English Comedy in Two Acts

Jeffrey Harland (Rich bachelor) Michael Martinkus
Vincent Moore (His father) Peter Vaicels
Florette Carrington (Pretty young girl) Leonore Cappil
Jane Carrington (Her mother) Bertha B. Brosky
Alice Elliott (Florette's friend) Mary Stagniuonas
Laura Barker (Country woman) Ann Stagniuonas
Peter Loring (Traveler) Charles Bason
Dubs (A tramp) William Bason

Several of the two casts have already appeared before the public in the plays presented last year and take pride in calling themselves troupers. However, both old and new actors will need the encouragement which comes of seeing a full house. So please all you knights don't forget to come.

Follower of Thespis.

NEW YORK, COUNCIL 12

A hot time was had by all despite the fact that it was the coldest day this year, thus far. The occasion was our Parent's Night Dance held January 27th.

The girls of our council, acting as waitresses, waited, and the boys acted as bus-boys. After the coffee and tea had been spilled, (pardon me, served), the choir, which is almost entirely made up of our own members, entertained (?) with some songs and ditties. Of course our girls quartette and boys duet (sounds strange, doesn't it?) entertained (again?) in their own inimical style. Naturally, no event of this sort is complete without speeches and our Spiritual Adviser, Father Shestokas, started them with some good advice to both young and old. After, our chairman, Tony Vanis called on proud parents to contribute their little speeches. Horror of horrors, the orchestra hadn't put in an appearance yet. But leave it to good old Bertha Brosky to pull us out of the dilemma. She started the game "Tėvas Parvažiavo" and soon young and old were laughing at the antics of those who were "it". I think many pounds and several years were lost (but not missed) that night. Being on the dance committee your correspondent was bald on one side and gray on the other by the time the orchestra arrived. After they had thawed the icicles out of their instruments they swung into a lively polka that had mama and papa harking back to days when.

Council 12 wishes to thank all the councils who cooperated to make this affair the success it was, and especially Council 49 of Brooklyn and the new Council 113 of Linden.

About 12:30 A. M. the orchestra swung into the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" and everyone departed to his domicile for a well-deserved night's rest.

— Blue Eyes.

DAYTON, OHIO, COUNCIL 96.

The place was the November K of L meeting. I awoke with a start wondering if it was Patrick Henry delivering one of his famous speeches but after pinching myself several times, discovered it was only Frank Gudelis nominating a candidate for the new president. And listen sister or brother clubs, or whatever you call yourself, this past election was held with a real political touch. Plenty of "what it takes" was spent for beer and cigars during the crooked campaign which lasted a whole month.

Behold the final results: Charles Goldick — President; Bill Chappel — Vice-President; Bernadette Sluzas — Recording Secretary; Mary Sinkwit z— Ass't. Secetary; Veronica Sinkwitz — Fin. Secretary and Treasurer. (We find that sh's a most capable miser when it comes to hoarding our dough). Anthony (Pike) Alexinas — bouncer. If he's as good a bouncer as he is a basketball player, there will soon be a dent in the walk beyond the exit. Chief Tattletale (correspondent) — Mary Sinkwitz; Assistant — Frances Latos.

Following this grand election the new officers went into a huddle and as a result promised to entertain the club after the next meeting. Expecting a free feed, all hands turned out and found that it was Scotchman's nite ,everyman for himself. (The old meanies made us pay for our own eats.) However, a gay time was had by all, in spite of all.

Oh no, we don't do everything for our own amusement. A grand card carnival, under the guiding hand of Joe Goldick and a Valentine Dance under the supervision of Mary Zakar and Annadell Miller are brewing in the pot. Here's hoping they'll simmer down to a perfect broth.

Well, I'll be seeing you after the next snooze.

Assistant Tattletale.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. KUOPA 103

Kovo 20 d. 103 kuopa buvo surengusi šaunų žaidimą — lošimą. Dovanų buvo iki valiai. Ypatin-ga padėka šio vakaro pasekmėms tenka veikliai komisijai, kuri susidarė iš Jono Juknevičiaus, Marijonos Avižymutis, Julės Matuzaitės, Petro Kuprevičiaus, Julės Dongveskaitės ir Petro Babavičiaus.

Toliau pranešama, kad Providence'o Vyčiai su visu savo apielinkės jaunuimu minės Švento Kazimiero dieną, Kovo 10 d. savo parapijos bažnyčioje per sumą. Visi kuopos nariai neužmirškite atlikti savo pareigas ties savo Šventojo Patrono.

Susirinkime atvyko Juozas Lakus, svečias iš Worcester padangės. Pasakęs gražią jaunimui kalbą kvietė 103 kuopą į Worcester Vyčių parengimą.

Providence'o Vyčiai auga ir skaičiumi ir dvasia. Dabartiniai nariai smarkiai darbuojasi padidinti savo narių skaičių bėgančimae naujų narių vajuje.

Pirmyn 103 kuopa!

NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT NEWS

Yowsah! On Washington's Birthday, February 22nd, The New England District Dance will be held at the Norwood Jr. High School. Paul St. Regis' orchestra will furnish the music.

Benefit Dance

On March 1st our first Annual Dance given by the New England Knights for the benefit of the organization will be held at the Municipal Building of So. Boston. Billy Stevens famous band will play your favorite tunes in both Lithuanian and American. The price will be a mere forty cents or so — a large silver cup will be the award to the council having the largest attendance. All councils should turn out en masse for this affair!

Council 103, Providence will hold its card party on February 20, in the church basement. At the last meeting the council was graced with the presence of So. Worcester's President J. Lakus who extended greetings to the group and reminded them of the semi-annual District convention the last Sunday in April.

They claim this convention will be greater than the last one out in Athol. We'll wait and see; it will have to go some.

Kid Burper.

MASPETH — LODGE 110

Before anything else is mentioned, Maspeth wants to thank the Linden Knights for the load of fun they had when about 14 Maspethites made their presence felt at Linden's latest dance. Starting early Saturday night and lasting well into Sunday night, our members had one round of continuous fun — by the way, our lodge won a loving cup that night for having the greatest number of representatives there. Thanks very much to you Linden, and we'll not forget your hospitality, dance, or party for a long time. Best of luck to you in your new attempt to reorganize the Knights in Linden. You deserve success and we know you will attain it.

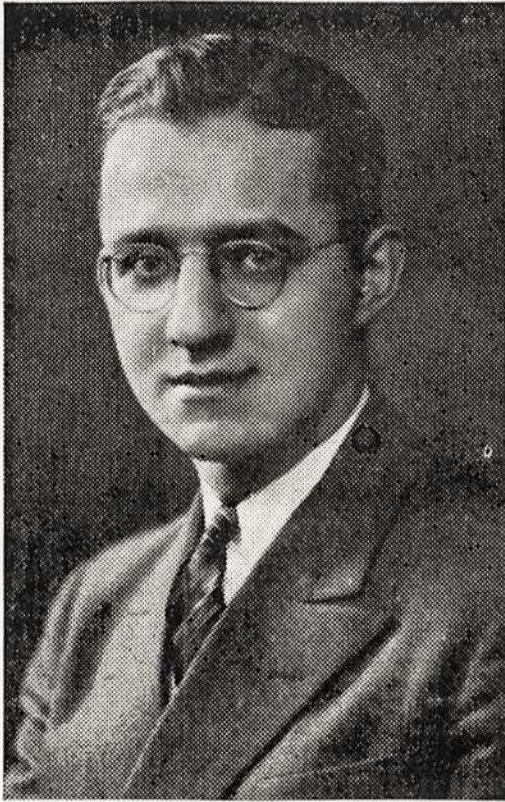

During a dance in Great Neck last month, the initiations of our club were in order. Peter Kabazinskas, a man four-square, nonchalantly and with gay abandon, furiously pushed a nickel across the dance floor, and broke all existing records for this event. The Millrose games for him next. Just the same, we feel that this magnificent specimen of athletic (even down to his underwear) superiority got off rather lightly. WARNING — Aldony Masiulis, take heed, you are next!

Dear readers, if you haven't seen our girl members play basketball, you have yet to see maidenly grace disporting itself. My tired old eyes have seen much, but they have never seen such lightness of foot, Like the soft, caressing kiss of a blissful lover; such speed, with their big feet. I don't understand how they manage to move around,

That's all from Maspeth.

— Howe U. Likem.

The guy who wrote „Dabartinė Mūsų Lietuva“ in the July issue is all wrong. The area of Lithuania is not 36,000 square miles — but only about 21,000. Lithuania is not as big as Indiana, but only as big as West Virginia. Lithuania is not bigger than Latvia, but smaller.

Five lines in the May issue read: “The Lithuanian conversation between Bill Krause and Cleofas Stankūnas was hilarious. Many a side was bursting from the laughter resulting from hearing Prof. Stankūnas, the authority on speaking Lithuanian express himself in Lithuanian. My, what a lovely pastime.

Evidently the columnist who so praised that list of somebody's ten favorite books in the June Vytis doesn't give a whoop for the classics — there isn't a single one on the list.

One line in September's Vytis reads: “...gali tuoj priprasti giliai kvėpuoti giliai ir sykiu jimapup...” Who's a pup?

How they juggle the figures on the Lithuanian population in Chicago! If you want the real figures go down to your library and look at the 1930 census.

How come the skepticism and digs in the pages of Vytis directed at higher education and those who seek it? Did the writers once get bounced out of college?

One of the paradoxes of Lithuanian — American life: to hear some of our Lithuanian old-timers get a big kick out of the Lithuanian that our young people try to speak, and then to hear these same old-timers speak their “highly purified” mother — tongue — a hash of Polish, Russian, American and a bit of Lithuanian.

— The Cynic

One of the most beautiful and wholesome love-stories (notice that we do not use the word romances) of all times is, in our opinion, W. H. Hudson's “Green Mansions.” Never yet has this most abused of subjects been treated so originally and beautifully as this book. “Green Mansions” is truly a masterpiece and should be read at least once by all who wish to read the best. It is unfortunate, however, that publishers and book-sellers, when advertising it, give the public a false and entirely misleading impression as to the character of the book. This tender and moving story of the love of the narrator Abel for the jungle-girl Rima and the tragic sequel to this love will move even the stoniest heart. There is much description of nature. The locale is a South American jungle. The characters are apparently Catholic. However, their belief in God and heaven is childish and almost superstitious, and in some dubious observations, but no where is there the least offense given or intended.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., COUNCIL 93.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye! We have with us again, the notorious "FOUR HORSEMEN" of a few years ago. After much persuasion the "HORSEMEN" consented to do their part in acquainting the other Councils of our noble deeds and efforts. Therefore listen, and you shall hear the highlights of the news of Council 93.

What Ho! We wish to place our bid in for the Membership Drive Prize that the Center is offering. To prove our sincerity, we already have 3 old members that have rejoined and also about 15 members that have promised to pay up for one full year by the next meeting.

To the old members rejoining, we wish to extend a hearty welcome, they are: Adam Eismont, Joseph Stevens and Frank Jurlen. Our appreciation also to the old members who have promised to do their part.

This is just the beginning, we expect to have every member on the Honor Roll. C'mon Gang, let's go! Let's show what Council 93 really can do when they want to. We will list all Honor Roll Members in this column next month, so do your part and pay up and see your name in our VYTIS.

We are planning to observe St. Casimir Day on March 3rd by receiving Holy Communion in a group and celebrating in the evening at our Church Auditorium.

We are also presenting a hilarious comedy entitled „DĒDĒ ATVAŽIAVO" on February 24th for the benefit of our new Church.

Let's awaken our K of L spirit, work in co-operation and make Council 93 bigger than it ever has been before.

"Four Horsemen"

CLIFFSFIDE, N. J. COUNCIL 111.

On January 10th we held our annual election of officers. Those elected were:

Al Pettrow, President,
Vera Tompkins, — Treasurer.
Mildred Horbin — Vice-President.
Peter S. Pettrow, —Secretary.

These individuals have resolved to do much for our council and we feel confident they will live up to our expectations. All Lithuanian youth within Cliffside should belong to the Knights of Lithuania.

Watch the VYTIS for our next social event, and in the meantime we extend congratulations to the new officers of every council for this year. We hope they work in their respective sections for thus our entire organization will prosper.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., COUNCIL 41.

On February 7th — the "Vytauto" council held a "Social Dance" at the Annunciation Parish Hall. With most of the K of L councils and many of the parish societies well represented the affair was a success. Among the councils out were: Kearny-Harrison, Maspeth, Central Brooklyn, and last but not least, Jersey. Among the parish societies present were: the Annunciation Catholic Club, the Sodalities and the Choir of the parish. The Vytauto council wishes to express its appreciation and thanks the various clubs for their kind support. "Moosic" for the occasion was furnished by Mr. Adam Jezivitus' Orchestra. In addition to the dance feature there was a raffle for a bottle of "Sherry Wine and "Seagrams" (?) The wine was won by Mr. Charles Buda — a guest... and the "Seagrams" couldn't be refused by yours truly. The affair was a fifty-fifty one with the parish.

March 3rd will be Convention and Communion Day for the councils which comprises the New York and New Jersey District. This event is held in honor of our patron saint... St. Casimir. All members are urged to support this important affair. The affair is given by the District and it is to be held at St. Ann's Church Hall... Grand St. and Manning Ave. Jersey City, New Jersey. Members are urged to assemble at St. Ann's Hall not later than 10:00 o'clock. In addition to these features there will be a Card Party after Convention.

Mr. Joseph Romemchus another active member of our council has just put down $35.00 out of his pocket and together with a couple of members has purchased a beautiful pocket billiard table! Mr. Romemchus, says the club can repay him in small installments so that the financial condition of our council will not be radically jeopardized. It sure was a surprize to the boys to see this additional game down the club!

With the membership drive well under way now which is being sponsored by the "Center", members are asked to invite their friends on our social evening's and show them around our clubroom. With many new games such as ping-pong, pocket billiards, bridge and raido, should interest new and old members.

Among some of the important items to be discussed and passed upon at our last meeting were: The council has decided to purchase five dozen K of L insignia's from the District Organization.

The council takes great pleasure in introducing our new members: Mr. Stanley Romemchus, Mr. Constantine Lesevičius, Mr. Bronislovas Leberis, Mr. Charles Žemaitis and last but not least Miss Albina Povilaitis.

Pilietytės Certifikatas Nauju Vardu.

KL. — 1931 m. išsiėmiau
pilnas pilietytės popieras, bet jau ištekėjau už vyro, ir vartoju savo vyro pavardę. Aš no-riu, kad mano naujas vardas būtų užrašytas ant pilietytės popierų. Kaip galiu tą atlikti?

ATS. — Turėsi išgauti nauja pilietytės certifikatą, už kurį reikalauja užmokestį net $5.00. Gali aplikaciją pasiųsti į District Director of Immigration and Naturalization. Turėsi pristatyti apsivedimo leidimą ir seną pilietytės certifikatą (antras popieras).

Ateiviai — Jureiviai.

KL. — Apleidau savo laivą
jau penki metai atgal, ir nuo to laiko niekad neišvažiavau iš Suv. Valstijų. Suprantu, kad ateivį jureivį, jeigu jis čionais šioje šalyje išgyvena per tris metus, kad nors ir nelegališkai, negali išdeportuoti. Jeigu tai teisybė ar galiu legalizuoti sa-vo buvimą ir prašyti pilietytės?

ATS. — Klaidingai Tamsta supranti šį įstatymą. Teisybė, kad prieš priėmimą Imigraci-jos akto iš 1924 m., ateiviai — jureiviai nebuvo deportuojami po trijų metų apsistojimo šioje šalyje. Bet nusprendimas Aug-ščiausio Teismo aiškiai nustato, kad ateivis — jureivis, ku-ris apleido savo laivą po pri-ėmimo 1924 m. akto gali būti bile kada išdeportuotas. Ir to-dėl Tamsta negali legalizuotis savo rezidenciją. Lieką vienas išimtis, jeigu nori tapti Suv.
Valst. piliečiu, ir tai yra apleisti Suv. Valst. ir vėl įvažiuoti su tinkama imigracijos viza.

Kur Siųsti Užregistruotas Aplikacijas.

KL. — Gyvenu mažame
miestelyje Indianos valstijoje.
Todėl, kad aš negaliu atsiminti kada legališkai atvažiavau ir negaliu to darodyti tai Naturalizacijos Biuras man patarė išpildyti Form 659. Kadangi ap-likacija yra adresuota Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization ar aš turiu ją pasiųsti į Washington, D. C.?

ATS. — Ne. Turi būti pasiųsta arčiausiam Immigration and Naturalization Service oficieriui. Tamstos atsitikime tas arčiausias oficerius randasi
Gary, Indiana. Galima rasti surašą tų ofisų ant Form 659 paskutinio puslapio. Pagal naują reguliaciją, tik dviejų fo-tografijų yra reikalaujamos.
Reikia pristatyti dvi kopijas form 659 ir aplikantas pra-vardę uždėda prie notaro, ir turi pasiųsti piniglaškį ant $10.00 vardu Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C.

Mirusio Ateivio Paliktas Turtais.

KL. — Imigrantas, kurį aš
gerai pažinau, neseniai mirė, ne-palikdamas paskutinio testamento. Kitas pažįstamas, ne giminė, tik taip pažįstamas, veikia kad jį paskirtų turto le-gališku globėju. Miręs imigrantas paliko šiek tiek pinigų bankoje ir nejudinamo turto.
Aš žinau, kad tas žmogus turi žmoną ir vaikus sename kraš-te. Kaip galima apsaugoti ši-tą jo šeimyną.

ATS. — Paprastai, kuomet
žmogus miršta nepalikdamas paskutinio testamento tai teismas paskiria administratorium vieną arba daugiau artimesnių giminių. Jeigu žinai, kad šitas žmogus ne giminė mirusio tai pranešk tą faktą Surrogate Teismui. Parašyk laišką jūsų konsului, nes tarpe to žmogaus pareigų yra prižiūrėjimas rei-kalų ir reikalavimų jo tautiečių, kurių giminės miršta šioje šalyje.

„DRAUGAS“ ATIDARĖ RADIJOS VALANDĄ!

Vyčiai Dalyvauja Programme.

Su džiaugsmu sveikiname katalikų dienraštį „Draugą“, pradėjusį mūsų visuomenei begalo reikalingą žinių ir grynai katalikiško turinio pamokų darbą. Nei vienas neužgins šiandieninę radijo jėgą. Per ją galima ypatingai pasiekti milijoninę publiką. Ir mūsų lietuviai katalikai ilgai laukė kuomet jų žmonių balsai pasigars jų per išstisias valandas atdarame „loud-speaker’yje“. Lai „Draugo“ pradėtas žygis gyvuoja ir auga, o žinome, kad mūsų visuomenė remis jų pasišventimą, reikalui priėjus net ir finansiniai.

Antrame „Draugo“ radijo programme dainoje pasižymėjo ypatingu būdu Chicagos Liet. Vyčių Dainos Choro artistai — vadas Juozas Sauris, solistai Sofija Saurienė ir Liudvikas Tenzis. Ypatingai puikus atbalsiai girdisi net ir iš svetimtaučių pusės ponui Liudvikui Tenziui, kuris savo giliu bari-tonu žavėjo klausančius. Žinau, kad „Draugo“ programuose šis nebus jų paskutinis pasirodymas.

Pabaigoje programo kalbėjo Liet. Vyčių Centro Dvasios Vadas Kun. A. Valančius, jaunimo reikalui.

Sixteen

Ypač smagu buvo išgirsti Povilo Šaltimiero malonų balsą, kaip „Draugo“ programo „announceric“. Jis dabar ir nuo seno uoliai darbuojasi Vyčių tarpe. Linkime Povilui neužilgo į reguliarų radijo an-nauncerių eiles patapti.

Neužmirškite pasukti savo radijo kas Seredos — Trečia-dionio popiet nuo 4 iki 5 va-landos iš stoties WEDC — 1210 kilocykles. Nudžiugsite savo programu.

LIET. VYČIŲ „DAINOS“ CHORAS SUŽAVI PUBLIKĄ

Buvusiame dienraščio „Draugo“ koncerte Vasario 3 d. Lietuvių Auditorijoje, Chicagoje. Chicagos Apskričio „Dainos“ Choras, kurio vadu yra ponas Juozas Sauris, sukėlė triukšmingą rankų plojimą, kad net svetainės sienos sujudėjo. Rодėsi, kad neužteko publikai dainelių, kurias choras gražiausiai išpildė. Užsibaigus programui iš visų kampų pasigirdo įvairūs komplimentai — net tokių kad šta lietuvių geriausias choras Chicagoje. Valio mūsų chorui, valio jo vadui, solistams ir choristams. Sekantis Liet. Vyčių „Dainos“ choro parengimas įvyks Balandžio 28 d. — Operetė — Lietuvių Auditorijoje, Chicagoje.

PAVASARININKŲ ATSTOVAI ATVYKS Į AMERIKĄ

Pereitą vasarą pavasarininkų centro valdyba su dr. J. Lemonu priešakyje, susitarė su atvykusiu iš Amerikos Vyčių centro pirmininku A. J. Mažeika, dėl atsilankymo pavasarininkų atstovų su artistais ir rankdarbių paroda į Ameriką. Pavasarininkų konferencija, kuri įvyko gruodžio mėn. 27 — 28 d. d. Kaune, entuziastiškai pritarė ir išrinko J. B. Laučką delegacijos vadu. Dabar pavasarininkai šiai kelionei sparčiai ruošiasi ir tikisi būti Amerikoje ateinančio rudens pradžioje.

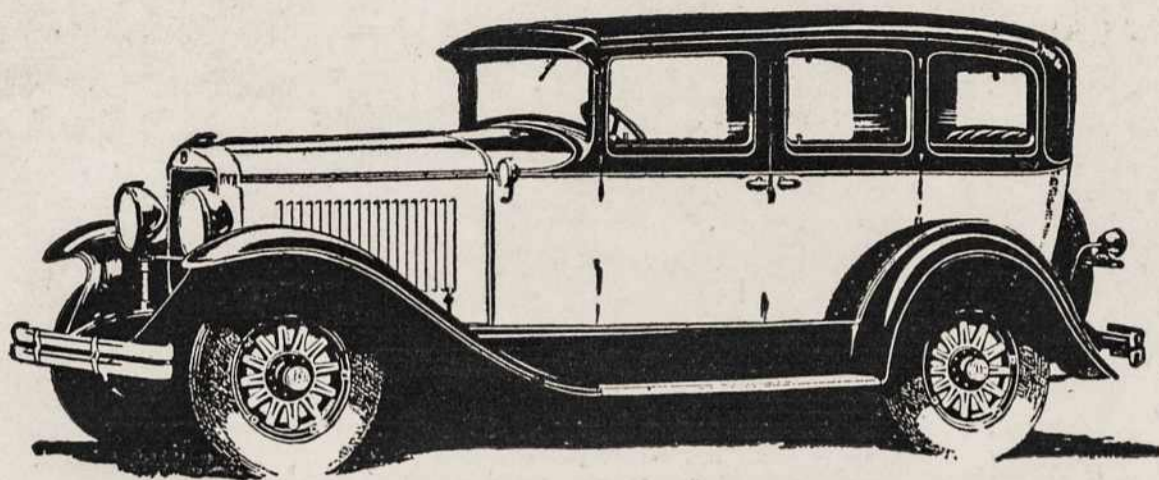

Dabar tik lieka mums nustatyti maršruto tvarką per visas kuopas ir prirengti atatin-kamas sutiktuves mūsų idėjos broliams.

Tikimės, kad kiekviena kuopa suteiks tinkamiausią kooperaciją komisijai, kuri darbuojasi šiam reikalui. Tolimesnių pranešimų rasite sekančiuose Vyties numeriuose.

Ieško Gero Vado.

Keletą metų atgal Rusija žadėjo, kad iš savo valstybės padarys pasaulinį rojų. Nemanau, kad mes gyvenanti dabar sulauksim įvykinimą jų prižadų. Sakoma, duok mažam vadui užtektinai virvės, tai jis pats save pakars — taip pat ir su valstija.

LUXURIOUS SIXMOBILE SEVEN

Makes You Forget All Your Other Troubles.

Now, right now, is the time! Purchase the car of the minute, the great speedy SIXMOBILE Seven, a seven cylinder double deluxe automobile. All equipped; fool-proof paneless windows throughout, ultra-soft and downy plush mohair seats, horn and steering wheel included, at a price you can't afford to miss seeing. And it's packed in a beautiful light blue box with pink ribbon to match.

Our Terms Are Less Than Less.

You purchase the car on our easy payment plan. We even give you ten dollars cash to purchase your first ten gallons of gas in our own garage. After that you pay but one cent per minute, imagine that, just one cent per minute to be the owner of a SIXMOBILE SEVEN. Don't stop to figure out the actual cost, come right down to our salesroom, it's perfumed for your convenience—stay as long as you like for the smell of it.

Your Old Worries Disappear.

Suppose it's a hot and sultry summer day; why you jump into your SIXMOBILE and ZOOM up to Alaska or else you turn a tiny dial and the cool Frigidaire, hid neatly under the front seat, wafts comforting breezes upon your moistened brow; or else the dust of the road makes you feel untidy, why you simply jump in the back seat and turn on the shower. These are but a few of the luxuries you will find upon pressing one of the 223½ buttons of the wondrous SIXMOBILE. The ½ button is for a new convenience only half-developed, but we give you that too, indicating we hold back nothing from the customer.

Science And Invention.

Now as to the mechanism of the car. It's a radically newly designed motor, an engineering achievement we alone are proud to possess and which no other company envies us having. We give you seven cylinders, not that one of the other six won't work, it's just our idea of the baker's dozen. The valve-in-the-head motor has been used unsuccessfully before; we have perfected that use in our laboratories. The new double-duty carburetor mixes water automatically with the gas thus saving the gasoline stations that trouble. You'll find knock-knee action in every wheel.

Get Wise Buddy.

If you don't purchase right now you'll be just another "Schlamiel". Now I suppose you don't know what a "Schamiel" is? Well neither do we, but we guarantee you won't get in any other car what the SIXMOBILE SEVEN will give you, and that's plenty. Take that worried look off your face; look at a SIXMOBILE SEVEN and smile — why you'll even laugh out loud. Buy, mister, buy right now!

DAISY DARLING

(Advice to Palpitating Hearts)

Daisy Darling:

I'm young, sweet, fair to the eyes and have a very appealing smile. I'm in love with a fellow who is more or less handsome, mostly less, and whose name is Vytautas. He goes out with Ann, Isabel, Cassie, Julia, etc., etc., and he goes out with me very often too. Do you think he loves me?

Francis

Dear Francis:

Your letter from So. Boston, just reached me this morning. Don't worry in the least about your Vytautas and his love for you. It's quite evident he loves all the girls so he loves you too.

Logical Daisy.

Daisy:

What am I to do with that young man I'm keeping steady company with? Every time he suggests the idea of dinner he says, "Would you like to have dinner with me?", then when I answer yes, he says; "O. K. Tell your mother I'll be over about seven o'clock".

Ann N. J.

Dear Miss New Jersey:

The next time he does that just tell your mother to dress up and be ready to go out for dinner with your beau. When he does come over and finds both of you dressed to go out with him — that will stop or rather cramp his future style.

Scheming Daisy.

What Again!

Our friend, the absent-minded professor, jumped out of bed in the middle of the night, ran to the stairs and shouted: "Who's down there in the kitchen?"

"Nobody", said the burglar.

"Well, that's funny", said the professor, "I could have sworn I heard a noise."

DĒDĒ KASTUKAS SAKO:

Don't aim to please all people,
'cause it jest can't be done. You may be doin' the right thing but someone will always yell it's wrong.
If yore conscience is reliable pay attention to that alone and shoot ahead.
